At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of April 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 398th Section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that each of the three General Lighthouse Authorities therein mentioned, that is to say, the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation, shall have power, with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, to exempt any ships, or any classes of ships, from the payment of Light Dues receivable by such authority, and to annex any terms or conditions to such exemptions;

And whereas the said three General Lighthouse Authorities did, by virtue of the said power, with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, given on the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, exempt all vessels, smacks, and boats belonging to the United Kingdom, while actually employed in catching fish, within soundings, from the payment of Light Dues;

And whereas it is expedient that this exemption should be extended to all vessels, smacks, and boats supplied with the ordinary fishing gear, and engaged solely in fishing, whilst they are employed in carrying to port fresh fish from the fishing grounds;

And whereas the said three General Lighthouse Authorities have submitted, for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, the following exemption, that is to say:—

That all vessels, smacks, and boats supplied with the ordinary fishing gear, and employed solely in fishing, shall be exempt from the payment of Light Dues whilst they are employed in carrying to port fresh fish from the fishing grounds.
