

TO THE CREDITORS OF

WILLIAM BLACK, residing in Edinburgh, sometime Merchant in Leith, afterwards Lessee and Manager of The Queen's Theatre and Opera House, Edinburgh.

THE said William Black has presented a Petition to the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, praying to be discharged of all debts and obligations contracted by him, or for which he was liable at the date of his sequestration on 29th September 1856: On which Petition the Lord Ordinary pronounced the following Deliverance:—Edinburgh, 10th May 1859.—The Lord Ordinary appoints this Petition to be intimated in the Edinburgh Gazette, in terms of the Acts 2 & 3 Victoria, cap. 41, and 16 & 17 Victoria, cap. 53.

(Signed) 'W. PENNEY.'

JOHN ROSS, Agent.

Edinburgh, May 13, 1859.

WILLIAM MYLES, Accountant in Dundee, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of JAMES BROWN, Shipowner in Dundee, hereby intimates, that at a general meeting of the Creditors of the said James Brown, called for the purpose by the Trustee, with the consent of the Commissioners, and held on the 9th day of May current, and continued by adjournment until this 10th day of May current, the Bankrupt made offer to make payment of a composition of Twelve Shillings and Sixpence per pound on all debts due by him at the date of the sequestration of his estates, to all his just and lawful Creditors, payable said composition in four instalments, as follows, viz.—Three Shillings and Fourpence per pound at three months, Three Shillings and Fourpence per pound at six months, Three Shillings and Fourpence per pound at nine months, and Two Shillings and Sixpence per pound at eighteen months, all respectively after the 10th day of June next; and he farther made offer to pay and provide for the whole preferable claims affecting his sequestrated estates, and the expences attending the sequestration and the remuneration to the Trustee, and offered Joseph Murray, Shopman, 52, Seagate, Dundee, as cautioner for payment of said composition of Twelve Shillings and Sixpence per pound, payable as aforesaid, and farther offered, in addition, John Deuchars, Junior, Merchant, Dundee, and Thomas Buchan, Sheriff-Officer and House Factor, Dundee, as additional cautioners for payment of the said three first instalments of Three Shillings and Fourpence per pound each, respectively, of the foresaid composition of Twelve Shillings and Sixpence per pound, and engaged that besides executing the usual bond of caution, his cautioners, as aforesaid, shall respectively, along with him, grant promissory-notes to the Creditors for their respective compositions, payable in the way and as before mentioned: That the Creditors present at said meeting and adjournment thereof having unanimously resolved that the said offer and security should be entertained, and having agreed to entertain the said offer and security, Notice is hereby given, that another general meeting of the Creditors of the said James Brown will be held within the British Hotel, Dundee, on Thursday the 2d day of June next, 1859, at 11 o'clock forenoon, for the purpose of finally deciding on the Bankrupt's said offer and the security proposed.
