

silver Stuff Waistcoats, full-trimmed, coloured Swords and Buckles.

And on Sunday the 19th instant, the Court to go out of Mourning.

N.B.—The Queen has been pleased to command, to prevent any injury to trade, that Mourning shall not be worn at the Drawing-Room on Saturday the 11th instant.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of June 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Her Majesty, upon a Representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, was this day pleased to appoint Erasmus Henry Brodie, B.A., of Trinity College, Oxford, Esq. to be one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of June 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 'Burial Ground (Scotland) Act, 1855,' it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, upon a Representation of one of Her Principal Secretaries of State that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County in Scotland, under certain provisions of the said Act, has been received by him, in pursuance thereof to order that no new Burial Ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, or (as the case may be) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, Burials within certain limits, or in certain Burial Grounds or places of Burial, shall be Discontinued wholly, or subject to any qualifications or exceptions mentioned in such Order; and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act: Provided always, that notice of such Representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such Burial Ground is situate, and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parishes affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered;

And whereas the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, late one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has made a Representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor pronounced by the Sheriff-Substitute of Renfrewshire, finding that the allegations in a Petition of William Allison and John Hall Tenlon, (being two Members of the Parochial Board of the United Parishes of Greenock,) that the Burial Ground entering from Nicholson Street, Greenock, commonly called the West Church-Yard, is now, and will be dangerous to health, and offensive, and contrary to decency, have been proved; which

Representation recommended the issue of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, directing that Burials be forthwith Discontinued in the said Burial Ground;

And whereas notice of the said Representation, and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed as required by the said Act:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to Order, and it is hereby Ordered, that from and after the 15th day of this instant June, Burials be Discontinued in the Burial Ground entering from Nicholson Street, Greenock, commonly called the West Church-Yard, with following exceptions, viz. :—

The Family Vault of Sir Michael Robert Shaw Stewart, Baronet, adjoining the Church.

The Family Burial Place of T. Mackay W. A. Crawford, Esq., of Cartsburn, situate within the Church, which may be used as a place of Burial upon the following conditions,—that the Burying Place be enclosed with a substantial stone wall on the north and east sides; that the walls be placed under the surface six feet, and that a neat parapet wall and coping be constructed above the surface of the ground, surmounted with a suitable malleable iron railing; and that the ground within the walls be entirely covered with strong and dressed flag stones laid at the level of the surface, closely fitted all round, and half chicked on the joints.

The Family Burial Ground of Miss Jane MacGown, situate in the Church-Yard for the future interment of her remains.

The Family Burial Place of the late Archibald Turner, for the interment only (when necessary) of Mrs Catherine Turner or Carter, residing at No. 19, Vennel, Greenock.

The Family Burial Place of the late Donald Thomson, for the interment only (when necessary) of the Misses Catherine and Margaret Thomson, residing at No. 57, Shaw Street, Greenock.

The Family Burial Place of the late John Black, for the interment therein (when necessary) of the Widow of the said John Black;

And the Family Burial Place of John M'Aulay, Senior, for the interment therein only (when necessary) of Miss Jean M'Aulay, daughter of the said John M'Aulay.

WM. L. BATHURST.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of June 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 'Burial Ground (Scotland) Act, 1855,' it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, upon a Representation of one of Her Principal Secretaries of State that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County in Scotland, under certain provisions of the said Act, has been received by him, in pursuance thereof to order that no new Burial Ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with
