This day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was read by Russell Gurney, Esq. the Recorder, and which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive upon the Throne :—

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, approach the Throne with the strongest feelings of attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We rejoice that under your Majesty's mild and happy rule this Nation enjoys the inestimable blessings of peace, and that your Majesty receives from Foreign Powers assurances of their desire to maintain with this Country the most friendly relations.

It is however with deep sorrow that we have learned that war has been commenced on the Continent of Europe, and that some of its fairest provinces are likely to be the battle-fields of contending armies.

We desire to offer to your Majesty our hearty thanks for the assurance afforded by your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, that a strict and impartial Neutrality will be observed by this Country throughout the impending contest, and are anxious to express our decided conviction that a neutral policy, consistent with the security and honour of the Nation, will be conducive to the best interests of this Country, and calculated to promote the cause of humanity and peace.

We earnestly hope that an opportunity may speedily be afforded for your Majesty to again offer your friendly mediation between the hostile Powers, and thereby to restore to Europe the blessings of a general peace, consistent with the honour of your Majesty's Allies, and conducive to the happiness and independence of Nations.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious answer :—

"I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address, and for the renewed assurances of your attachment to my Person and Government.

"I have viewed with deep regret the war which has commenced on the Continent of Europe. It will be my earnest endeavour to maintain a strict neutrality between the contending Powers.

"Confiding in the attachment of my People and the support of my Parliament, I shall adopt such measures as may enable me effectually to uphold the dignity of my Crown, and may afford to this Kingdom, under the blessing of Providence, the best assurance for the maintenance of peace."

They were all received very graciously, and the Lord Mayor and the Mover, and Seconder, had the honour of kissing Her Majesty's hand.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-Office."
