FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1860.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
February 3, 1860.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold a Court at St James's Palace, on Wednesday, the 7th of March next, at two o'clock, for the special and exclusive reception of Officers of Volunteer Corps, who may be desirous of presenting themselves before Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS.

The Officers of Volunteer Corps, who are desirous of attending the Queen's Court, at Saint James's Palace, on Wednesday the 7th of March next, should forthwith communicate their intention to the Lord Lieutenants of the several Counties in which their Corps have been established.

A list of the Officers who have thus signified their wish to be present will be transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of each County to the Secretary of State for the War Department.

These lists, which will distinguish the rank of each Officer, and the Corps or Company to which he belongs, will be forwarded to the Lord Chamberlain from the War Department, at latest, upon Monday the 5th of March.

The Lord Lieutenants and the Military Authorities summoned to attend the Court, will enter the Palace at the Entrée Entrance in Ambassadors' Court, and will pass at once to the Entrée Room.

The Officers of Volunteers will enter the Palace at the usual Corridor entrance, opposite Marlborough House, and will be shewn at once to the room appointed for the assembling of their Corps, where they will form into Companies in the order in which they are to pass the Queen. In order to facilitate this arrangement, each Officer will be furnished with a card on which is distinctly written his County, the number of his County in the Army List, and the name and number of his Corps, Company, or Sub-division. Artillery should be specially marked on the cards of Officers of Artillery Volunteer Corps.

The doors of the Palace will be opened at half-past twelve o'clock, and no Officer can be admitted after a quarter before two o'clock.

Officers will appear in the Uniforms approved for their Corps by the Lord Lieutenants.

They will pass before the Queen by Regiments, Companies, or Sub-divisions, headed by the Senior Officer present.

The Officers of each Corps will be introduced by the Lord Lieutenants of their Counties, who will join them before entering the Throne Room. In the absence of the Lord Lieutenants, they will be introduced by the Under Secretary of State for the War Department. The Officers will draw up in line before the Queen, and the Senior Officer of each Corps or Company present will hand a card, containing the names of those about to pass before Her Majesty, to the Lord Lieutenant. This card will be passed to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read the names to the Queen. The Officers will then pass on.

The various Corps will take precedence according to their Seniority in the Army List.

SYDNEY, Lord Chamberlain.

DOWNING-STREET, February 27, 1860.

THE Queen has been pleased to direct the following letters-patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, for investing the Supreme Court of Hong-Kong with appellate jurisdiction in cases of civil suits between British Subjects, heard and determined under the authority of Her Majesty's Order in Council of 3d of March 1859, by British Consuls, within the dominions of the Emperor of Japan.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c., to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting :

Whereas by an Ordinance passed by the Legislative Council of Hong-Kong, in the year 1845, intituled, No. 6 of 1845, "An Ordinance to Repeal Ordinance No. 15 of 1844, for the establishment of a Supreme Court of Judicature at Hong-Kong, and to substitute other provisions in lieu thereof," it was enacted that there should be within the said Colony a Court which should be called the Supreme Court of Hong-Kong.

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the 3d day of March 1859, it was ordered that in the event of any suit of a civil nature, arising between British Subjects within the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan, it should be lawful, upon the application of any party to such suit, for the Consul of the district within which the party sued should be found, to hear and determine such suit, subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court of the Colony of Hong-Kong; and that every such appeal should be made and conducted in the manner and form, and under the same conditions as were prescribed by the said Order in Council, in case the defendant only were a British Subject. And whereas by the 28th Article of the aforesaid Order in Council, it further ordered that the Supreme Court of the Colony of Hong-Kong should have, and might exercise, concurrently with Her Majesty's Consul, authority and jurisdiction in regard to all suits of a civil nature between British Subjects arising within any parts of the dominions of the Emperor of Japan; provided always, that the said Supreme Court should not be bound, unless in a fit case it should deem it right so to do, by writ of certiorari or otherwise, to debar or prohibit the Consul from hearing and determining, pursuant to the provisions of the several articles of the said Order, any suit of a civil nature between British Subjects, or to stay the proceedings of a Consul in any such matter.

Now know ye, that we, upon consideration of the premises, and of our certain knowledge and mere motion, have thought fit to direct and ordain, and do direct and ordain as follows; that is to say:—

1. If any party to any such suit as aforesaid, heard and determined in Japan, shall be dissatisfied with the decision given upon the said suit by the Consul before whom the same shall be tried, it shall be lawful for such party, within fifteen days after such decision, to give to the Consul notice of appeal to the Supreme Court of Hong-Kong, whereupon the Consul shall, with as little delay as possible, stamp with his Consular Seal, and transmit all the documents which were produced before him, and none other, and also the notes taken by him of the evidence of the said suit, together with a statement of the grounds on which he formed his decision, to the said Supreme Court, and an exact copy of the order made by him, and shall forthwith notify to the several parties the transmission thereof. Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Consul to require from any party appealing to the said Court, reasonable security, which shall consist in part of one or two sufficient sureties to be approved by the Consul, that such party shall and will abide by the decision to be given by the said Supreme Court, and pay all such costs of and incidental to such appeal, as the said Supreme Court shall direct.

2. And we do further direct and appoint that it shall be competent to the said Supreme Court, and the said Court is hereby required to take into consideration such documents and statements, and decide upon the same, and to communicate its decision to the Consul, who shall forthwith proceed to carry the same into execution.

3. And we do further direct and appoint that in any appeal to the said Court from the decision of a Consul, it shall not be open to any party to adduce any further evidence than that which was laid before the Consul, and that a party shall not be required to appear personally to prosecute an appeal or support a sentence. Provided always, that in all appeals from the decision of a Consul, it shall be lawful for a party to allege facts material to the issue in the cause, which have come to his knowledge subsequently to the decision of the Consul, and to produce evidence in support of such facts, and provided also that it shall moreover be lawful for the said Court to admit any further legal evidence besides that adduced before the Consul, on its being established to the satisfaction of the said Court, by oath on personal examination, or by affidavit, that the party desiring to produce such further evidence was ignorant of the existence of such evidence, or was taken by surprise at the hearing before the Consul, or was unable to produce it before the Consul after due and reasonable diligence and exertion on his part in that behalf, or where, under the particular circumstances of the case, it shall appear to the said Court that further evidence ought to be received.

4. And we do hereby give and grant to the said Supreme Court, full jurisdiction, power, and authority, to hear and determine all such causes, suits, matters, and things, as are mentioned and comprised in the said 28th Article of the aforesaid Order in Council, of the third day of March 1859.

5. And we do further direct and appoint that it shall be lawful for the said Court to make such rules, orders, and regulations, not being inconsistent with the provisions of the said Order in Council, or with the laws in force in Hong-Kong, as may, in the judgment of the said Court, be requisite for the speedy and effectual decision of the aforesaid appeals, and also of the said causes, suits, matters, and things. Provided always, that all such rules, orders, and regulations, shall forthwith be communicated to the Governor of Hong-Kong, and by him shall be transmitted to us, our heirs and successors, under the seal of the said Court, for our or their approbation or disallowance, to be signified through one of Our Principal Secretaries of State to the said Governor.

In witness whereof, we have caused these, Our Letters, to be made Patent. Witness Ourselves at Westminster, the 30th day of January, in the twenty-third year of Our Reign.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the Duties of Postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed, and were made chargeable and payable upon, for, and in respect of letters, newspapers, Parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or Inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of Foreign or Colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable were to be paid; and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage was extended to any increase, or reduction, or remission of postage.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better Regulation of Colonial Posts," power is also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of Colonial postage payable by law for the transmission of letters by the post, and to subject the same to rates of postage, according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and the rates of Colonial postage from time to time to become payable, under or by virtue of any such Warrant, are to be charged and paid accordingly; and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable are to be paid; and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage was extended to any increase, or reduction, or remission of postage; and it was declared that the term "letter" should include post letters, and packets, newspapers, votes, and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, and votes and proceedings of the legislatures of any of Her Majesty's Colonies or Provinces, pamphlets, and other printed papers.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-Office," the provision fixing the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post in the first-mentioned Act was repealed, and in order to prevent packets of an unwieldy bulk or inconvenient size being transmitted by the post, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any time or times thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to fix the maximum weight of letters to be sent by post, and from time to time to repeal or revoke such maximum weight, wholly or in part, and declare any other maximum of weight in lieu thereof. And it is provided that all letters should be forwarded, conveyed, and delivered by the post in conformity with any such Warrant, and also in conformity with, and under and subject to all such orders, conditions, limitations, regulations, and restrictions, as to the form, size, or dimensions thereof, whether in proportion to the weight or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct. And by the said Act power is also given to the Postmaster-General to collect and receive the Foreign and Colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post, and also, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to require the postage, British, Colonial, or Foreign, of any letters sent by the post to be pre-paid either in money or in stamps, as he might think fit, on the same being put into the post-office, and also, with such consent, to abolish or restrict the pre-payment in money of postage on letters sent by the post, either altogether or on certain letters, and to require the pre-payment thereof to be in stamps, and also to refuse to receive or send by the post any letters tendered contrary to any regulations thereby made. And it is also declared that in all cases in which the British postage chargeable on any letters sent by the post should exceed the sum of one penny, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury might, by Warrant under their hands, reduce such postage to any other rate of postage they might from time to time think fit. And that also the Postmaster-General might, if he should think fit, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, allow any printed words, writing, or marks, in addition to the direction, to be put on any printed newspaper or other printed papers sent by the post, or on the covers thereof, and that any such newspapers or other printed papers should from thenceforth be forwarded, either free of postage or subject to such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct. And it is also declared that the Postmaster-General, and any officer of the Post-Office, might detain any letters which should be posted or sent by the post contrary to the regulations of that Act, or the first mentioned Act, or contrary to any regulations made under the authority of that Act, or of the first-mentioned Act, or contrary to the regulations of any Treasury Warrant to be issued under or by virtue of that Act, or which had been or should be issued under or by virtue of the first-mentioned Act, and open such letters, and either return them to the senders thereof or forward them to the places of their destination, charged in either case with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct. And it is also declared that the term "letter," as also the term "letters," used in the said now reciting Act, should be construed according to the interpretation of the term "letter," contained in the said recited Act passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her Majesty.

And whereas it is expedient to make regulations by which packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, may be transmitted by the post, between any two of Her Majesty's Colonies, through the United Kingdom, and to fix certain rates of postage and scales of weight, at which such packets may be so transmitted in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us, in and by the said several before-mentioned Acts, or or any or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare, as follows :—

1. All packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, Colonial, or Foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures, may be transmitted by the post between any two of Her Majesty's Colonies, through the United Kingdom; and all such respective packets shall be so transmitted respectively, in conformity with, and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained; and the single rate of postage for the transmission thereof shall be as follows, that is to say, for every such packet so transmitted, not exceeding four ounces in weight, if such packet, in the course of such transmission thereof as aforesaid, shall not pass through or across the Isthmus of Suez, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof as aforesaid, an uniform single rate of postage of sixpence; and for every such packet so transmitted, not exceeding four ounces in weight, if such packet, in the course of such transmission thereof as aforesaid, shall pass through or across the Isthmus of Suez there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof as last aforesaid, an uniform single rate of postage of sevenpence.

2. All such packets so respectively transmitted as aforesaid, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned, according to the scale of weight hereinafter contained; that is to say :—

On every such packet so transmitted respectively as aforesaid, if exceeding four ounces in weight and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage.

And on every such packet so transmitted respectively as aforesaid, if exceeding one half of a pound and not exceeding one pound in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every such packet so transmitted respectively as aforesaid, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such packet so transmitted respectively as aforesaid, if exceeding one pound and one half of another pound and not exceeding two pounds in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet so transmitted respectively as aforesaid, above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight. And each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

No such packet, which in length, or breadth, or width, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions aforesaid.

No such packet, posted in any other of Her Majesty's Colonies, addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies or New South Wales, addressed to any other of Her Majesty's Colonies, exceeding the weight of three pounds, shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions aforesaid.

The terms "books, publications, or works of literature or art," in this Warrant used, shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as in their general character are either literary, or consist of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written, or plain), publications, or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacks, printed or lithographed letters, and such artistic productions as prints, maps, (whether on paper, or canvass, or cloth, and whether printed or written), and photographs, when not on glass, or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering of, or upon, or belonging to any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, book markers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other thing usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission, which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it shall belong. And all letters, notices, and other communications (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed or partly lithographed, and partly written, which if wholly written would not be considered letters or communications in the nature of letters, shall and may be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant. But any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which if wholly written would be considered a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, shall not be entitled to the privilege of being transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant. Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the sending by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, of any patterns, or books of patterns, or papers of patterns, of any article or thing whatsoever.

Every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover, or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter, either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to, or intended for, the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any inclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other inclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof.

Upon every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by the proper Colonial postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto.

3. In order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post-Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

4. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to extend, to interfere with, or in anywise to affect any privileges relating to the transmission by the post of printed newspapers, or any printed publications which are allowed to pass by the post under the newspaper privilege; nevertheless any printed newspapers which are not authorised to be transmitted by the post under such privileges may be transmitted by the post at the rates of postage and under the regulations contained in this Warrant.

5. Every letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which if wholly written would be considered a letter or a communication in the nature of a letter, sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, and shall be charged and chargeable with postage as a letter, and shall be transmitted by the post in conformity with, and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions relating to letters posted and addressed in like manner.

6. If any question shall arise whether any such letter, notice, or other communication as is last hereinbefore mentioned, is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, or is chargeable as a letter, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

7. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, posted in any other of Her Majesty's Colonies, addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies or New South Wales, addressed to any other of Her Majesty's Colonies, shall exceed the weight of three pounds, or if any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall in length, or breadth, or width, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or if any packet, or the cover, or envelope of any packet, sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall not be open at the ends or sides, or if there shall be any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter, if the postage had been paid when posted, and such postage may be either paid by the sender, or be charged to the person to whom such packet shall be forwarded.

8. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any inclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other inclosure not authorized by this Warrant, every such letter, or communication, or inclosure, may be taken out by any officer of the Post-Office, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or forwarded to the address on the packet, charged in either case not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of postage equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under the provisions of this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight; and the remainder of the packet, if the postage be duly paid when posted, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

9. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted, and the postage paid thereon, or postage stamps affixed thereto, at the time of the same being posted, shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage which would be chargeable under this Warrant if such packet did not exceed four ounces in weight, every such packet shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon, or postage stamps affixed thereto, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid; together with a further and additional rate of postage, equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight; but if any such packet shall be posted without any postage having been paid thereon, or any postage stamp affixed thereto, or with a postage paid thereon, or postage stamp affixed thereto less in amount than the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant, every such last-mentioned packet shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such last-mentioned packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted; and such postage may be either paid by the sender, or may be charged to the person to whom such packet shall be forwarded.

10. In all cases where any packet may be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, and any such packet shall be transmitted not in conformity with the provisions thereof, and under and subject to the regulations, orders, directions, and conditions herein contained, and shall, by reason thereof, have become liable under or by virtue of this Warrant, to be charged with the like rate or amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter, if the postage had been paid when posted, or with any higher rate or amount of postage, the Postmaster-General shall, and he is hereby authorized and empowered at his discretion, either to charge any such packet with the rate or amount of postage to which it shall have become liable, under or by virtue of this Warrant as aforesaid, or to charge any such packet with any other rate or amount of postage which he shall think proper, not exceeding the rate or amount of postage to which such packet shall have become liable under or by virtue of this Warrant as aforesaid, nor less than the rate of postage to which such packet would have been chargeable with if transmitted in conformity with the provisions hereof, and under and subject to the regulations, orders, directions, and conditions herein contained.

11. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any packet sent through France, or any other Foreign Country, to which a transit rate of postage would be payable thereon.

12. The Postmaster-General shall, and may have and exercise the option of sending any packets hereby authorized to be sent by the post, under the provisions aforesaid, either by packet-boat or private ship, at the same rate of postage as by packet-boat, when and as he shall think fit.

13. All packets transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, bearing date the 19th day of February 1855, relating to redirected rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post.

14. For the purposes of this Warrant the several ports only of Cape Town, Mossell Bay, and Port Elizabeth, within the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, shall be deemed and considered Her Majesty's Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, between which and any other of Her Majesty's Colonies packets may be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

15. The term "by the post," used in this Warrant, shall, as to the sea conveyance, include the conveyance by any British or Colonial packet-boat, and also by private ship, when sent by the Postmaster-General in accordance with the 12th clause hereinbefore contained, and the option thereby given to the Postmaster-General, and the term "East Indies," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean every part or place in Her Majesty's dominions in Asia (China, Hong-Kong, Ceylon, the Mauritius, Java, Borneo, and Australia excepted), and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty.

16. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

17. This Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of May 1860.
