THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS AT ST JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms at St James's Palace are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing-Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing Regulation that no presentation can be made at a Drawing-Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing-Rooms except in accordance with the above Regulations.

No Presentations will take place at the Drawing-Room on the 18th of May next.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

SYDNEY, Lord Chamberlain.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed, and made chargeable and payable upon, for, and in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of Foreign or Colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable were to be paid, and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage was extended to any increase, or reduction, or remission of postage.

And whereas the provision fixing the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post in the said before-mentioned Act was repealed, and further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in that behalf, by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-Office.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said before-mentioned Acts of Parliament, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, did, by a certain Warrant in writing, under the hands of two of them, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the 21st day of July 1857, order, direct, and declare (amongst other things,) that all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, Colonial, or Foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures, might be transmitted by the post between the several colonies and places mentioned and set forth in the Schedule B to the said now reciting Warrant annexed, and that all such respective packets should be so transmitted respectively, in conformity with, and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions therein respectively mentioned and contained, and that the single rate of postage for the transmission thereof respectively, should be that which was therein mentioned and set forth, and that all such respective packets so transmitted should be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage therein also mentioned.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in further exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said several herebefore recited Acts of Parliament, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, by two other several Warrants in writing, under the hands respectively of two of them, the said Commissioners (by authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), and bearing date respectively at Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, one of the said last-mentioned two Warrants on the 19th day of June 1858, and the other of the said last-mentioned two Warrants on the 1st day of July 1859, and respectively reciting the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, did make and declare certain other regulations, orders, directions, and conditions respecting certain of the said packets in and by the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857 mentioned and authorized to be transmitted by the post, which said last-mentioned regulations, orders, directions, and conditions respectively, are also hereinafter mentioned.

And whereas it is expedient to extend the privilege of transmitting by the post packets of a like kind between the Colonies of Nova Scotia, Bermuda, and Newfoundland, and between any two of the said Colonies, without passing through the United Kingdom, in conformity with, and under and subject to the same regulations, orders, directions, and conditions as are mentioned and contained in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, so far as the same respectively are applicable to packets transmitted between the several colonies and places mentioned in the said schedule B to the said recited Warrant annexed, with such provisions, nevertheless, as are contained respectively in the said two recited Warrants of the 19th day of June 1858 and the 1st day of July 1859, in the manner and at the rates of postage hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said several hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this present Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order, direct, and declare as follows :

1. All packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, Colonial, or Foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, or the Colonial Legislatures, may be transmitted by the post between the Colonies of Nova Scotia, Bermuda, and Newfoundland, or between any two of the said Colonies, without passing through the United Kingdom, the sea conveyance being by British packet-boat ; and that on every such packet so transmitted as aforesaid, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for the transmission thereof respectively, as aforesaid, the uniform single rate of postage of threepence. And on every such packet, so transmitted as aforesaid under the provisions of this present Warrant, exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid such progressive and additional rates of postage as are directed to be charged, taken, and paid on and in respect of the several packets mentioned and contained in and authorized to be transmitted by the post under the provisions of the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857.

2. All packets to be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this present Warrant, shall be so transmitted respectively in conformity with, and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions respectively mentioned, expressed, and contained, in and by the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, so far as the same respectively are applicable to packets transmitted between the several Colonies and places mentioned in the said Schedule B to the said recited Warrant annexed, in like manner, in all respects, and as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if the said regulations, orders, directions, and conditions had been and were contained, inserted, expressed, and repeated in this present Warrant, except only so far as the same regulations, orders, directions, and conditions were and are altered or affected respectively in and by the said two hereinbefore recited Warrants of the 19th day of June 1858 and the 1st day of July 1859, respectively, and as hereinafter in the 3d, 4th, 5th, and 6th clauses of this present Warrant mentioned.

3. All letters, notices, and other communications (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would not be considered letters, or communications in the nature of letters, shall and may be transmitted by the post under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, conditions, and rates respectively herein, and in the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, respectively mentioned, contained, or referred to, or such of them as shall be applicable thereto.

4. Any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, shall not be entitled to the privilege of being transmitted by the post under or by virtue of this present Warrant, or the regulations, orders, directions, or rates of postage herein respectively contained or referred to, or hereunto extended or made applicable. And every such last-mentioned letter, notice, or other communication sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, and shall be charged and chargeable with postage as a letter, and shall be transmitted by the post in conformity with, and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions relating to letters posted and addressed in like manner, anything in this present Warrant, or in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, relating to any such last-mentioned letter, notice, or other communication, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

5. If any question shall arise whether any such letter, notice, or other communication as is last hereinbefore mentioned, is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper, so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post under or by virtue of this present Warrant, or is chargeable as a letter, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

6. In all cases where any packet may be transmitted by the post under the authority of this present Warrant, and any such packet shall be so transmitted as not to be transmitted in conformity with, and under, and subject to the regulations, orders, directions, and conditions in this present Warrant, or in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857 mentioned and contained, or referred to, relating thereto, and shall, by reason thereof, have become liable under or by virtue of this present Warrant, or of the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, to be charged with the like rate or amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, or with any higher rate or amount of postage, the Postmaster-General shall, and he is hereby authorized and empowered at his discretion either to charge any such packet with the rate or amount of postage to which it shall have become liable under or by virtue of this present Warrant, or of the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, or to charge any such packet with any other rate or amount of postage which he shall think proper, not exceeding the rate or amount of postage to which such packet shall have become liable under or by virtue of this present Warrant, or of the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, as aforesaid, nor less than the rate of postage which such packet would have been chargeable with if transmitted in conformity with the regulations, orders, directions, and conditions herein or in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857 contained, anything in this or in the said recited Warrant contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

7. The terms "books, publications, or works of literature or art," in this present Warrant used, shall, for the purposes of this present Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as are comprised in the like terms used in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, save and except as in the fourth clause of this present Warrant is hereinbefore mentioned, and the several other terms and expressions in this present Warrant used shall be construed to have the like meaning and signification, in all respects, as the like terms and expressions used in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, except so far as the same are altered or affected by this present Warrant.

8. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, regulations, orders, directions, or conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

9. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of June 1860.
