

NOTICE to JOHN LOCHORE, Junior, furth of Scotland, Heir-at-Law of the Deceased JOHN LOCHORE, Builder at Hogganfield, near Glasgow.

THE said deceased John Lochore having on the 29th June 1836 executed in favor of William Hardie, Merchant in and then Provost of Paisley, also now deceased, a Bond and Disposition in Security for L.600 over certain Properties at Hogganfield, near Glasgow, therein particularly described,—it was thereby declared that when the said William Hardie, or those in his right, should demand repayment of the sums therein contained, Advertisement once in the Edinburgh Gazette to that effect, to the said John Lochore, or his heirs or successors, in the event of him or them being furth of Scotland at the time, should be sufficient Intimation, with a view to a Sale of said Properties at the expiry of three months thereafter, in the event of payment not being previously made.

Notice is therefore hereby given to John Lochore, Junior, presently furth of Scotland, Heir-at-Law of the said deceased John Lochore, by Andrew Nairn, sometime Foreman at Maxwellton, now Accountant in Paisley, the sole surviving Trustee under the Trust-Disposition and Settlement of the said deceased William Hardie, and in right (for the purposes therein mentioned) of the said Bond and Disposition in Security, and sums and subjects therein contained; and repayment is hereby demanded thereof within said period of three months; and Intimation is hereby given, in terms of said Bond and Disposition in Security, that in the event of payment not being so made to the said Andrew Nairn, as Trustee foresaid, within said period of three months, he will expose the said Subjects to Public Sale on the Advertisement, apply the price or prices, and do the other acts and deeds,—all as authorised and directed by said Bond and Disposition in Security.

A. NAIRN.
