SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

At Edinburgh, the Second Day of July Eighteen hundred and Sixty years.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled ' An Act to make Provision for the better ' Government and Discipline of the Universities of ' Scotland, and improving and regulating the ' Course of Study therein ; and for the Union of ' the two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered, inter alia, to make Rules as to the Amount and Exaction of Fees, and the granting of Degrees, whether in Arts, Divinity, Law, or Medicine, in the several Universities of Scotland, and to make such Provision by Ordinance, as they shall see fit, for the due Preservation, Administration, and Disposal of the whole Property, Funds, Rents, Revenues, and Endowments of the said Universities, and to make all such Rules and Ordinances as may be necessary for securing good Order and Government, and regulating the Course of Study in the University of Aberdeen ; the Commissioners statute and ordain, with reference to the University of Aberdeen, as follows :—

I. From and after the Date, at which the said Act shall come into Operation in the University of Aberdeen, and subject to any Alterations which may hereafter be made by the Commissioners, the Course of Study for the Degree of Master of Arts in the said University shall extend over four Winter Sessions, as herein provided ; and no Person, who shall commence his Course of Study after the said Date, shall be admitted to the Degree of Master of Arts, unless he shall have completed such Course of Study :—

During the First Session, the Attendance shall be on the Classes of Latin and Greek, each for Two Hours daily for Five Days a Week, and on the Class of English Language and Composition, under the Professor of Logic, for One Hour on each of Three Days a Week ;

During the Second Session, the Attendance shall be on the Class of Mathematics for Two Hours daily for Five Days a Week, and on the Classes of Latin, Greek, and Natural History, each for One Hour daily for Five days a Week ;

During the Third Session, the Attendance shall be on the Classes of Logic and Natural Philosophy, each for Two Hours on each of Three Days, and One Hour on each of Two Days a Week, and on the Class of Mathematics for One Hour daily for Five Days a Week ;

During the Fourth Session, the Attendance shall be on the Class of Moral Philosophy for Two Hours on each of Three Days, and One Hour on each of Two Days a Week, and on the Classes of Natural Philosophy and Chemistry, each for One Hour daily for Five Days a Week.

II. The Class Fees payable by Students in the Faculty of Arts shall be the following, viz.—

During the First Session, for each of the Classes of Latin and Greek a Fee of Three Guineas, and for the Class of English Language and Composition a Fee of One Guinea ;

During the Second Session, for each of the Classes of Mathematics and Natural History a Fee of Three Guineas, and for each of the Classes of Latin and Greek a Fee of One Guinea ;

During the Third Session, for the Class of Natural Philosophy a Fee of Three Guineas, for the Class of Logic a Fee of Two Guineas, and for the Class of Mathematics a Fee of One Guinea ;

During the Fourth Session, for each of the Classes of Moral Philosophy and Chemistry a Fee of Three Guineas, and for the Class of Natural Philosophy a Fee of One Guinea :

Provided always, that Students, who shall not have commenced their Studies in King's College or Marischal College before the Date aforesaid, and shall attend the Second Class of Latin, Greek, Mathematics, or Natural Philosophy, without having attended the First Class, or shall attend the Class of Logic without having attended the Class of English Language and Composition, shall pay in each Case a Fee of Three Guineas, in respect of such Attendance, instead of the lower Fee above mentioned.

III. In the Faculty of Divinity, the Fee payable by Students for each of the Classes of Systematic Theology, Oriental Languages, Church History, and Biblical Criticism, shall be One Guinea and a Half for each Session.

IV. In the Faculty of Law, the Professor of Law shall deliver Two Courses of Lectures, one on Scots Law, and the other on Conveyancing, and the Fee payable by Students for each of the said Courses shall be Two Guineas.

V. In the Faculty of Medicine, the Fees payable by Students shall be, for each of the Classes of Institutes of Medicine, Practice of Medicine, Chemistry, Practical Chemistry, Anatomy, Surgery, Materia Medica, Midwifery, Botany, and Medical Jurisprudence, a Fee of Three Guineas, and for Practical Anatomy and Demonstrations a Fee of Two Guineas : Provided always that the Title of the Professor of Medical Jurisprudence shall be ' the Professor of Medical Logic and Medical Jurisprudence,' in Terms of the Deed of Mortification made by Doctor Alexander Henderson, on the Twenty-sixth Day of August, Eighteen hundred and Fifty-seven, for the Establishment of a Professorship of Medical Logic and Medical Jurisprudence in Marischal College.

VI. Each Student shall pay a Matriculation Fee of One Pound Sterling at the Commencement of each Winter Session for the whole academical Year then next ensuing ; but any Student attending Classes during a Summer Session, without having attended the immediately preceding Winter Session, shall, in respect of such Summer Session, pay a Fee of Ten Shillings only ; and no other Fee shall be chargeable against any Student for such Year or Session, except the Professors' Class Fees.

VII. The Fees for Graduation shall be the following, viz.—

For the Degree of Master of Arts, Four Guineas ;

For the Degree of Bachelor of Medicine, Twenty Guineas ;

For the Degree of Doctor of Medicine, Five Guineas, in Addition to the Fee previously paid for the Degree of Bachelor of Medicine, but exclusive of any Stamp Duty, which may for the Time be exigible.

VIII. The Fees hereinbefore specified, whether Class, Matriculation, or Graduation Fees, shall be payable by all Students whether Bursars or not,
