WHITEHALL, September 29th, 1860.

THE Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., has received the following Dispatch from the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, dated Coburg, September 26th, 1860 :—

SIR, Coburg, September 26, 1860.

HER Majesty The Queen, The Prince Consort, and The Princess Alice, embarked at Gravesend, in the Royal Yacht Victoria and Albert, on Saturday the 22d instant, at half-past five P.M., and arrived here at five P.M. yesterday. His Majesty The King of the Belgians came on board the Royal Yacht at Antwerp at half-past seven A.M., on Monday the 24th, and accompanied The Queen as far as Verviers.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Prussia joined The Queen at Aix-la-Chapelle, and accompanied Her Majesty as far as Duren.

Her Majesty slept that night at Frankfort, and travelled on to Coburg yesterday. Her Majesty was received by the Duke and Duchess of Coburg and Gotha, and had the satisfaction of finding The Prince and Princess Frederick-William of Prussia waiting Her arrival.

Wherever the Train stopped immense crowds were assembled, who took every opportunity to demonstrate their sincere respect for The Queen.

Notwithstanding the length of the journey, Her Majesty remains in perfect health.

The festivities which had been prepared at Coburg, by order of the Duke of Coburg, have been countermanded, in consequence of the lamented decease of The late Duchess Dowager of Coburg.

Her Majesty intends to remain at Coburg for the present. I have, &c.,

J. RUSSELL.

The Right Hon. Sir G. C. Lewis,

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,

September 28, 1860.

Orders for the Court's going into Mourning on Sunday next, the 30th instant, for Her late Royal Highness The Duchess Dowager of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, Widow of His Royal Highness The late Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, Father of His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, and

Uncle and Father-in-Law of Her Majesty The Queen, viz. :—

The Ladies to wear black Silk, plain Muslin or long Lawn, Crape or Love Hoods, black Silk Shoes, black glazed Gloves, and black Paper Fans.

The Gentlemen to wear black Cloth without buttons on the sleeves or pockets, plain Muslin, or long Lawn Cravats and Weepers, black Swords and Buckles.

FOREIGN-OFFICE, September 28, 1860.

It is hereby notified that the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from His Excellency The Marquis d'Azeglio, the Sardinian Minister in London, the following communication :—

Le 20 Septembre, 1860,
23, Park Lane.

MY LORD,

L'ESCADRE de Sa Majesté s'étant portée devant la Place d'Ancone a mis la Ville et le Port en état de blocus effectif.

J'ai reçu l'ordre du Ministre de Affaires Etrangères de donner officiellement communication de ce fait à votre Excellence.

Le Comte de Cavour me charge en même temps d'informer votre Excellence, que l'on appliquera scrupuleusement, en cette circonstance, les principes de droit maritime établis par le Congrès de Paris.

Je vous prie, Mylord, d'agréer l'expression de ma plus haute considération.

(Signé) V. E. D'AZEGLIO.

The Lord John Russell,
&c., &c., &c.

Translation.

MY LORD,

His Majesty's Squadron having arrived before the Fortress of Ancona, has placed the Town and Port in a state of effective blockade.

I have received the order of the Minister for Foreign Affairs to communicate this fact officially to your Excellency.

Count Cavour desires me at the same time to inform your Excellency that the principles of Maritime Law, established by the Congress of Paris, will be scrupulously adhered to in this instance.
