WESTMINSTER—April 4.

THIS day the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that the Lords, authorised by virtue of his Majesty's commission for declaring his Royal assent to several acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of this Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal assent to the said acts, was read accordingly; and the Royal assent given to,

An act for extending from the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and one, the period of preference granted and continued by several acts to bodies corporate and persons for the redemption of land tax, and for enlarging several of the powers contained in the said acts.

An act for granting bounties on the importation of wheat, wheaten flour, and rice, until the 1st day of October one thousand eight hundred.

An act for the appointment and regulation of pilots for the conducting of ships and vessels into and out of the port of Kingston upon Hull, and for ascertaining the salvage for anchors, cables, and other ships materials found in the river Humber, and for the better ascertaining the tonnage of ballast lighters employed at the said port.

An act for opening and making two new streets in the city of Aberdeen.

An act for more effectually repairing the road from

[Price Sixpence.]

Summerrods Bar, near the town of Hexham, in the county of Northumberland, to the town of Alton, in the county of Cumberland.

An act for continuing for 21 years, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of Parliament, the term, and altering and enlarging the powers of two acts passed in the 33d year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the second, and in the 17th year of the reign of his present Majesty, for diverting, altering, widening, repairing, and amending the roads from the town of Halifax, and from Sowerby-bridge, in the county of York, by Todmorden, to Burnley and Littleborough, in the county of Lancaster.

An act for more effectually repairing the road from Glemohelt, through Haltwhistle, Hexham, and Corbridge, to the military road near Shildon-bar, and for making and repairing a branch road from Corbridge aforesaid, to Heddon-on-the-Wall, all in the county of Northumberland.

An act for more effectually repairing, widening, and improving the road from the village of Magor, to the Bridge-Foot in the town of Chepstow, in the county of Monmouth, and several other roads in the counties of Monmouth, Gloucester, Hereford, and Brecon, to continue in force for 21 years, and from thence to the then next Session of Parliament.

An act for amending, altering, and keeping in repair the road leading from the turnpike-road in Witney, to the turnpike-road on Swerford Heath, and also the road leading from the turnpike-road from Woodstock to Birmingham, through Charlbury, to the turnpike-road from Chipping Norton to Burford, all in the county of Oxford.

And six private acts.
