Published by Authority.

FROM TUESDAY, APRIL 29. TO FRIDAY, MAY 2. 1800.

LONDON GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY,

DOWNING-STREET, APRIL 28. 1800.

A dispatch, of which the following is an extract, has been received from the Right Hon. Lord Minto, his Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Vienna, by the Right Hon. Lord Grenville, his Majesty's Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

My LORD, Vienna, April 17. 1800.

I have the satisfaction to acquaint your Lordship, that the campaign has opened in Italy by an important success on the side of the Austrians. On the 6th inst. General Melas attacked the several posts occupied by the French to the northward and westward of Savona and Vado, and drove them from the positions of Torre la de Buonã, Monte Notte, and several others. Some of these posts were strongly entrenched, and one of them defended by 3000 men; but they were carried by the courage and conduct of the Austrian troops, who appear to have acquired much honour on this day.

The enemy retired with precipitation on Vado and Savona, leaving their cannon and about three hundred prisoners; among whom is a Chef de Brigade and several officers of distinction. In the night between the 6th and 7th the troops evacuated Vado, having destroyed the stores and spiked the cannon, and retired, by sea, towards Nice. Their number is supposed to have been between seven and eight hundred.

The Austrians took possession of the fort of Vado in the morning, and found seventeen pieces of heavy artillery. General Melas immediately invested Savona.

Price Sixpence.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, APRIL 29.

Copy of a letter from Vice-Admiral Dickson, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels in Yarmouth Roads, to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated the 27th April 1800.

SIR,

Be pleased to acquaint my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that his Majesty's hired armed lugger Lark, commanded by Lieutenant Wilson, arrived yesterday in these roads, and brought with him the Impregnable French cutter privateer of 14 guns, which he boarded and took after an hour's action: while the cutter was on shore she was supported by the fire of 100 of the enemy's troops from behind sand banks.

I inclose, for their Lordship's information, Lieutenant Wilson's letter to me on the subject. The activity and zeal of this officer has destroyed one of the greatest pests that infested this coast; the Impregnable had been particularly successful during her former cruises.

ARCHIBALD DICKSON.

SIR,

His Majesty's armed lugger Lark, Yarmouth Roads, April 26.

I have the honour to acquaint you, that I anchored in these Roads this day, with his Majesty's armed lugger Lark under my command, with a French cutter privateer her prize.

In pursuance of your order, I sailed on the 19th inst. and took my station off the Vlie Passage on the 21st at half past six A.M. At the entrance of that passage I discovered a French cutter privateer in shore of me, which I chased and came up with, and who, after exchanging a few shot, ran on shore. I am sorry to add I was not able to get men enough to him, as totally to destroy him: a neutral vessel that came out of the Vlie Passage the 23d inst. informed me she mounted 10 guns, and had 36 men on board; and that he had, after getting off, proceeded to the Texel Road by the inner navigation.

On the 25th at two P.M. I chased and came up with French cutter privateer, who, after engaging me a little while, ran on shore on the Vlie Island, where he defended himself pretty well for an hour, when I perceived his men were escaping to the shore under the cover and protection of troops to the amount of about an hundred. I immediately hoisted out my small boat, and directed my larger one to follow, and, under the fire of the musketry from the troops on shore, boarded her, but not until the crew had escaped: in our endeavours to get the cutter off we were considerably annoyed by the fire from the troops; but having detached the large boat further in shore, I succeeded in dislodging them from the sand bank, behind which they had taken shelter, and I was fortunate enough to get the privateer off. She is called the Impregnable, mounts 14 guns, twelve of which are three-pounders, and two are nine pounders. She had on board during the engagement about sixty men, as appears by her log; and it also appears she had been particularly successful during her former cruises. The Lark has suffered in her hull and rigging, but fortunately had no man killed or wounded:—the enemy, we have reason to suppose, from the state of the vessel, suffered considerably; and several men were killed on the beach. I cannot speak too highly of Mr Thomas Gettins the master, as also the good conduct and bravery of the crew of the Lark.

I have the honour to be, &c.

J. H. WILSON.

ADJOURNED SALE.

Upset Price reduced from 5000*l.* to 4400*l.*

GROUND RENTS & BUILDING GROUND FOR SALE.

To be SOLD by Public Roup, on Monday the 5th May 1800, within the Tontine Tavern, Glasgow, at one o'clock, mid-day.

THE GROUND RENTS and VACANT STEADINGS of the Property called BROWNFIELD, with the Water-side between the park and the river Clyde, situated about half a mile from the Cross of Glasgow, on the south side of the road leading to Anderston, immediately to the west of the Delfield, and bounded by the river Clyde on the south.

The Park, exclusive of the Water-side, extends to nine acres, one rood, and ten falls, and the Water-side extends to three roods and 22 falls. Those parts of the park which were sold for ground rents, and which are occupied by the purchasers, yield, after deducting a ground rent to the College of Glasgow, a neat rent of 220*l.* 9*s.* 10*d.* Certain parts of the park which were sold for ground rents, and afterwards deserted by the purchasers, extend to 7159 square yards, and will, when again disposed of, make a considerable addition to the rental or value.

A number of valuable buildings have been already erected on the ground, and most of the holders of steadings that are not built upon might be immediately compelled to build, for securing the ground rents.

A double ground rent is exigible every nineteenth year after the year 1791.

Mr Peter Ellis, at Brownfield, will shew the ground, and a plan of the premises; and for further particulars application may be made to Nicol Brown, at Brown, Carrick, and Co.'s warehouse; or to Robert Graham, writer, Argyle-street, Glasgow, in whose hands are to be seen the title-deeds and conditions of sale.
