At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of June 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the present year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to enable Her Majesty to issue Commissions to the Officers of Her Majesty's Land Forces and Royal Marines, and to Adjutants and Quartermasters of the Militia and Volunteer Forces, without affixing Her Royal Sign Manual thereto," after setting forth therein that every Officer appointed or promoted by Her Majesty in Her Land Forces or Marines, and every Adjutant or Quartermaster in Her Militia or Volunteer Forces, receives a Commission from Her Majesty with Her Royal Sign Manual thereon, and that it was expedient to regulate from time to time the mode of authenticating the said Commissions granted by Her Majesty, it was enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, as occasion might require, to direct that all or any Commissions for Officers prepared or to be prepared under the authority of Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual might be afterwards issued without Her Royal Sign Manual, but having thereon, in the case of Her Majesty's Land Forces, except as thereafter mentioned, the signatures of the Commander-in-Chief or the General Commanding-in-Chief, and of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in the case of the Royal Marines of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and in the case of Military Chaplains, Commissariat and Store Officers, and of Adjutants and Quartermasters in the Militia and Volunteer Forces, of one of Her Majesty's said Principal Secretaries; and that every such Commission issued and signed in pursuance of such Order in Council should be conclusive evidence that the Officer named in any such Commission had been appointed or promoted by Her Majesty to the rank or office named therein.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above recited Act, and in execution of the power thereby in Her Majesty in Council vested, Her Majesty is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and doth hereby order:—

1. That each Commission to be hereafter issued to any Officer entering Her Majesty's Army, from Her Majesty's Indian Forces, under the regulations heretofore sanctioned by Her Majesty, shall be signed by Her Majesty's General Commanding-in-Chief, and one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and such Commission shall give rank in Her Majesty's Army from the date on which the Officer held similar rank in the Indian Forces.

2. Her Majesty having been pleased to declare that the Commission given to every one upon first appointment to Her Majesty's Land Forces or Marines will be signed by Her Majesty, it is further ordered:—

That all other Commissions required for Officers in Her Majesty's Service, on promotion or exchange, whether such promotion or exchange has been made or sanctioned by Her Majesty under Royal Sign Manual, before or after the passing of this Act, and all Commissions given for Adjutants and Quartermasters in the Militia and Volunteer Forces, shall be signed, in the case of Her Majesty's Land Forces (except as in this Clause after-mentioned,) by the Commander-in-Chief or the General Commanding-in-Chief, and by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and in the case of the Royal Marines by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Admiralty; and in the case of Military Chaplains, Commissariat and Store Officers, and of Adjutants and Quartermasters in the Militia and Volunteer Forces, by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

3. That every Commission signed in pursuance of this Order (except the Commissions referred to in Clause 1, and except all Commissions which shall have been actually prepared under Sign Manual direction, bearing prior date to the making of this Order,) shall refer to this Order, and bear even date with the direction under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, appointing or promoting such Officer.

4. That neither this Order, nor anything contained therein, shall be construed to prevent Her Majesty from signing any Commission, or to prevent any Commission so signed from having the same validity and effect as if this Order had not been made.

And the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

I. There shall hereafter be Four Bursaries in all, and no more, on the said Foundation; and the Holder of each of such Four Bursaries shall annually, during his Tenure thereof, receive Twenty Pounds from the Income of the Foundation: Provided always, that, in the Event of the Income being insufficient in any Year to afford the Payment of Twenty Pounds to each Bursar, the Stipends of the Bursars shall suffer such equal Abatement, as the Senatus Academicus shall deem necessary.

II. Each of the said Four Bursaries shall be open for Competition to all Students entering on their First or Second Session of Attendance in the Faculty of Arts in the said University, without Restriction as to Place of Birth or Education: Provided always, that no Student shall be admissible to the Competition for any Bursary, who has, for more than One Session, been a Student in the Faculty of Arts in any One or more of the Scottish Universities: Provided also, that, between Candidates whose Qualifications in other Respects shall appear to the Senatus to be equal, a Preference shall be given to a Candidate qualified by Birth and Education, as provided by the said Deeds.

III. IV. In the Event of a Vacancy occurring in any Bursary on the said Foundation during the Currency of the Period of Four Years, for which the same is tenable as aforesaid, the Senatus Academicus may appoint a Bursar for the Remainder of the said Period then unexpired, from among the Students of the same Standing in the Curriculum in Arts as the Bursar was, in whose Room the Appointment is made, and that either after Competition or otherwise, as they may think most expedient; and the Bursar then appointed shall, subject to the same Conditions as aforesaid, be entitled to hold the said Bursary for the Remainder of the said Period of Four Years then unexpired, and no longer: Provided always, that, in the Event of the Senatus Academicus not appointing a Bursar as aforesaid, the Bursary shall continue vacant for the Remainder of the said Period then unexpired.

V. The Senatus Academicus shall, in their Discretion, determine in what Year an Appointment shall be made for the First Time to each of the said Four Bursaries, and shall, in the Exercise of this Discretion, have special Regard to the Expediency of distributing as far as possible among Students of different Years the Benefits of Competition Bursaries.

XI. The Use of the Library by Matriculated Students of the University shall be regulated as follows:—

1. Every Matriculated Student shall be entitled to have in his Possession Two Volumes at One Time; and shall be entitled to retain any Book for Two Weeks from the Date of borrowing; and further, to re-borrow any Book for successive Periods of Two Weeks, unless an Application for the same shall in the Meantime have been made by another Person entitled to the Use of the Library: Provided always, that it shall be in the Power of the Senatus Academicus, if they shall think it expedient, to allow Students either generally, or during any particular Period of the Year, to be in Possession of more than Two Volumes at a Time.
2. It shall be in the Power of the Senatus Academicus, from Time to Time, to make such Regulations as to a Deposit of Money by Students borrowing Books from the Library, as they shall think expedient; and also to regulate the Use of the Library by Students in consulting Books in the Library itself.
3. No Certificate of Attendance upon a Class shall be granted by a Professor to any Student without the Production of Evidence to the Professor, that the Student has duly returned all Books which he may have borrowed from the Library.

XII. Students enrolled by the University of Edinburgh as attending the Lectures of Extra-Academical Teachers in Edinburgh, under the Sixth Sub-Section of the Sixth Section of Ordinance, No. 8, Edinburgh, No. 3, shall be entitled to the like Privileges in Connection with the Library of that University, and be subject in the same Manner to any Regulations to be made by the Senatus, as Matriculated Students of the University ; and no Certificate of Attendance on the Lectures of any such Teacher shall be given to any Student so enrolled, without the Production of Evidence to the Teacher that the Student has duly returned all Books which he may have borrowed from the Library.

XIII. It shall be in the power of the Senatus Academicus, from Time to Time, to grant the Use of the Library to such Extent, and on such Conditions, as they shall think expedient, to Persons for Purposes of literary Research, and that, whether such Persons shall be Members of the University or not : Provided always, that no such Privilege shall in any Case be granted, except by Minute of the Senatus specifying the Grounds on which the Grant is made, and the Conditions which have been attached thereto, an Extract of which Minute shall be forthwith transmitted to the University Court.

XIV. All Grants of the Use of the Library made by the Senatus Academicus, in pursuance of the preceding Section, shall terminate at the annual Period of Inspection of the Library, but shall be renewable under like Conditions, if again applied for on the Expiration of that Period : Provided always, that the Library Committee may be empowered by the Senatus, to renew any such Grant until the First Meeting of Senatus after the Expiration of the annual Period of Inspection, but no longer.

XV. In the Event of any Book being lost or injured, while in the Possession of a Person entitled to the Use of the Library, he shall be liable either to replace the same, or to pay such Fine, either as representing the Value of the Book, or otherwise, as may be fixed by the Senatus Academicus, or by the Library Committee, in the Event of their having been empowered by the Senatus to fix the Amount of such Fines.

XVI. So long as any Person shall remain in Possession of a Book which he is not entitled to retain, or shall allow any Fine incurred by him to remain unpaid, the Right of such Person to borrow or retain any Books whatever, or to exercise any of the Privileges of the Library, shall be suspended, and remain in Abeyance.

XVII. No Book shall in any Case be given out of the Library except to the Borrower in Person, or to some one having written Authority from him.

XVIII. On the Expiration of the annual Period of Inspection, the Librarian shall report to the Senatus Academicus, in reference to the Year then ended :—

1. The Particulars of every Case of Admission to special Privileges in the Use of the Library :
2. The Particulars of every Case in which a Person's Right to the Use of the Library has been suspended, or is in Abeyance :
3. Every Case of a Book belonging to the Library having been replaced at the Expense of a Person entitled to the Use of the Library :
4. A List of all Books belonging to the Library known or found at the Time of the Inspection to be amissing, or seriously injured :
5. Any other Matter which the Librarian may think it of Importance to bring under the Notice of the Senatus, or regarding which the Senatus may have directed him to report :

and the Senatus shall forward a Copy of such Report to the University Court with their Remarks.

XIX. At the Conclusion of the annual Period of Inspection, a List shall be made of all Persons who may have failed to return by that Time any Books borrowed by them, or to pay any Fines incurred, along with the Names of the Books so unreturned, and the Amounts of the Fines then due ; and such List shall be exhibited in some conspicuous Place in the Library ; and no Name shall be removed therefrom, until in each Case the Book or Books be returned or replaced, or the Fine or Fines, which may have become due, be paid.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled, 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein ; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered, inter alia, subject to the Provisions thereof, to regulate by Ordinance the Powers, Jurisdictions, and Privileges of Chancellors, Rectors, Assessors, Professors, and all other Members or Office-Bearers in the said Universities, as also of the Senatus Academicus and the University Court ; and to make Rules for the Management and Ordering of the Universities, and for the granting of Degrees, whether in Arts, Divinity, Law, or Medicine : The Commissioners declare and ordain, as follows :—

No. 69.

General,
No. 7.

I. Nothing contained in Ordinance, No. 14, General, No. 3, of the Twenty-sixth Day of January Eighteen hundred and Sixty-one, shall be construed to interfere with the Power of the Senatus Academicus of each University to regulate, as they may think expedient, the Order of Attendance on the several Classes in the Course of Study in the Faculty of Arts : Provided always, that no Regulations to be made by the Senatus of any University shall be inconsistent with the Provisions of the said Ordinance.

II. It shall be in the Power of the Examiners at any of the Examinations of Students proceeding to the Degree of Master of Arts, instead of rejecting a Candidate as having failed to pass such Examination, to adjourn his Examination on the Subject or Subjects, on which he is then being examined, to a future Occasion ; and the Candidate shall not be held, by Reason of such Adjournment, to have failed to pass the Examination within the Meaning of any Ordinance of the Commissioners relating to Bursaries.

III. In every Case in which, by any Ordinance of the Commissioners issued prior to the Date of this Ordinance, a Power given to the Senatus Academicus of any University, to suspend a Student from, or to deprive him of, a Bursary or Scholarship on the Ground of Misconduct, has been made subject to the Approval of the University Court, the Power of Suspension or Deprivation shall be vested in, and belong to, the Senatus Academicus, and be exercised by that Body alone; but shall be subject to an Appeal to the University Court, if taken within Eight Days, which Appeal shall be heard and disposed of by the University Court with all possible Despatch: Provided always, that, in the Meantime, the Decision of the Senatus Academicus shall receive Effect from its Date.

IV. In the Event at any Time of both the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor being absent from any University Meeting for conferring Degrees, it shall be lawful for the Principal, or, in his Absence, for the Senior Professor present, to confer Degrees in the same Manner, and to the same Effect, as the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor, if present, might have done: Provided always, that, in the University of St Andrew's, Degrees shall, in the Absence of the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor, be conferred by the Senior Principal present, and, in the Absence of both Principals, by the Senior Professor present.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.
