

which should be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it should belong.

And whereas since the making of the said Warrants respectively, a practice has obtained of putting printed matter upon leather and other substances and things not being paper, parchment or vellum, and transmitting the same by the post under the privilege so given in and by the said several last hereinbefore recited Warrants, and it is expedient to make other regulations for preventing such abuses of the said privilege in manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us as aforesaid, do hereby further order, direct, and declare, as follows:—

2. In all cases where packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, may be transmitted by the post under the authority of any of such last-mentioned Warrants, whether the same be transmitted between the United Kingdom and any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or between any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or between any places within the United Kingdom, comprising prints or printed matter, such prints or printed matter shall consist only of prints or printed matter on paper, parchment, or vellum, and shall not comprise or include any printed matter on leather, cloth, canvas, or linen, or any other substance or thing whatsoever, except paper, parchment, or vellum, anything in the said last-mentioned Warrants respectively relating to any such packets, or any or either of them, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

3. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise, whether any article, matter, or thing transmitted by the post under or by virtue of the said several Warrants hereinbefore last-mentioned, or under or by virtue of this present Warrant, is entitled to the book-post privilege, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning of the said several last-mentioned Warrants, or of this present Warrant, or any or either of them, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive upon all parties.

4. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke the orders, regulations, and directions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, regulations, orders, directions, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

This Warrant shall come into operation on the second day of February next.
