ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—June 28.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Keith, K. B. Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels in the Mediterranean, to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated on board the Minotaur, off Genoa, May 21.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour of reporting to you, for the information of their Lordships, that, by private intelligence from Genoa, I understood the French had resolved on boarding our flotilla in any future attempt to bombard the town, and yesterday, about twelve o'clock, a very large galley, a cutter, three armed settees, and several gun-boats appeared in array off the Molehead, and in the course of the afternoon exchanged distant shot with some of the ships as they passed them. At sunset they took a position under the guns of the moles and the city bastions, which were covered with men, manifesting a determined resistance; I nevertheless arranged every thing for a fourth bombardment, as formerly, under the direction of Captain Philip Beaver, of the Aurora, who left the Minotaur at nine P. M. attended by the gun and mortar vessels and the armed boats of the ships. About one o'clock, being arrived at a proper distance for commencing his fire, a brisk cannonade was opened upon the town, which was returned from various points; and Captain Beaver having discovered from the flashes of some guns that they were directed from something nearly level with the water, judiciously concluded that they proceeded from some of the enemy's armed vessels; calling a detachment of the ship's boats to his assistance, he made directly to the spot, and in a most gallant and spirited manner, under a smart fire of cannon and musketry from the moles and enemy's armed vessels, attacked, boarded, carried, and brought off their largest galley La Prima of 50 oars and 257 men, armed, besides muskets, pistols, cutlasses, &c. with two brass guns of thirty-six pounds, having about thirty brass swivels in her hold, and commanded by Captain Parizio Galleano. The bombardment suffered no material interruption, but was continued till day-light this morning, when the Prima was safely brought off; her extreme length is 159 feet, and her breadth 23 feet 6 inches.

On our part four seamen only have been wounded; one belonging to this ship, in the boat with Captain Beaver; one belonging to the Pallas; and the other two to the Haerlam.—The enemy's loss is not exactly known, but one man was found dead on board, and fifteen wounded.

The satisfaction which I derive from considering the zeal activity, and gallantry with which this service has been performed, is greatly augmented by the flattering testimony borne by Captain Beaver to the good conduct of the officers and seamen who acted with him on this occasion.

I have the honour to be, &c.

KEITH.

Copy of another Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Keith, K. B. Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels in the Mediterranean, to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated off Genoa, April 22.

SIR,

A LETTER, of which the inclosed is a copy, received by me from Captain Oliver, of his Majesty's ship the Mermaid, will inform their Lordships how actively that officer has been employed in the important service of cutting off the supplies destined for the enemy's troops in the city of Genoa.

I have the honour to be, &c.

KEITH.

Mr Lord, Mermaid,Mahon, April 10, 1800.

I HAVE the honour to acquaint your Lordship, that his Majesty's ship under my command has taken and destroyed nine vessels laden, mostly for Genoa, with wine and corn, between the 2d and 6th inst. Six of them were cut out by two of our boats under the direction of Lieutenant Corbett; they were moored to a fort within the small Islands near Cape Croisiers. I had seen them collecting all day; and soon after sunset I went in with the ship, under the battery, within the range of grape shot, and anchored with a spring on the cable; and after cannonading the fort more than an hour, I saw the six vessels, which Mr Corbett had most ably got under weigh, coming out, when I followed them with the ship: I am happy to say that we have had no person hurt on this service; and a shot through our cut-water, which is of little consequence, is the only damage we have received.

I have the honour to be, &c.

R. D. OLIVER.

Right Honourable Lord Keith, K. B. &c. &c.

(A.)

TO THE CREDITORS OF

WALTER M'FARLANE & CO. late Spirit-Dealers and Grocers, Netherbow, Edinburgh.

GEORGE DUNLOP, Merchant in Edinburgh, Trustee on their sequestrated estate, hereby intimates, that, in terms of the bankrupt act, he has made up a state of their affairs, and a scheme of dividing the funds among the creditors who have proved and lodged their claims in terms of the statute; which state and scheme will lie for their inspection, at the counting-room of George Dunlop & Co. merchants in Edinburgh, till Friday the 8th of August next, being one year after the date of the sequestration; upon which day the creditors will call to receive their dividends.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN MACLEAN, late Merchant in Leith.

THE Sheriff Depute of the Shire of Edinburgh, having, upon the application of the trustee on Mr Macleans sequestrated estate, appointed the further examination of the bankrupt and others acquainted with his business, to take place at one o'clock, on Tuesday the eighth of July curt. within the Sheriff Clerks office. Intimation thereof is hereby made.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ALEXANDER ANDERSON, Merchant and Coal-master in Kilmarnock.

AT a Meeting of the Creditors of the said Alexander Anderson, held at Kilmarnock upon the 19th ult. the bankrupt made offer of a composition of 7s. 6d. Sterling per pound, of the whole debts due by him at the date of the sequestration, payable in 8, 12, and 16 months from the date of the offer, to find caution for 5s. in the pound, being the two first moieties thereof, and to grant his own acceptance for the third moiety.

The creditors present, without deciding upon the above offer, directed the trustee to call another meeting, that they may consider thereof. He therefore requests the whole creditors of the bankrupt to meet within the house of John Bryan, vintner in Kilmarnock, on Thursday the 17th day of July curt. at one o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of taking the foresaid offer of composition into consideration and deciding thereon.

NOTICE.

THAT the Partnership betwixt THOMAS STEWART, Merchant in Leith, and WILLIAM CORNISH, residing on Leith Walk, carried on under the firm of THOMAS STEWART & CO. VINEGAR MANUFACTURERS, expired on the 12th June last, and the Books of the Company are in the Counting-house of said Thomas Stewart at Leith.
Leith Walk, July 1, 1800.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

DAVID MAITLAND, Spirit-dealer in Glasgow.

THAT at a meeting of the Creditors of the said David Maitland, held upon the 15th March last, being the next lawful day after his last examination, he made an offer of a composition of Six Shillings in the pound, payable in four and six months, which was unanimously accepted of by the whole creditors present, who appointed another meeting to be held upon the 5th April last, to decide on said offer. That by mistake this meeting was advertised only once instead of twice, an oversight which was not discovered till the composition came to be approved of by the Court; when it appearing that the offer had been accepted of by the whole creditors who had lodged grounds of debt and oaths of verity with the trustee, the Court, in order to remedy the omission, appointed another advertisement to be inserted in the Gazette, stating the steps that had been taken towards carrying the offer into effect, and again calling upon those creditors (if any) who may not have claimed under the sequestration, to appear, and object, if they are so advised; and that when such advertisement was made, the Court would resume consideration of the petition.—Of all which intimation is hereby given.

INTIMATION.

THAT his Grace JOHN DUKE of ARGYLL has given in an application to the Court of Session, for authority to sell the Farm of Kenuachtrach in Jura, part of the entailed Estate of Argyll, in addition to those parts already sold, for the purpose of completing the purchase of the land tax of the whole Lands and Estate of Argyll, the lands already sold being insufficient for that purpose, all in terms of the statute, 38th George III. and supplementary act of 39th George III. cap. 40. of which intimation is hereby made to all concerned.
