WHITEHALL, March 16, 1863.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :—

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Chancellor, Doctors, and Masters of the University of Dublin, beg to approach your Majesty with sentiments of profound attachment to your Throne and person, and to offer our respectful congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

We trust that in the happiness which a union in every way so worthy of him is likely to produce, your maternal heart will find some degree of consolation for the great and bitter bereavement with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit your Majesty.

This Nation can never forget what an admirable example of every domestic virtue was exhibited to the world in the persons of your Majesty and your late illustrious Consort. It is our earnest hope and prayer that an equal blessing may rest on the union of His Royal Highness and the partner of his choice; and that, while they enjoy all the happiness that mutual affection can bestow, their pure and well-spent lives may win for them no less a measure of gratitude and esteem from British hearts than will for ever be attached to the united names of Victoria and Albert.

TO THE CREDITORS ON

The Sequestrated Estate of JOHN MATHER, Cattle-dealer and Grazier, residing in Dollar, now deceased.

DAVID ANDERSON, Farmer, Lyne, Peeblesshire, Trustee on the said sequestrated estate, found it necessary, in order to save expence to the estate, to apply to the Sheriff of Clackmannanshire, on 23d July 1862, for an extension of the statutory periods for making up his accounts and declaring a dividend. His Lordship, by Deliverance of that date, extended the period for making up his accounts and the declaration of a dividend for twelve months, and granted authority for dispensing with insertion in the Gazette of the usual Notices, and of sending circulars to the Creditors for said period. His Lordship also appointed Intimation to be made in the Gazette of his Deliverance, which was done accordingly on 28th July last.

Since then the obstacle to the making up of the accounts and declaring a dividend had been removed. In consequence, the Trustee had again applied to his Lordship for authority to proceed to make up states of his accounts and to perform the whole other duties incumbent upon him under the Statute, as if the extension had not been granted. His Lordship, on the 18th March current, pronounced a Deliverance authorising the Trustee to proceed accordingly, 'as if the said period of extension had been ten months in place of twelve months from the date of the aforesaid Deliverance granting said extension; and appoints Intimation that said extension of time has been thus restricted to be made forth with in the Gazette.'

(Signed) 'W. BENNET CLARK.'

—Of which Deliverance, and the Trustee's intention of immediately proceeding to make up a state of his accounts, and to declare a dividend to be payable on the 19th day of May next, Notice is hereby given.

Kirkcaldy, March 23, 1863. DAVID ANDERSON, Trustee.
