Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1863.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of March 1863,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial-grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, upon a Representation of one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County in Scotland, under certain provisions of the said Act, has been received by him, in pursuance thereof to order that no new Burial-ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State; or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in such Order, burials within certain limits, or in certain Burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any qualifications or exceptions mentioned in such Order; and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act; provided always, that notice of such Representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown-Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-clerk of the County in which such Burial-ground is situate, and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of, or on some conspicuous places within the Parishes affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered.

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the said Act, made a Representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor pronounced by the Sheriff-Substitute of Fifeshire, finding and declaring that the allegations contained in a Petition of Francis Howden, James Thomas, and Charles Gulland, Heritors of the Parish of Falkland, and Members of the Parochial Board of the Parish of Falkland, in the County of Fife, and Robert Rodger, Inspector of Poor of the said Parish, for and on behalf of the said Parochial Board, are true; that the Old Burial-ground of the Parish of Falkland is in an overcrowded state, that it is offensive, and that unless used in a limited way, namely, only by parties who have already acquired a patrimonial or other permanent and continued interest therein, as suggested in the Petition, it would become dangerous to health; and whereas, in the said Representation it is recommended that Burials be limited in the said Burial-ground in the manner referred to in the Interlocutor:

And whereas Notice of the said Representation, and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of the Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed as required by the said Act:

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that from and after the 1st day of April 1863, Burials be discontinued in the Burial-ground of the Parish of Falkland, except in the case only of parties who have already acquired a patrimonial or other permanent and continued interest in the said Burial-ground.
