

WHITEHALL, April 27, 1863.

The following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :—

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lieutenant - Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of the Isle of Man, in Tynwald assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most profound sentiments of duty and respect, to present our heartfelt congratulations on the auspicious occasion of the marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, an event which, in this island, as elsewhere throughout the Empire, has excited the loyalty and sincere affection of your Majesty's subjects.

Whilst the cherished memory of that great and virtuous Prince, your Majesty's Royal Consort, whom it has pleased Almighty God to take unto Himself, will ever be revered, we feel also assured that the influence upon his descendants of his great example, and of his wise counsels, will be shown for generations to come, in the continued increasing prosperity and good government of this great and favoured Nation.

It is therefore with the deepest interest that we participate with your Majesty's subjects at large in the gratification felt in an event which must so largely add to your domestic comfort, and holds forth so bright a promise for the future welfare of your people.

We express a hope that your Majesty will receive favourably the assurance that the ancient and dutiful people, of whom we are the Legislative Representatives, do not yield to any of your subjects in attachment to your person and devotion to your service; and we fervently pray that the Almighty Disposer of events may continue graciously to protect your Majesty, and to grant that you may long reign over a happy and prosperous people.
