FOREIGN OFFICE, September 8, 1863.

THE following Despatch has been received from Her Majesty's Minister at Lisbon, dated the 18th of August 1863 :—

MY LORD, August 18, 1863.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt, by private ship, on the 7th instant, of your Lordship's despatch of the 29th ultimo, enclosing an extract from the City article of the "Times" regarding Mr Lindsay's claims against the Portuguese Government; and, in obedience to your instructions, I proceed to report on the several statements contained in this letter.

It is correct, as stated in the letter signed "A Portuguese," that the Government of this country did not invite English capitalists to take part in the projected "União Mercantil," by the guarantee of 7 per cent. interest; the Company was formed without any guarantee, though the Government, at a subsequent period, as stated, guaranteed 6, and afterwards 7 per cent. on the whole capital. The Government did however invite, and in a very pressing manner, Mr Lindsay to take part in the enterprise, as can be clearly established by letters which I have seen addressed to him by Mr Carlos Bento, then Minister of Public Works. In fact, without Mr Lindsay's participation as an owner of steam ships, it is doubtful, and I believe the Ministers said so in his letters, whether the Company could have been formed when it was.

That gentleman sold to the company three steamers, namely, first the "Lindsay," now "D. Estephania," and subsequently, the "Clarendon," now "Africa," and the "Ireland," now "D. Pedro,"

the price of the former was	L.19,000 and for the two others respectively	L.25,000
and	L.30,000

and he was paid for the "Lindsay" in cash	L.9,500
and for the two others	L.11,400

together	L.20,900
and took shares for the first to the amount of	L.9,500
and for the two last	L.27,500

	L.37,000
--	----------

with debentures for the latter to the amount of L.16,100, making the total of L.74,000. This varies from the statement in the letter that the "total consideration amounted to L.77,691 9s. 2d.;" and I have been informed by one of the Directors that the Company "knew nothing of this sum, or to what it refers."

With regard to the statement that "his vessels proved to be entirely unfit for the service, and far below the standard agreed upon in the purchase," I must observe that the Company, before purchasing, had them examined in England by competent Surveyors of their own selection, who declared they fulfilled the stipulated conditions; and I have seen a regular receipt respecting the two latter steamers which he had sold; about the first there is no dispute, signed by all the Directors to that effect, which Mr Lindsay produced in my presence to Mr Medicott (one of that body,) who did not and could not deny his own signature.

I must further observe that these three vessels had, as I am informed by a Director of the Company, performed six voyages each to Loanda, before Mr Lindsay brought his action against the Company, against which the latter made a claim of 28,442,572 reis, about L.6,300, for repairs.

It is of course impossible for me to say whether the steamers in question were or were not in an effective and serviceable state; both parties in the suit maintain their own opinion, but there is the patent fact that the Company, after due examination of the vessels in question before purchase, declared the contrary of what they now maintain. Mr Lindsay has moreover frequently declared to the Company, and also to the Duke de Loulé, the Minister of Public Works, in my presence, that notwithstanding the discharge in full which he had, if it could be shewn that there were repairs which he was bound in equity, though not legally, to make, that, as a man of honour and as a British merchant, he was willing to make them. In short, as far as I am aware, nothing could be fairer or more straightforward than that gentleman's conduct; and far from wishing to break up the Company, he has always declared his willingness to leave his money in it if reformed and carried on on sound commercial principles, believing that, if that were effected, the enterprize would prove remunerative.

It is not for me to enter into the merits of the decisions of the Portuguese Courts of Law in this case, widely as they differ from the ordinarily received ideas of justice in our own country.

It is perfectly true, as the letter states, that the Government has never repudiated the guaranteed interest, though I believe the payment of it is in arrears. Before Mr Lindsay's departure from Lisbon in January last, the Government paid an instalment of interest; but as that gentleman, by the advice of his legal adviser here, maintained that the Government was responsible to the English shareholders for the repayment of the whole of their capital and interest, he refused to accept from the Company this proposed interest, though he was willing to accept it from the Government on account, which, of course, the latter declined.

The subsidy hitherto granted to the Company was 79,000,000 reis, or upwards of L.16,000 per annum, thus divided:—

	Rs.
African Fine	58,000,000
Azores do.	11,400,000
Algarve do.	9,600,000

But in the last Session the Government was authorised to grant an annual subsidy of 160 contos, or upwards of L.35,000 to any company capable of undertaking the lines in question; and though the Mercantile Union Company was not mentioned specifically, yet there is no doubt that company regards the Act in question as increasing their former subsidy to the highest amount.

In conclusion I may observe that I cannot and do not suppose that the Portuguese Government ever contemplated inflicting any injury on the shareholders, all their interests lay in the prosperity and maintenance of the Company; but, by their very negligent supervision, they allowed the Directors to proceed in a manner which Mr Lindsay declares has seriously injured the British shareholders, while the Company is indebted to the Government in considerably more than L.100,000. I have, &c.,

ARTHUR MAGENIS.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, September 7, 1863.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Venice, enclosing the subjoined Notice to Mariners, respecting the regulations to be observed by Merchant Vessels on passing within a certain distance of the coast fortifications on Austrian Territory:—

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(Translation).

It having frequently occurred that Merchant Vessels, both National and Foreign, passing within the Austrian seas before an Imperial Royal Fortress have omitted to hoist their colours, even after having been summoned to do so by the firing of a blank shot, the Imperial Royal Ministry of Marine, with the concurrence of the Imperial Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs and of War, has ordered, by Despatch of the 21st July last, No. $\frac{673}{36}$, that both Austrian and foreign mariners should be reminded of the obligations to which they are subject according to the principles of Maritime International Law, and founded on territorial sovereignty, to hoist their National flags whenever bringing to or passing by within the distance of three nautical miles in the limits of an Imperial Royal Fortress, or other fortified places within Austrian maritime coasts, which signalize themselves by the display of the Austrian National flag.

In bringing this Superior Ordinance to the knowledge of National and Foreign mariners as their unfailing rule of conduct, the Central Maritime Government thinks it necessary to add that mariners would have to attribute to themselves those prejudicial consequences which might arise from the casual non-observance of the present Notice.

From the Imperial Royal Central Maritime Government.

Trieste, the 5th August 1863.
