CROWN OFFICE,
EDINBURGH, 29th April 1864.

NOTICE is Hereby Given that the Right Honorable Sir George Grey, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the 'Burial Grounds' (Scotland) Act, 1855, made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor pronounced by the Sheriff-Substitute of the County of Fife finding that the allegations contained in a Petition of Robert Proctor, Inspector of the Poor of the Parish of Inverkeithing, and of Thomas Law, Chairman of Parochial Board of said Parish, and John Grant, a member of the said Board, are true, to the effect that the Churchyard of the Parish is badly situated as a place of Cemetery; that it, having been used for several centuries, has become overcrowded with corpses, and is dangerous to health, offensive, and contrary to decency; and that a new Cemetery having been provided for the Parish there is no occasion for the old Churchyard being kept open as a Place of Sepulture, excepting under the reservation specified in the Petition, viz., in the cases of husbands or wives of those already buried therein; which representation recommends that Burials be forthwith Discontinued in the said Burial-ground, in the manner referred to in the Interlocutor: And that it has pleased Her Majesty in Council to give notice of such representation, and to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council on the 8th day of June next.

AND. MURRAY, Jr.,
Crown Agent for Scotland.
