Board of Trade, Whitehall,
June 4, 1864.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following translation of a Decree published in the Prussian Official Gazette, according a provisional reduction for six months of the dues levied in Prussian ports on foreign vessels.

The increase of the port dues on foreign, incoming and out-going ships having cargoes on board,—the so-called extraordinary flag-dues,—appointed by the Order in Council of the 20th June 1822, is suspended from to-day for the space of six months.

Ships which may enter a Prussian harbour within the above six-monthly period, will not be affected by this Decree if they remain after the expiration of that period.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
June 3, 1864.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Washington, enclosing a copy of the following Joint Resolution of the United States Congress, adding temporarily 50 per cent. to the Import Duties on articles imported into the United States:—

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress Assembled:

That, until the end of sixty days from the passage of this resolution, fifty per cent. of the rates of duties and imposts now imposed by law, on all goods, wares, merchandise, and articles imported, shall be added to the present duties and imposts now charged on the importation of such articles. Provided, That printing paper unsized, used for books and newspapers exclusively, shall be exempt from the operation of this resolution.

Approved, April 29, 1864.
