

BANKRUPTS
FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

BANKRUPTCY ANNULLED.

James Carruthers, of Queen's Road, Nottingham, draper and tea dealer.

BANKRUPTCIES AWARDED.

Julius Singer, formerly of 42A, Watling Street, and next and now of 74, Queen Street, Cheapside, both in London, lately residing at 6, Holborn Bars, London, and now at 7, St Leonard's Terrace, Maida Hill, West Middlesex, tailor.

Joseph James Maker and James Charles Maker, of Cottage Row, Bermondsey, Surrey, ironfounders and boiler makers.

Charles Fisher, of Hart Street, Henley-on-Thames, Oxford, builder.

William Henry Springer, of 20, Kensington Place, Notting Hill, Middlesex, journeyman carpenter, lately trading under the name, style, or firm of Springer & Lamb, carpenters and builders, then carrying on business in Conduit Street, Paddington, Middlesex.

Henry Alexander, formerly of Kender Street, New Cross Road, Surrey, seedsman and florist, also clerk to an ale and stout merchant, now of the same place, seedsman and florist.

Anthony John Smith, of 1, Hereford Road, lately known as 8, Hereford Terrace, Bayswater, Middlesex, tailor.

Henry King, of 2, Orchard Place, Kingsland Road, Middlesex, previously of Low Leighton, Essex, previously of Abchurch Lane, London, railway clerk, a prisoner for debt in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, (in formâ pauperis).

Robert Baxter Bond, of 215, Gray's-Inn-Road, Middlesex, out of business, formerly of Sea Palling, Norfolk, cattle dealer, then of the Saracen's Head, Skinner Street, Snow Hill, cab driver, then of Sidmouth Mews, Gray's-Inn-Road, and 3, Francis Street, Regent Square, cab proprietor, (trading under the name of George Bond,) then of 13, Great Warner Street, Clerkenwell, cab proprietor and corn dealer, and then of Philip Lane, West Green, Tottenham, all in Middlesex, corn dealer and fly proprietor.

Henry Kelson, of 178, High Street, Southampton, tailor.

James Haines and James Francis Haines, carrying on business under the style or firm of J. Haines & Son, at 29, Jubilee Street, Mile End, Middlesex, as cork cutters, the said James Francis Haines having a private residence at 39, Jubilee Street aforesaid.

George Simpson Mackennal, late of 37, Blandford Square, Regent's Park, Middlesex, and of 90, Lower Thames Street, London, merchant, now of Stamford Brook Lodge, New Road, Hammersmith, Middlesex, out of business.

Joseph Cherry, of 4, Gillingham Street, Pimlico, Middlesex, cook.

John Scott, of High Street, Winslow, Buckingham, mealman and corn dealer.

Frederick Clement, late of 7, Brandon Terrace, Cornwall Road, Brixton, then of Hawthorn Grove, Penge, then of Dudley Place, Clapham Road, then of Wurtemberg Street, Clapham, all in Surrey, butcher, a prisoner for debt in Horsemonger Lane Gaol, Surrey, (in formâ pauperis).

Richard Hancock, of Rose Cottage, Plumstead Common, Kent, timber dealer and caruan, and occasionally dealing in coals.

John Snow, late of Littleton, farmer, now of Winchester, both in Southampton, pork butcher.

William Page, of 5, Lonsdale Place, Pembridge Villas, Notting Hill West, Middlesex, carpenter and blind maker.

Robert Abbott, of 19, Change Alley, London, wine merchant.

Charles Warner, of 112, Vauxhall Walk, Lambeth, Surrey, gingerbeer and mineral water manufacturer.

Wedgwood Thomas, of Red Street, Stafford, earthenware manufacturer.

Arthur Frederick Eaves, of Birmingham, Warwick, clock-maker and retail brewer.

Charles Chinery, of 15, Alfred Street, Nottingham, licensed victualler.

Walter Rochester Cann, late of 23, Brunswick Square, Gloucester, afterwards travelling through Gloucester, Monmouth, Glamorgan, and Brecon, having no fixed residence, since of the Beaufort Arms Hotel, Monmouth, now a prisoner in the County Gaol or Prison at Monmouth, commercial traveller.

Joseph Thomas Burgess, late and now of Swindon, Wilts, also of Leamington Priors, Warwick, journalist, and manager of the North Wilts Herald.

Herman Heinemann, late of the Albany, Oldhall Street, Liverpool, Lancaster, merchant and commission agent, a prisoner for debt in the Castle or Prison at Lancaster.

John Messer, of 16, Norton Street, Liverpool, Lancaster, draper.

Henry Parry, of Newry Street, Holyhead, Anglesea, joiner and builder.

John Simpson, of Fountain Street, within Oldham, Lancaster, butcher.

Thomas William Cameron, (sued and known as Thomas Cameron, the younger,) formerly of the Union Tavern, Broad Street, Portsmouth, then of the Earl St Vincent Tavern, the Hard, Portsea, both in Hants, licensed victualler, waterman and bumboatman, afterwards of Bathing Lane, waterman and bumboatman, now of the East and West Country House, Bath Square, both in Portsmouth aforesaid, licensed victualler, waterman, and bumboatman.

George Ford, of 2, Basin Street, Buckland, Portsea, Hants, surveyor and valuer.

Ann Diffe, late of 196, Stamford Street, jeweller and watch maker, now of 131, Old Street, both in Ashton-under-Lyne, Lancaster, out of business.

James Eddy, of Penrith, Cumberland, nail manufacturer.

William Jones, the younger, of Ribbesford, Worcester, out of business, previously of Wildmoor Mill, Bellbroughton, Worcester, miller.

James Joseph Brigham High, (commonly known as James High,) of Ellingham, Norfolk, wheelwright and publican.

George Eaton, of Guestling Thorn, Guestling, Sussex, blacksmith.

Henry Thomas Freeman, of Clec Saint Margaret, Salop, miller.

Diana Hails, formerly residing and carrying on business at 9, Westgate Street, furniture broker and dealer in clothes, afterwards of 16, Market Street, both in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, out of business, now a prisoner in the Gaol at Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

William Green, of Grafton, carpenter, formerly of Gretton Fields, Winchcomb, both in Gloucester, retailer of ale and porter.

Sayers Kennington, of the London Road, Litchurch, Derby, hairdresser, and dealer in tobacco and fancy goods.

William Jackson, of High Street, Sunderland, Durham, commission agent, (in formâ pauperis).

Thomas Ford, of Bolton, Lancaster, waste dealer.

David Williams, of Gray's-Inn-Lane, Aberystwith, Cardigan, cabinetmaker.

William Evans, of Chalybeate Terrace, Aberystwith, Cardigan, miller.

William Gibson, of Long Bennington, Lincoln, boot and shoe maker.

Robert Wilson, at 41, Lower Tower Street, journeyman machinist, previously residing at 18, Price Street, and carrying on business at 39½, Lancaster Street, all in Birmingham, Warwick, as a machinist.

James Newbold, at 148, Hockley Hill, Birmingham, Warwick, journeyman coach body maker.

Henry Hayward, of 20, Walcot Street, Bath, tinsmith and bellhanger.

Robert Luscombe, of 10, Barbican Quay, Plymouth, Devon, butcher and grocer.

James Crute, of 12, Bilbury Street, Plymouth, Devon, market gardener and green grocer.

Edwin Green, of 34, Upper Mount Street, Northampton, butcher.

Nicholas Cawthorne, of Holly Moor, near Aldbrough, York, and Joseph Cawthorne, of the same place, brick and tile manufacturers, in partnership at Osmondcroft, near Winston, Durham.

John Hanson, at Rock Hill, Bromsgrove, shoemaker, previously at the Rock Tavern, Rock Hill aforesaid, licensed victualler and shoemaker.

Thomas Baker, of Alphington, Devon, labourer, (in formâ pauperis).

George Waite, of 7, High Street, Folkestone, Kent, boot and shoe maker.

Edwin Henry Williams, (commonly known as Edwin Henry Boddington,) formerly of Bridge Avenue, Hammersmith, then of 23, Queen Ann Street, Cavendish Square, both in Middlesex, then of Box Grove Farm, Guildford, Surrey, now of New End House, Silsoe, near Ampthill, Bedford, artist.

William George Evans, of 70, Phoebe Ann Street, Everton, and carrying on business at 11, Old Post-office Place, stationer, previously of 120, Saint James' Street, all in Liverpool, Lancaster, picture frame maker, book-seller, and stationer.

Henry Cashen, of 23, Great Orford Street, Liverpool, Lancaster, out of business, formerly of Douglas, Isle of Man, out of business.