

- Alfred William Trafford, of 32, Canterbury Terrace, Finchley Road, Walworth, Surrey, baker.
- Henry Martin Radloff, of 11, Athol Terrace, Dover, Kent, before that of Beach Cottage, Wellington Road, Bow Road, Middlesex, carrying on business at the Perseverance Oil Works, near Devon Lane, Bow, Middlesex, as a grease manufacturer and oil refiner.
- David Britten, of 5 and 6, High Street, Highgate, Middlesex, draper's assistant.
- George Diggins, of 1, Slaughter House, New Cattle Market, Islington, commission slaughterman, formerly having a private residence at 1, Blundell Street, Caledonian Road, Islington, next of 1A, Hungerford Road, York Road, (formerly Maiden Lane,) King's Cross, and next and now of 23, Charles Street, Frederick Street, Caledonian Road aforesaid, all in Middlesex.
- John Tuttle, formerly of 29, Martha Street, Haggerstone, then of 15, Holley Street, and Queen's Road, Dalston, all in Middlesex, well digger, then of Homerton Terrace, St John's, Hackney, Middlesex, there keeping a beer-shop known as the Bell, and now of 15, Chapman Road, White Post Lane, Hackney Wick, Middlesex, well digger.
- Joseph Staples, of 13, Catherine Street, Strand, Middlesex, patent medicine vendor.
- Henry Cory, formerly of 4, York Place, Walworth Road, Surrey, then and now of 5, Blatch Terrace, Hackney, Middlesex, and during this time having an office at 9, Dyers Buildings, Holborn, London, shipping agent.
- Edward Sirett, of Steeple Claydon, near Winslow and Amersham, both in Buckingham, farmer.
- John Charles Brant, of Knight's Hill, Lower Norwood, previously of 23, Canterbury Row, Kennington Road, and at Princes Lane, Walworth Common, formerly of 7, York Row, Kennington Road, all in Surrey, previously of 69, Forston Street, City Road Basin, Middlesex, colour and cork manufacturer.
- John Clark, of the Great Northern Potatoe Market, York Road, King's Cross, and 22, Manchester Street, Gray's Inn Road, both in Middlesex, potatoe merchant and salesman, and of Crowle, Lincoln, in copartnership with John Taylor, of Crowle aforesaid, potatoe merchant.
- Charles Frederick Sayer, (sued as Charles Sayer,) of 49, Queen's Road, Dalston, Middlesex, house decorator.
- Edward Kempton, of 13, Dorset Crescent, East Road, City Road, Middlesex, upholsterer, and Saint Dunstan's Road, Forest Hill Road, Peckham Rye, Surrey, builder.
- Joseph Hardiman, of 23, De Beauvoir Road, Kingsland, Middlesex, and 4, Chapterhouse Court, St Paul's Churchyard, London, formerly stationer, but now an assistant to a stationer.
- Joshua Finlinson, of Brockley Rectory, Brockley, near Bury St Edmund's, Suffolk, clerk in holy orders, and late rector of Brockley aforesaid, and previously thereto of Aldsworth Parsonage, Aldsworth, near Northleach, Gloucester, clerk in holy orders, and formerly curate of the parish church of Aldsworth, Gloucester.
- William Broughton, of 1, Elgin Mews, Elgin Road, Maida Vale, Middlesex, job master and livery stable keeper.
- John Mitchell, of 2, Victoria Cottages, Archway Road, Highgate, Middlesex, linen draper.
- John Wattis, late of Powick, Worcester, formerly a farmer, but now of no trade or business, a prisoner for debt in Her Majesty's Gaol at Worcester.
- John Vandenberg, of Spalding, Lincoln, shoemaker.
- Jeremiah Forknall, of High Cross Street, Leicester, furniture broker and general dealer.
- David Davies, of Briton Ferry, Glamorgan, contractor.
- William Baker Hewett, of Bream, near Lydney, Gloucester, haulier.
- Charles Smith Roskilly, late of Falmouth, Cornwall, brewer and maltster, now a prisoner for debt in the Devon County Prison.
- William Heslop Winn, (sued as William Henry Winn,) late of Huddersfield, York, clothier and outfitter.
- William Ward, the younger, of Wellow, Nottingham, machine owner.
- William Ward, the elder, of Ompton, Kneessall, Nottingham, farmer.
- William Tullis, of Rothwell Street, Whitefield Road, Everton, Lancaster, builder, late a prisoner for debt in the Liverpool Borough Gaol, Walton, Lancaster.
- John Dickin Williams, of Foregate Street, Chester, builder.
- Charles Thompson, of 183, City Road, Hulme, Manchester, Lancaster, boot and shoe maker.
- Charles Hibbert, of Smallshaw, Ashton-under-Lyne, Lancaster, high bailiff of the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Ashton-under-Lyne.
- Thomas Folan, of Dog Bank Row, Jarrow, Durham, labourer and lodging-house keeper.
- George Caldwell Dickins, of Cornhill House, Cornhill, Northumberland, out of business, formerly captain in the 46th Regiment, and afterwards major in the Turkish Contingent.
- William Cherry, of 16, Horsefair, Saint James, Bristol, now a prisoner for debt in the Gaol at Bristol, rope, twine, and sacking manufacturer, and general dealer.
- John Llewellyn, of 1, Narrow Weir, Saint Peter, Bristol, dealer in toys and fancy goods, hair dresser and barber.
- John William Smith, of 19, Northumberland Street, Liverpool, Lancaster, grocer, provision dealer, and master mariner.
- Jane Eliza Birch, in lodgings at the house of Mr Henry Pope, of Ninevah Road, Gil Heath, Birmingham, Warwick, out of business, previously of King's Norton, out of business, and formerly of Balsall Heath, Moseley Road, both in Worcester, at the same time occupying stalls at 102 and 103, Market Hall, Birmingham aforesaid, fruiterer.
- William Wells Brazier, (usually known as William Brazier,) at 4, House, 4, Court, Henrietta Street, previously of 12, Adam Street, and formerly of 7, Hampton Street, all in Birmingham, Warwick, plumber, painter, glazier, and paperhanger.
- Samuel Ward, at 95, Great Barr Street, Aston Juxta, Warwick, butcher.
- Christopher Ineson, of Birstal, York, grocer and rag dealer.
- Thomas Bell, of Halltown, Rockliff, Cumberland, farmer.
- John James Gann, of Floral Cottage, Halton, Hastings, Sussex, sign writer.
- Thomas Bolwell, of 21, Crescent Fields, Upper Bristol Road, Bath, wheelwright.
- Isaac Merwood, of Freshwater, Isle of Wight, Hants, butcher.
- Samuel Hutchinson, of Bank View, Derby Road, previously of the Alexandra Hotel, Victoria, both in Tra-mere, Chester, licensed victualler and builder.
- Henry Craker, of Clifford, near Tadcaster, York, general dealer.
- Robert Simpson, of Debenham, Suffolk, dealer, farmer, and beerhouse keeper.
- Elias Davis, of 9, Linskill Street, North Shields, Northumberland, formerly of 28, Little Alie Street, Goodman's Fields, Whitechapel, London, Middlesex, afterwards of 9, East Holborn, South Shields, Durham, watchmaker and working jeweller.
- Thomas Bland, of Corbridge, Northumberland, stone-mason.
- Philip Jenkins, (and not James White, as advertised in the Gazette of the 7th instant,) of Commercial Row, Pembroke Dock, Pembroke, watchmaker and jeweller.
- John Bond, of New Street, Walsall, Stafford, covered harness furniture manufacturer.
- William Hack, late of Sheepshed, shoe manufacturer, now at Loughborough, both in Leicester, out of business.
- Thomas Edwards, of Langollen, Denbigh, fellmonger and yarn dealer.
- Henry Baddeley, of the Rookery, Wolstanton, Stafford, grocer and provision dealer.
- Alfred Roshier, of Hadleigh, Suffolk, tailor, draper, and beerhouse keeper.
- Peter Bowker, of Eccles, formerly of 40, Preston Street, Hulme, then of 76, York Street, Cheetham Hill Road, Manchester, and late of 50, Bridge Street, Greenheys, Manchester, all in Lancaster, out of business.
- Philip Marks, of West Bar, Sheffield, York, fruiterer.
- Robert Hall, of Worksop, Nottingham, watchmaker and jeweller.
- Edward David, of 27, Elm Street, Roath, near Cardiff, Glamorgan, baker and grocer.
- Thomas Williams, of Glebe Street, Penarth, Glamorgan, grocer, baker, and general dealer.
- William Sharples, of 8, Miller Street, New Hall Lane, and John Sharples, of Lark Hill Street, both in Preston, Lancaster, reed makers, lately carrying on business in copartnership as reed makers, first at Miller Street aforesaid, and afterwards at Church Street, Preston aforesaid.
- John Smith, of Newton Longville, Buckingham, butcher, publican, and general dealer.
- Robert Woodhouse, of Black Street, Martham, Norfolk, basketmaker.
- Henry Munsey, of Great Yarmouth, Norfolk, plumber, glazier, and painter.
- William Maidment, of Yeovil, Somerset, cabinetmaker, joiner, and green grocer.
- Thomas Brett, late of Llandudno, Carnarvon, late a prisoner for debt in the Gaol at Ruthin, Denbigh.
- John Thomas, late of Gwennap, but now of Stithians, Cornwall, butcher.