Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1865.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of September 1865.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Duke of Somerset.

Mr Secretary Cardwell.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prevent until the 1st day of September 1850, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and which has since been from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, it is (amongst other things) enacted that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals; and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid, in any such Order or Orders contained, shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act; and that all persons offending against the said Act shall, for each and every offence, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct:

And whereas it is expedient to take measures for preventing the spreading to the Island and Barony of Lewis, in the county of Ross, of a contagious or infectious disorder generally designated "the cattle plague," now prevailing in many other parts of Great Britain.

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council do hereby, by virtue and in exercise of the powers given by the said recited Act, and by the several Acts continuing the same as aforesaid, order as follows:—

1. In this Order the word "cattle" shall be interpreted to mean any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or lamb.

2. It shall not be lawful for any person to remove any cattle to any port or place within that part of Great Britain called the Island and Barony of Lewis, in the county of Ross, from any other port or place in Great Britain:

And the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give such directions herein as may be necessary to ensure due obedience to this Order.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
October 2, 1865.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Caracas, enclosing the following translation of a Decree recently issued by the Government of Venezuela, relative to the opening of certain Ports of that Republic:—

ART. 1.—Ciudad Bolivar, La Guaira, Puerto Cabello, and Maracaibo are declared open to importation and exportation. The ports of Ciudad Bolivar, and Maracaibo will also be open for the transit commerce with the United States of Columbia, in conformity with the existing rules regulating the same.

ART. 2. The ports of Cumana, Barcelona, La Vela, Carupano, Guiria, Maturin, Juan Griego, and Pampatar, are open to trade for the importation of their consumption, and for exportation.

ART. 3. The Fluvial ports of Las Tablas Soledad, and Barrancas, in the Orinoco, are open for the exportation of cattle and their products: the ports of Cunarebo, Adicora, and Zazarida, solely for exportation.

ART. 4. The Custom-houses of the ports open for the importation of their consumption cannot carry on the coasting trade in foreign goods, &c. with other ports of the Republic, whether they be opened to trade or not.

Are excepted, the ports of Cumana, Carúpano, Guíria, Juan Griego, and Pampatar, which can grant permits (coasting trade), the first to Cariaco, the second to Rio Caribe, the third to Irapa, Yaguarapora, and other places having communication by river with the Gulf of Paria; and the fourth and fifth for all the Island Margarita.

ART. 5. The customs of San Antonio del Tachira is open for the importations made for the United States of Columbia, and for other purposes defined by law.
