

Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any place in Sweden and Norway, the said respective letters being conveyed via Denmark, Belgium, and Germany, there shall be charged, and taken, and paid, an uniform rate of British postage of one penny, if such respective letters be prepaid, and if such respective letters be not prepaid an uniform rate of British postage of twopence.

3. On every letter not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, posted in Denmark, Sweden, or Norway, addressed to any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or any Foreign country, or posted in any of Her Majesty's Colonies or any Foreign country addressed to Denmark, Sweden, or Norway, transmitted by the post between Denmark, Sweden, or Norway, and any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or any Foreign country, via Belgium and Germany, through the United Kingdom, otherwise than in closed mails, there shall be charged, and taken, and paid, for such transmission thereof through the United Kingdom, an uniform rate of British postage of one penny, if such respective letters be prepaid, and if such respective letters be not prepaid, an uniform rate of British postage of twopence. And also for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or vessel (not being a packet-boat) conveying the same, and the Colony or Foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, such a further or additional rate of British postage as shall, from time to time, be charged and payable for British postage on letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or vessel (not being a packet-boat) conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and any such Colony or Foreign country. Provided that in all cases where such additional rate includes both inland and sea services, there shall be deducted therefrom the sum of one penny in respect of the inland conveyance under this clause of every such letter sent through the United Kingdom.

4. On every letter so transmitted as is hereinbefore in this Warrant respectively mentioned, if exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage, according to the scale of weight and number of rates hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding one half of an ounce in weight and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage;

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding one ounce and not exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce in weight, three rates of postage;

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding two ounces and not exceeding two ounces and the half of another ounce in weight, five rates of postage;

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding two ounces and the half of another ounce and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage;

And for every half of an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of three ounces there shall be charged, taken, and paid, one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage every fractional part of such additional half of an ounce shall be charged as an additional half of an ounce in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight.

5. If any letter, transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Denmark, and the postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto shall represent a less amount than the rate of postage to which the same would be liable under or by virtue of this Warrant, every such letter shall be charged with postage as an unpaid letter, and the amount of such postage paid thereon, or stamp or stamps affixed thereto, shall be allowed and deducted in charging such postage thereon.

6. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by the said first hereinbefore recited Act, or to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the privileges which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service are now by law entitled to, of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions made and in force for the time being in respect of the same.

7. Registered letters may be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, upon the payment of such additional charges or rates of postage, or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct or appoint in that behalf, provided that all rates of postage and additional charges, or rates from time to time payable thereupon, shall be prepaid, and that no payment shall be made thereupon on the delivery of any such registered letters.

8. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Denmark, Sweden, or Norway, and transmitted by the post from any part of the United Kingdom to any place in Denmark, Sweden, or Norway, the said respective packets being conveyed via Belgium and Germany, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, an uniform rate of postage (British and Foreign combined) of threepence; and every such packet shall be transmitted in conformity with, and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained relating thereto.

9. All packets consisting of printed papers other than British newspapers, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Denmark, Sweden, or Norway, and transmitted by the post from any part of the United Kingdom to any place in Denmark, Sweden, or Norway, the said respective packets being conveyed in a closed mail via Belgium and Germany, may be so transmitted in conformity with, and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained relating thereto, and there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for the transmission of every such packet, an uniform rate of postage (British and Foreign combined) of fourpence.

10. All packets transmitted respectively under the authority of the 8th and 9th Clauses of this Warrant hereinbefore respectively contained, shall, if exceeding the weight of four ounces respectively,
