TUESDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1865.

At the Court at Windsor, the 5th day of December 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by The Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted (among other things) that Her Majesty in Council may from time to time make such Orders in Council as seem meet for the better execution of any of the purposes of that Act, and that the said Act shall commence on such day, not later than the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, as Her Majesty in Council thinks fit to appoint:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the said Act or otherwise in Her vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Preliminary.

1. The said Act and this Order shall commence from and immediately after the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

2. The Order in Council of the eleventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, under The Navy Pay and Prize Act, 1854, and that of the nineteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, amending the same, are hereby repealed, but not so as to revive any Order, regulation, practice, or other thing thereby expressly or virtually repealed or abolished, or to affect the past operation of the said Orders respectively, or the validity of anything done thereunder.

3. In this Order—

The term "pay" includes all wages, pensions, bounty money, grants, or other allowances in the nature thereof, due in respect of service in Her Majesty's naval or marine force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman, or marine, or the widow or any relative of a deceased officer, seaman, or marine:

Other terms have the same respective meanings as in the said Act.

Confirmation of Existing Orders in Council, Queen's Regulations, &c.

4. All Orders in Council, and all Queen's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, and Instructions for Paymasters of the Navy, as far as they relate to naval and marine pay, and are in force at the commencement of this Order, and are not by this Order expressly repealed, are hereby continued and confirmed, subject, however, with respect to the Queen's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, and Instructions for Paymasters, to such alterations as the respective proper authority in that behalf from time to time thinks fit to make therein.

Rating.

5. A seaman or marine discharged or transferred from one ship to another shall not be rated lower in the latter ship than in the former ship on or in consequence of such discharge or transfer.

Allotments and Remittances of Pay by Seamen and Marines, and other Remittances.

6. For the purposes of the provisions of this Order respecting allotments and remittances of pay by seamen and marines, and other remittances, the proper certifying authority shall be (in the several cases hereinafter mentioned,) the following, namely:—

- (1.) Where the allottee or payee resides in England, Wales, Scotland, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, the minister and churchwardens or elders of the parish or district parish wherein the allottee or payee resides.
- (2.) Where the allottee or payee resides in Ireland, the inspector or sub-inspector of constabulary for the county, and a churchwarden of the parish, wherein the allottee or payee resides.
- (3.) Where the allottee or payee resides at Sierra Leone, the commissariat officer there.
- (4.) Where the allottee or payee resides in any other British possession out of the United Kingdom, two of the principal merchants or tradespeople of the place of residence; and the ministers, churchwardens, elders, inspectors, sub-inspectors, commissariat officer, merchants and tradespeople aforesaid (when respectively the proper certifying authority,) are hereby required to furnish, in the several cases in this Order provided for, such certificates as are requisite for the purposes of this Order, in case they respectively are satisfied of the truth of the matter required to be certified.

7. At places where there is not any resident naval cashier or paymaster, allotments and remittances (home and foreign) shall be paid by a clerk of Her Majesty's Paymaster-General, or any officer of the revenue, or (if hereafter deemed expedient by the Admiralty and Her Majesty's Postmaster-General) a postmaster, who respectively shall comply in all respects with the instructions of the Admiralty printed on the authority for payment addressed to the paying officer.

8. The amounts so paid shall be repaid to the respective departments, in the same manner as at present, subject to such alterations as the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury and the Admiralty from time to time direct.

9. Payment shall not be made, except on the production of the duplicate of the authority issued to the paying officer; or, in case of a remittance other than a foreign remittance, on production of the letter of advice or other equivalent document sent from the Admiralty Office to the payee.

10. An allotment or foreign remittance shall not be paid without a certificate from the proper certifying authority that the holder of the duplicate is the person named as allottee or payee in the duplicate.

11. Payment shall only be made to the allottee or payee personally, unless on any occasion the allottee or payee is unable from illness or bodily infirmity to appear personally, in which case payment on that occasion shall be made to the person producing—

- (1.) The duplicate authority together with the allottee's or payee's order in writing, signed and witnessed, for payment to that person; and
- (2.) A certificate from the proper certifying authority of the allottee's or payee's being unable from illness or bodily infirmity to appear personally; or
- (3.) A like certificate from the allottee's or payee's legally qualified medical attendant: provided the paying officer does not doubt the authenticity of the order, or the truth of the certificate.

12. Payment shall not be made unless the paying officer is satisfied of the title of the claimant.

13. Where a wife is allottee, payment shall not be made except on due proof of the marriage.

14. If, on any application for payment, the paying officer entertains any doubt as to the claimant's title to payment, he shall inquire into the matter, and may require from the claimant such statutory declaration or declarations of the claimant alone, or with any other person or persons, as the paying officer thinks requisite.

15. On paying an allotment, the paying officer shall take a receipt duly witnessed on the usual list, and shall indorse on the duplicate authority the date and amount of the payment and the term for which it is made.

16. On paying a remittance, the paying officer shall take a receipt on the authority for payment addressed to him, and shall certify thereon (where so required) to his having satisfied himself of the title of the claimant.

17. Where a seaman or marine having allotted becomes of unsound mind, and his wife, child, or other near relative is allottee, payment of the allotment may be continued, under the direction of the Admiralty, to the allottee, within the limits of the pay due.

18. Where a wife being allottee dies or deserts her children, or so misconducts herself as to be considered undeserving of support from her husband, the Admiralty, on a certificate to that effect from the proper certifying authority, may stop further payment under the allotment.

If, in any such case, there is a child of the allottor unprovided for, the Admiralty, on a certificate to that effect from the proper certifying authority, may revoke the authority for payment to the wife, and make out a new authority in favour of a proper person resident in the parish where the child is, recommended for the purpose by the proper certifying authority; and that person shall apply to the maintenance of the child the money allotted.

19. Where a wife, being an allottee, becomes of unsound mind, the Admiralty on receipt of a certificate to that effect from the proper certifying authority, may stop further payment under the allotment, and may revoke the authority for payment to the wife, and make out a new authority in favour of a proper person recommended for the purpose by the proper certifying authority; and that person shall apply for the benefit of the wife and the children (if any) of the allottor the money allotted.

20. Where the death of an allottee comes to the knowledge of the proper certifying authority, or of any one of the persons constituting such authority, immediate notice of the death shall be given by such authority or person to the Admiralty, or to the officer by whom the allotment is payable, who shall endorse the date of his receipt of the notice on the authority for payment, and return the same to the Admiralty.

21. Every certificate under this Order shall state the character in which each person certifying subscribes the same.

Unclaimed Pay.

22. Pay shall be deemed forfeited if, within six years from the first day of January next following the time when it became payable—

- (1.) It is not claimed; or
- (2.) A claim made to it is not proved to the satisfaction of the Admiralty.

23. The Admiralty may, however, if they see good cause, in any case remit such forfeiture.

Stoppage of Pay by R.

24. A person against whose name the letter R is placed in the books of the ship to which he belongs, as denoting a deserter, shall not, while the R so remains, be entitled to receive his pay; but the Admiralty may, in any case, if they think fit, order the R to be removed, and authorize the payment of the pay accrued.

Persons of Unsound Mind.

25. Where it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the Admiralty that an officer, seaman, or marine, or other person entitled to pay, is of unsound mind (though not found lunatic by inquisition), the whole or any part of such pay may be paid over, under the direction of the Admiralty, to the wife, or relative or other person having the care or maintenance of such person, to be applied for his maintenance and benefit.

Vouchers.

26. Certificates of payment of monthly advance to seamen and marines, or of the payment of the balances of the pay of officers, seamen, and marines, other certificates founded on the books of Her Majesty's ships, certificates of allotments by seamen and marines paid by Her Majesty's Paymaster-General, certified effective lists of the payment of marine pay, certified vouchers of the payment of wages in Her Majesty's Dockyard, and victualling and other naval establishments, and certified lists of wages and bounty to Naval Coast Volunteers, shall, when duly attested by the several officers or other persons whose duty it is to attend and attest such payments, be received by all authorities and persons, for all purposes, as sufficient vouchers in proof of the several payments in such certificates or lists respectively charged, conformably with the practice which has hitherto prevailed.

And the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.
