THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Local Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council, relating to the "Cattle Plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of the 18th section of their Lordships' Order of the 23d November 1865 :—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

I, JOHN BLACKIE, Junior, Lord Provost of the city of Glasgow, in virtue of the powers vested in me as local authority, under the Orders issued by Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, hereby give notice that from and after the date hereof, and up to the 1st of March next, it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be permitted to enter the city of Glasgow from any other part of Great Britain, except for the purpose of being sent to the Glasgow Cattle Market.

Further, I, as local authority foresaid, do hereby give notice, that from and after the date hereof, and up to the 1st of March next, it is expedient that no such animal shall be allowed to enter the Glasgow Cattle Market, except for the purpose of slaughter, and subject to the following conditions, viz. :—

First. That every animal on entering the market shall be marked in such way as the officers of the market may from time to time direct.

Second. No animal shall leave the market unless to go or be taken to one or other of the slaughter-houses provided by the Market Commissioners, to be there forthwith slaughtered.

Third. Every cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be inspected by the Inspectors appointed for the purpose, after being slaughtered, and shall not be allowed to pass out of the slaughter-houses for consumption until such examination has taken place,

Arrangements have been made with the Market Commissioners for affording every possible facility for the slaughtering and inspection of animals.

JNO. BLACKIE, Junior, Lord Provost.

Glasgow, 8th January 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Bargh of Hamilton.

I, JOHN DYKES, Provost of Hamilton, by virtue of the power conferred on me by the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, of dates the 23d November and 16th December 1865, hereby declare, in terms of the 18th section of the said first-mentioned Order, that, with a view to prevent the spreading of the cattle plague, it is expedient that from the 10th day of January current to the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the burgh of Hamilton.

(Signed) JOHN DYKES, Provost.

Council-Chambers, Hamilton,
8th January 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Sutherland.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Justices of the Peace for the county of Sutherland, assembled in Sessions at Dornoch, on the 5th day of January current, unanimously resolved, That in conformity with the powers conferred upon them as the local authority within the said county, by the Order of the Privy Council dated 23d November last, relative to the Cattle Plague, it is expedient for the period from this date to the 1st day of March next, that the animals referred to in the said Order, that is to say, cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, shall, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, not be brought from any place in Great Britain, either by sea or land, other than from places within the counties of Caithness, Ross, Cromarty, and Nairn, and those parts of the counties of Inverness and Elgin lying to the north and west of the River Spey, to any place within the county of Sutherland, and that all such animals, except from the places aforesaid, shall be excluded accordingly; and further resolved, that it is expedient for the present to suspend all markets for the animals above-mentioned, within the county of Sutherland, from and after this date until further notice.

Every person offending against the said Order in Council shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

DONALD TAYLOR, Clerk of the Peace.
