Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1866.

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Local Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council, relating to the "Cattle Plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of the 18th section of their Lordships' Order of the 23d November 1865 :—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Stirling.

NOTICE is hereby given that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Stirling, in Sessions assembled at Stirling, upon the 10th day of January 1866, in exercise and by virtue of the powers conferred upon them as the local authority for the county of Stirling, by the Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council dated 23d November 1865, resolved, and do hereby declare that it is expedient, for the period from the publication of this Notice to the 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or goat, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within their jurisdiction as local authority aforesaid, being the county of Stirling, without the limits of the burghs of Stirling and Falkirk, in terms and within the meaning of the 18th Section of the said Order in Council, and subject to the provisions therein contained.

And Notice is hereby farther given that every person offending against the said Order, and the foregoing Resolution and Notice, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

MONTROSE, Chairman of Sessions.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Burgh of Stirling.

I, JOHN MURRIE, Provost of the Burgh of Stirling, in virtue of the powers vested in me as local authority under the Orders of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23d day of November and 16th day of December 1865, do hereby give notice—

1. That from and after the 15th current inclusive, and up to the 1st day of March next, it is expedient to prohibit and prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the jurisdiction of the local authority of the burgh of Stirling, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, all in terms of the 16th clause of the said Order of 23d November 1865.

2. That from and after the 15th current inclusive, and up to the 1st day of March next, it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine, shall be brought from any place in Great Britain, beyond the jurisdiction of the local authority of the burgh of Stirling, into any place within that jurisdiction, except for the purpose of being slaughtered therein, and that under the following conditions :—

1. The animals must be accompanied by a license for the removal thereof, granted by a Justice of the Peace of the county from which the said animals are brought, obtained within forty-eight hours immediately previous to the said animals being brought into the said burgh, upon a declaration emitted by the owner that such animals have not been affected by the Cattle Plague ;

2. Every such animal on being brought into the said burgh must be immediately taken direct to the slaughter-house, situated at Stirling Bridge, and there forthwith slaughtered, and to no other place within the burgh :—

All in terms of the 18th section of the said Order of 23d November 1865, under the exceptions contained therein.

3. That, from and after the 15th current inclusive, and up to the 1st day of March next, it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine, shall be removed from any place within the burgh of Stirling, within the meaning and in terms of the 4th clause of the said Order of 16th December 1865, under the provisions contained in that clause, and under the further provision that this declaration shall not make it unlawful for any person to remove such animals, or any of them, if free from the Cattle Plague, from the premises where they may have been for twenty-one days at least prior to such removal, for the exclusive purpose of being taken direct to the said slaughter-house situated at Stirling Bridge, and there forthwith slaughtered, or of being conveyed forthwith out of the jurisdiction of the burgh of Stirling, provided that a license for such
