

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Local Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council, relating to the "Cattle Plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of the 18th section of their Lordships' Order of the 23d November 1865 :—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

NOTICE.

County of Dumfries.

By virtue of the powers conferred by an Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 20th day of January 1866, notice is hereby given that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Dumfries, in adjourned Quarter Sessions assembled at Dumfries, on the 31st day of January current, declare that it is expedient, from the 7th day of February next until the 1st day of March next, with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, that all raw or untanned hides and skins, and all horns or hoofs of animals, viz., cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, and offal of such animals, and also all dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the jurisdiction of the said Justices; and it shall not be lawful for any person, in contravention of this notice, to bring or send any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, or other article aforesaid, from any place in Great Britain beyond the jurisdiction of the said Justices into any place within such jurisdiction, but always with and under the exceptions mentioned in said Order of Council. Further, said Justices declare that it is expedient, for the foresaid period, with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, that no sheep or swine from an infected farm, or from any place within one mile from the nearest point of infection, shall be removed from any particular part of the jurisdiction of the Justices to any other part of their jurisdiction, or from place to place generally within their jurisdiction: Further, that, for the foresaid period all raw or untanned hides, and all horns or hoofs of any animals, viz., cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, and offal of any such animal, and also all dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to promote infection, shall not be removed within the jurisdiction of the said Justices from an infected farm, or from any place within one mile from the nearest point of infection; and it shall not be lawful for any person to remove any sheep or swine, or any hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, or other article as aforesaid, within the jurisdiction of the said Justices, in contravention of this notice, excepting under the conditions mentioned in the foresaid Order of Council.

By Order of the Justices,

CHRISTOPHER HARKNESS, Clerk of the Peace.

Dumfries, 31st January 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

At a meeting of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Wigtown, assembled in Special Sessions at Wigtown, on the 3d day of February current, it was resolved, in pursuance and in exercise of the powers conferred by the Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, of date 20th January 1866, to give notice, and notice is accordingly hereby given, that it is expedient that all raw and untanned hides and skins, and all horns or hoofs, and the offal and dung of cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, and also hay, straw, fodder, and litter, shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into the county of Wigtown, within the jurisdiction of the Justices, for the period from this date until the 1st day of March 1866, excepting, as provided by said Order of Privy Council, such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America, and it is hereby declared unlawful for any person, in contravention of this notice, to bring or send any hide, skin, horn, hoof, offal, dung, hay, straw, fodder, litter, or other article as aforesaid, during the above period, from any other place in Great Britain, beyond the jurisdiction of said Justices, into any place within their jurisdiction, under a penalty not exceeding £20 for every offence.

By Order of the Justices,

AL. INGRAM, Clerk of the Peace.

Stranraer, 3d February 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

NOTICE.

THE Justices of the Peace for the county of Perth, in Sessions assembled, on 2d February 1866, by virtue of the Orders of Her Majesty's Privy Council of dates 23d November, 16th December, and 20th January last, with a view to prevent the spreading of the cattle disease, declared, and do hereby declare, that it is expedient that from and after the 6th February current until the 1st day of March next, no raw or untanned hides and skins, horns, hoofs, or offal, of any cows, heifer, bulls, bullocks, oxen, or calves, or dung, hay, straw, or litter, shall be brought or sent from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the county of Perth: But always excepting such articles of the foresaid description as shall be sent or carried through the said county on railways, or such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported from India, Australia, South Africa, or America.

And farther, that no hides, skins, horns, hoofs, or offal of the animals as before described, and no dung, hay, or straw, shall be removed from place to place generally, within the said county of Perth, nor from the city of Perth (being a separate jurisdiction), excepting always—

1. Hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America.
2. Such of the foresaid articles as are being taken or sent by railway through the said county.
3. Hay and straw, but these last-named articles only under authority of a licence by one or more Justices, and after a declaration made before the Justice to whom he applies, by the person wishing the licence, as to the destination of the said hay or straw, and that there has been no animal labouring under the Cattle Disease on the premises from which the said articles are to be removed; and that
