

14. Commanders to be retired at the age of 55, or when physically unfit for service, and to be allowed to retire at 50, with the consent of the Admiralty, on the terms of the Order in Council of 9th July 1864.

15. Lieutenants to be retired at 55, or when physically unfit for service, and to be allowed to retire at 45, with the consent of the Admiralty, on the terms of the Order in Council of 9th July 1864.

16. Time served by Naval officers in future retiring from Civil employments connected with the Navy, which does not entitle them to Civil superannuation, to be allowed to reckon towards increase of half or retired pay, in the proportion of one year for every two served in that capacity. In the case of Captains, twelve years served in such Civil capacity will entitle an officer to rise to the higher rates of retired pay of Vice-Admiral and Admiral respectively.
