TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1866.

WINDSOR CASTLE, April 9, 1866.

THIS day the following Address from the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of New Windsor, was handed by the Mayor to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the loyal and ancient borough of New Windsor, have ventured to approach your Majesty for the purpose of expressing our heartfelt sorrow at the loss your Majesty has sustained by the lamented decease of Leopold, King of the Belgians, who was connected with your Royal House by so many ties of kindred and friendship.

We cannot but feel that by the death of King Leopold your Majesty has lost a wise, experienced, and faithful counsellor, your people a friend who was always deeply interested in their welfare and happiness, and the world a Sovereign who by his wisdom, sagacity, and singleness of purpose, secured universal confidence, and became the great arbitrator and peacemaker between contending Nations.

We humbly pray that your Majesty may in all your losses and trials be sustained and comforted by the Divine favour.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, at a Meeting of the Council thereof, held on the 22d day of December 1865.

JOHN JONES, Mayor.

At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of March 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 25th year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to enable Her Majesty to issue Commissions to the Officers of Her Majesty's Land Forces and Royal Marines, and to Adjutants and Quartermasters of the Militia and Volunteer Forces, without affixing Her Royal sign-manual thereto," after setting forth therein that every officer appointed or promoted by Her Majesty in Her Land Forces or Marines, and every Adjutant or Quartermaster in Her Militia or Volunteer Forces, receives a Commission from Her Majesty with Her Royal sign-manual thereon, and that it was expedient to regulate from time to time the mode of authenticating the said Commissions granted by Her Majesty, it was enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, as occasion might require, to direct that all or any Commissions for officers prepared or to be prepared under the authority of Her Majesty's Royal sign-manual might be afterwards issued without Her Royal sign-manual, but having thereon, in the case of Her Majesty's Land Forces, except as thereafter mentioned, the signatures of the Commander-in-Chief or the General Commanding-in-Chief, and of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and in the case of the Royal Marines, of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty; and in the case of Military Chaplains, Commissariat and Store Officers, and of Adjutants and Quartermasters in the Militia and Volunteer Forces, of one of Her Majesty's said Principal Secretaries; and that every such Commission issued and signed in pursuance of such Order in Council should be conclusive evidence that the officer named in any such Commission had been appointed or promoted by Her Majesty to the rank or office named therein:

And whereas by an Order in Council bearing date the seventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, directions were given as to the issuing and signing of certain Commissions, being other Commissions than such as are mentioned and referred to in this present Order:

And whereas Her Majesty hath declared Her will and pleasure that any first Commissions which, at the date of this Order, have been authorised under Her Majesty's Royal sign-manual, but have not been signed by Her Majesty, shall be issued and signed under the provisions of this Order:

Now, therefore, in further pursuance of the above-recited Act, and in execution of the power thereby in Her Majesty in Council vested, Her Majesty is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and doth hereby order—

1. That where, prior to the date of this Order, any person has been first appointed to an office in Her Majesty's Land Forces or Marines under Majesty's Royal sign-manual, but no Commission has been issued to him signed by Her Majesty, then that a Commission shall be issued to every such person so appointed as aforesaid, signed in manner following, that is to say:—in any case of first appointment to Her Majesty's Land Forces (except as in this clause after-mentioned) by the Commander-in-Chief, or the Field-Marshal, or General Commanding-in-Chief, and by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in any case of first appointment to the Royal Marines, by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Admiralty, and in any case of first appointment as Military Chaplain, or Commissariat or Store Officer, by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

2. That this Order shall not prejudice or affect the said recited Order, nor shall this Order, or anything contained therein, be construed to prevent Her Majesty from signing any Commission, or to prevent any Commission so signed from having the same validity and effect as if this Order had not been made.

And the Right Honourable the Marquis of Hartington, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ARTHUR HELPS.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of April 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the session of Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty now hath, or may at any time hereafter have, within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory:

And whereas Her Majesty hath power and jurisdiction in the islands included between the different branches of the River Danube, at its mouth, and forming, and commonly designated as the Delta of the Danube, which by the Treaty between Her Majesty, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Austria, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, His Majesty the King of Prussia, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, His Majesty the King of Sardinia, and His Imperial Majesty the Sultan, signed at Paris on the nineteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, were replaced under the immediate sovereignty of the Sublime Ottoman Porte:

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the efficient exercise of the said power and jurisdiction, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, in like manner as the same have been customarily and of right exercised on behalf of Her Majesty by Her Majesty's Ambassadors, Ministers, Consuls, and other officers within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte:

And whereas by the fifteenth Article of the General Treaty of Peace between Her Majesty, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Austria, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of the French, His late Majesty the King of Prussia, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, His Majesty the King of Sardinia, and His Imperial Majesty the Sultan, signed at Paris on the thirtieth day of March one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, it was provided as follows: "The Act of the Congress of Vienna having established the principles intended to regulate the navigation of rivers which separate or traverse different States, the Contracting Powers stipulate among themselves that those principles shall in future be equally applied to the Danube and its mouths. They declare that this arrangement henceforth forms a part of the public law of Europe, and take it under their guarantee."

"The navigation of the Danube cannot be subjected to any impediment or charge not expressly provided for by the stipulations contained in the following Articles; in consequence, there shall not be levied any toll founded solely upon the fact of the navigation of the river, nor any duty upon the goods which may be on board of vessels. The regulations of police and of quarantine to be established for the safety of the States separated or traversed by that river shall be so framed as to facilitate as much as possible the passage of vessels. With the exception of such regulations, no obstacle whatever shall be opposed to free navigation."

And whereas by the sixteenth Article of the said last-mentioned Treaty, it was further provided as follows:—"With the view of carrying out the arrangements of the preceding Article, a Commission, in which Great Britain, Austria, France, Prussia, Russia, Sardinia, and Turkey, shall each be represented by one Delegate, shall be charged to designate, and to cause to be executed the works necessary below Isatcha to clear the mouths of the Danube, as well as the neighbouring parts of the sea, from the sands and other impediments which obstruct them, in order to put that part of the river and the said parts of the sea, in the best possible state for navigation:"

"In order to cover the expenses of such works, as well as of the establishments intended to secure and to facilitate the navigation at the mouths of the Danube, fixed duties of a suitable rate settled by the Commission by a majority of votes may be levied, on the express condition that in this respect, as in every other, the flags of all Nations shall be treated on the footing of perfect equality:"

And whereas, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, by virtue of the said Articles of the said last-mentioned Treaty, a Commission was accordingly established for the purposes therein mentioned:

And whereas the said Commission has from time to time made and promulgated certain Rules, Orders, and Regulations, as well concerning the navigation of the said River Danube, and the conduct and government of masters, seamen, and others navigating the same, as concerning the payment of duties to be levied and taken in respect of the navigation of the said river, and the enforcing of penalties for the breach of such Rules, Orders, and Regulations respectively, or any of them:

And whereas by two several Orders in Council bearing date respectively the sixth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and the twenty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, was pleased to order that all Rules, Orders, and Regulations, so made and to be made, as therein respectively mentioned, by the said Commission, should be binding and in force, and should have the force and effect of law, upon and against all British subjects and other persons subject to the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents, within the dominions of the Ottoman Porte; and such Orders were afterwards amended by a subsequent Order bearing date the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four:

And whereas, under and by virtue of further and special powers and authorities for that purpose granted by Her Majesty, and by His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Austria, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of the French, His Majesty the King of Italy, His Majesty the King of Prussia, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, and His Imperial Majesty the Sultan, the several persons constituting the said Commission being duly nominated Plenipotentiaries for the purpose, by a Public Instrument bearing date at Galatz the second day of November one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, entitled "Public Act relative to the Navigation of the mouths of the Danube," did amend, consolidate, and of new promulgate and confirm (as so amended and consolidated) the several Regulations and Tariffs previously promulgated by the said Commission, the same being set forth and contained or referred to in the said Public Act, and in certain Annexes thereto:

And whereas at a meeting of the several Ministers, Plenipotentiaries of the several Powers aforesaid, in Conference assembled, at Paris on the 28th day of March 1866, a Protocol in writing was duly signed and agreed to, whereby the assent and sanction of all the said several Powers to the said Public Act, and the Annexes thereto, were expressed and recorded, subject to certain amendments of some of the Regulations contained in the said Annexes, which amendments are in the said Protocol at large set forth:

And whereas it is expedient that power should be given to Her Majesty's Consuls-General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents, exercising jurisdiction over British subjects within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, to enforce the provisions of the aforesaid Public Act relative to the navigation of the mouths of the Danube, and of its Annexes, as the same are amended by the said Protocol.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above-recited Act of Parliament, and in execution of the powers thereby vested in Her Majesty in Council, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared as follows:—

1. The said Orders of the sixth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, twenty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, shall from henceforth be repealed. This repeal shall not affect the past operation of these Orders, or anything done under them, neither shall it affect a certain other Order of the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, for the regulation of Consular jurisdiction in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

2. All Rules, Orders, and Regulations contained in the aforesaid instrument, entitled "Public Act for the navigation of the mouths of the Danube," and its Annexes, as amended, and (subject to such amendment thereof,) confirmed by the said Protocol of the 28th day of March 1866, and all the several amendments thereof set forth in the said Protocol, shall, from and after the date of these presents, be binding and in force, and shall have the force of law upon and against all British subjects and other persons subject to the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Consuls-General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

3. For all the purposes mentioned in the said Public Act and its Annexes, as so amended as aforesaid, and in the said Protocol respectively, and for the purpose of enforcing, so far as Her Majesty's subjects and such other persons as aforesaid are concerned, the provisions of the said Public Act and its Annexes, as so amended as aforesaid, and of the said Protocol, the said Consuls-General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents of Her Majesty within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, shall, from and after the date of these presents, have, possess, and enjoy all and every the powers, jurisdiction, authorities, rights, privileges, and immunities which, in and by a certain Order in Council bearing date the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, are vested in, or belong to, or are exercisable by, the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court of Constantinople, within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte. And all the clauses, articles, and provisions of the said Order in Council, so far as the same respectively are now in force and unrepealed, and so far as the same, or any of them, are applicable to the purposes mentioned in the said Public Act and its Annexes, as so amended as aforesaid, and in the said Protocol respectively, or any of them, shall apply and extend to the said Consuls-General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents of Her Majesty, and to all acts, matters, and things whatsoever done by, to, or in respect of them, the said Consuls-General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents respectively, under or by virtue of these presents.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
