FRIDAY, MAY 11, 1866.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 7th day of May 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

- Lord President.
- Lord Privy Seal.
- Duke of Somerset.
- Sir George Grey, Bart.
- Sir Thomas Fremantle, Bart.
- Mr Milner Gibson.
- Mr Villiers.
- Mr Bruce.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to make such Order as they shall see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases, with respect to any vessel arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper may have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such vessel shall not have come from any place from which His Majesty, His heirs and successors, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, may have adjudged and declared it probable that the Plague, or any such infectious disease or distemper may be brought, and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, and merchandize, and other articles as aforesaid, on board the same; and in case of any infectious disease or distemper appearing or breaking out in the United Kingdom or the islands aforesaid, to make such Orders and give such direction, in order to cut off all communication between any persons infected with any such disease or distemper, and the rest of His Majesty's subjects, as shall appear to the Lords or others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to be necessary and expedient for that purpose, and likewise to make such Orders as they shall see fit for shortening the time of quarantine to be performed by particular vessels or particular persons, goods, wares, merchandize, or any other articles, or for absolutely or conditionally releasing them, or any of them, from quarantine; and all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any two or more of them, as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as well with respect to the Commander, Master, or other person, having the charge of any vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments to which they may respectively become liable, as any Order or Orders made by His Majesty, His heirs and successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council concerning quarantine, notified by proclamation or published in the London Gazette."

And whereas a certain infectious disease, that is to say, the Asiatic Cholera, is prevalent in certain foreign parts; and whereas it is expedient to cut off all communication between persons on board any vessel infected with that disease and the rest of Her Majesty's subjects:

Now therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the above quoted section of the said Act, the Lords of the Council do order, and it is hereby ordered—

1. That in case of any vessel arriving in any port of the United Kingdom, having such disease on board, no person shall land from such vessel for the space of three clear days after her arrival, without the permission of the Local Authority.

2. The Local Authority shall forthwith cause all persons on board the said vessel to be examined by a physician or surgeon, and shall permit all such persons to land immediately who shall be certified by such physician or surgeon to be free from such disease.

3. All persons certified by such physician or surgeon to be affected with symptoms of such disease shall be removed, if their condition admits of it, to some hospital or place to be designated for such purpose by the Local Authority; and no person so removed shall quit such hospital or place until some physician or surgeon shall have certified that such person is free from the said disease.

4. In the event of any death from Cholera taking place on board of such vessel, the body shall be taken out to sea, and committed to the deep, properly loaded, to prevent its rising.

5. The clothing and bedding of all persons who shall have died, or had an attack, of Cholera on board such vessel during her voyage, either at any foreign port, or on shore at such port, or on her passage to the United Kingdom, shall be disinfected, or (if necessary) destroyed, under the direction of an Officer of the Customs.

6. The Local Authority, for the purposes of this Order, shall be the Local Board of Health, where there is such Local Board; and in any Corporation where there is no such Local Board the Local Authority shall be the Town-Council of such Corporation.

7. All persons offending against this Order shall be liable to such penalties as are imposed by the said Act of Parliament upon persons offending against the provisions thereof.

ARTHUR HELPS.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of May 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to contagious or infectious diseases in cattle and other animals," it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to continue, or to renew if expired, all or any of the provisions in the first part of that Act contained, for such time as shall be specified in such Order:

And whereas it is provided in the eleventh section of the said Act, which section is in the first part thereof, that Part I of the said Act shall continue in force until the fifteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and no longer, unless continued or renewed by Order of Her Majesty in Council:

And whereas it is provided in the twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth sections of the first part of the said Act as follows:—

Slaughter of Diseased Animals.

"12. Every Local Authority shall cause all animals affected with the cattle plague within its district to be slaughtered, and shall, by way of compensation for every animal so slaughtered, pay to the owner thereof such sum not exceeding twenty pounds, and not exceeding one-half of the value of the animal immediately before it was affected with the cattle plague, as to such Local Authority may seem fit.

"13. Every Local Authority shall cause every animal that has died of cattle plague, or has been slaughtered in consequence of being affected with cattle plague within its district, to be buried as soon as possible in its skin, in some proper place, and to be covered with a sufficient quantity of quicklime or other disinfectant, and with not less than six feet of earth.

"14. Every Local Authority shall, within its district, cause the yard, shed, stable, field, or other premises in which any animal affected with cattle plague has been kept while affected by the disease, or has died or been slaughtered, to be thoroughly cleansed and disinfected, and all hay, straw, litter, dung, or other articles that have been used in or about any such animal to be burnt or otherwise destroyed; and no fresh animal shall be admitted into any yard, shed, stable, field, or other premises in which any animal affected with cattle plague has been kept while affected by the disease, or has died or been slaughtered, until the expiration of thirty days after the cleansing and disinfecting of such premises, in pursuance of this Act; and every Local Authority shall direct the disinfecting the clothes of, and the use of due precautions by Inspectors, Cattle Overseers, and others in contact with animals affected by the cattle plague, with a view to prevent the spreading of contagion.

"15. A Local Authority may, if it thinks fit, cause to be slaughtered any animal that has been in the same shed or stable, or in the same herd or flock, or in contact with any animal affected with cattle plague within its district; and the owner of any animal so slaughtered may either dispose of the carcase on his own account, with a licence from some officer appointed in that behalf by a Local Authority, or may require the Local Authority to dispose of the same, in which case such Local Authority shall pay to the owner thereof, by way of compensation, such sum, not exceeding twenty-five pounds, as may equal three-fourths of the value of the animal slaughtered: Provided always that the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them, may reserve animals (ordered to be slaughtered as aforesaid) for the purpose of experimental treatment.

"16. The Local Authority may require the value of any animal slaughtered under this Act to be ascertained by Officers of the Local Authority or by arbitration, and generally may impose conditions as to evidence of the slaughter and value of the animals slaughtered: Provided that no compensation shall in any case be paid in respect of any animal found affected with cattle plague in a market or on a highway, or in respect of any animal which has been moved or otherwise dealt with in contravention of this Act, or any Order of a Local Authority made in pursuance thereof."

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the ninth day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the provisions of the above recited sections of the first part of the said Act were continued in force beyond the said fifteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and until the tenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six; and whereas it is considered expedient that the same be further continued:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Her by the said Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said recited provisions contained in the twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth sections of the first part of the said Act shall continue in force on and after the said tenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, until the thirtieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 20.)—AUSTRALIA—EAST COAST.

Leading Lights and Beacons for Newcastle Harbour.

THE Government of New South Wales has given notice that, on and after the 1st day of May 1866, leading lights for entering, and also leading lights for the North Channel, will be exhibited to facilitate the navigation of Newcastle Harbour, New South Wales.

The two fairway lights for entering—red and white—will be shown from beacons 228 feet apart, in a S.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ S. and N.E. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. direction, erected on clear ground on a hill at the back of the town, between two churches.

The lights for the North Channel, also red and white, will be shown from beacons erected on the breakwater in the vicinity of the old Bull beacons, at a distance of about 33 yards apart, in a W. by N. and E. by S. direction.

In both cases, when the lights are in line, the white light will be uppermost. The colour of the beacons will however be the reverse, as it is intended to paint the upper beacons red and the lower ones white.

The lower or north-eastern of the two obelisks at present used for the leading mark, standing on Shepherd Hill, will be removed, and also the remains of the Bull beacons on the breakwater.

These leading lights will not necessitate different sailing directions to those already published, more than the lights and new beacons being substituted for the obelisks and beacons at present in use.

In entering Newcastle harbour at night great caution is necessary, in consequence of the strength of the tide, and due allowance should be made for the ebb or flood, on sighting the North channel lights, when about to alter course from S.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ S. with the fairway lights in line, to W. by N., the course a vessel will have to steer to keep the North channel lights in line for the anchorage in the North harbour.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 21.)—MEDITERRANEAN—GULF OF GENOA.

Fixed Light on St. Margherita Mole.

THE Minister of Marine at Florence has given notice that, on and after the 1st day of January 1866, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on the eastern extremity of St. Margherita Ligure Mole, in the north-west angle of Rapallo Bay, Gulf of Genoa.

The light is a fixed white light, at an elevation of 35 feet above the mean level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of about 10 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses.

The position of the tower is given in lat. $44^{\circ} 19' 40''$ N., long. $9^{\circ} 12' 41''$ East of Greenwich.

By Command of their Lordships,
GEO. HENRY RICHARDS, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Mediterranean Sea, Nos. 2158, 2718b; and Italy, West Coast, Sheet 1, No. 154.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 22.)—BALTIC—EAST COAST OF SWEDEN.

Light Vessel on Utgrunden, Kalmar Sund.

THE Royal Administration of Maritime Affairs at Stockholm has given notice that, on and after the 12th day of April 1866, a light vessel would be placed to mark the shoal called Utgrunden or Ut Grund, in the southern part of Kalmar Sund, east coast of Sweden.

The vessel will exhibit two fixed white lights, at an elevation of 26 feet above the level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 8 miles.

The vessel is painted red, with the words Utgrund in large white letters on her sides, has two masts, carries a red ball at each masthead, and lies about 4 cables S. W. of the southern spit of Utgrund, in lat. 56° 19' 7" N., long. 16° 16' 8" East of Greenwich. A bell is sounded in foggy weather.

She will be placed in her position every year as soon as all danger from ice has ceased, and will be removed when the state of the season no longer admits of her remaining.

COAST OF PRUSSIA.

Fixed Light at Colbergmünde.

INFORMATION has been received at the Admiralty, that on and after the 1st day of April 1866, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected at the entrance to the port of Colbergmünde, coast of Prussia.

The light is a faced white light, at an elevation of 25 feet above the mean level of the sea, and in clear weather should be visible at a distance of 6 or 8 miles.

The lighthouse stands north of the pilot station, which is at the extremity of the east mole of the port, and its approximate position is given in lat. 54° 11' 20" N., long. 15° 33' 34" East of Greenwich.
