Perth, 24th August 1866.

And the Sheriff having now extended the Boundaries of the said Burgh, annexes the Districts within the extended Boundaries to the existing Wards into which the said Burgh is at present divided, and fixes and re-arranges the said Wards as follows, vizt. :—The FIRST WARD to consist of the territory lying within a line commencing at the River Tay at the east end of the High Street, and proceeding along that Street westward to the High Street Port, and from thence proceeding southward and eastward by South Methven Street, the South Crescent, and Canal Street, to the River Tay, at the east end of Canal Street, and from thence northward by the River Tay to the first-mentioned place at the east end of the High Street: The SECOND WARD to consist of the territory lying within a line commencing at the east end of Canal Street, and proceeding along that Street, the South Crescent, and South Methven Street, westward and northward to the High Street Port, from thence along the High Street westward to the north end of the New Row, from thence along the New Row southward to County Place, from thence along York Place and the Glasgow Road, westward to the Toll Bar at the Powder Magazine, from thence along the southern boundary of the Extended Royalty to the Friar-ton Pier and Friar-ton Island, and from thence northward to the south side of the Railway Bridge, from thence along the south side of the Railway Bridge westward to the Mainland, from thence along the river northward to the place first-mentioned at the east end of Canal Street: The THIRD WARD to consist of the territory lying within a line commencing at the River Tay at the east end of the High Street, and proceeding along that street westward to the end of the Old Guard Vennel, from thence proceeding along the Old Guard Vennel to the north end thereof, from thence proceeding westward to the south end of Curfew Row, from thence proceeding along Curfew Row and North Port northward to the west end of Charlotte Street, from thence proceeding along Charlotte Street to the west end of the Perth Bridge on the River Tay, and from thence southward to the place first above-mentioned at the east end of the High Street,—and also of all the territory within the Extended Royalty lying on the east side of the River Tay: And the FOURTH WARD to consist of the territory lying within a line commencing at the west end of the Bridge on the River Tay and proceeding along Charlotte Street westward to the north end of the North Port Street, from thence proceeding southward along the North Port and Curfew Row to Mill Street, from thence along Mill Street eastward to the north end of the Old Guard Vennel, from thence southward along the Old Guard Vennel to the south end thereof, from thence along the High Street westward to the north end of the New Row, from thence along the New Row southward to County Place, from thence proceeding westward along York Place and the Glasgow Road to the Toll Bar at the Powder Magazine, from thence proceeding northward along the line of the Extended Boundary till it reaches the point at the northern Boundary of the Burgh on the right bank of the River Tay, and from thence proceeding southward along the River Tay to the Bridge over the Tay,—and also of all the territory, being Royalty and within the Parliamentary Boundaries of the Burgh, not included in any of the other Wards: Declaring that the Boundaries of the said Wards shall be understood to run along the middle of the streets, roads, and river by which they are described to be bounded, except where the contrary is particularly mentioned,—the said Wards are laid down and delineated on the Plan docketted and signed by the Sheriff as relative hereto; and the Sheriff declares the number of Councillors to be elected for each Ward to remain as at present, vizt., seven for the First Ward, and six for each of the Second, Third, and Fourth Wards, and the order of their election to remain as at present: And the Sheriff directs that his Deliverance on the Petition be published as a Notice once in the Edinburgh Gazette, and once in each of the next two successive weeks in the three Newspapers published in the said Burgh,—all in terms of "The General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862," and "The General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Supplemental Act, 1865."
