PRISON OF ELGIN.

The Right Honorable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, and Principal Secretary of State, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS the PRISON of ELGIN, in the County of Elgin, has recently, with the consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, been altered and enlarged, in so far that the same contains within the boundary wall thereof eighteen Cells for Criminal Prisoners, three Cells for Debtors, Airing Yards for Male and Female Prisoners, a house for the Governor, an office, a bath room, a furnace room, and store rooms.

In virtue of the powers contained in the Prisons (Scotland) Administration Act, 1860, I do hereby Order and Intimate that the said Prison of Elgin, as so altered and enlarged, shall, on and after the 1st day of January next, be a Legal Prison for the detention of all descriptions of Civil and Criminal Prisoners.

Given under my hand and seal, at Whitehall, the 7th day of December 1866, in the thirtieth year of Her Majesty's Reign.

S. H. WALPOLE.

WINDSOR CASTLE, December 8, 1866.

This day had audience of Her Majesty:—

The Baron de Blome, Envoy Extraordinary Minister from the King of Hanover, to deliver his Letter of Recall.

To which audience he was introduced by Lord Stanley, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

WHITEHALL, November 29, 1866.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Frederick John Skoulding, of Gilston Cottage, in the parish of Gilston, in the county of Hertford, Gentleman, Her Royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of his maternal grandfather Samuel Cann, late of Wymondham, in the county of Norfolk, Gentleman, deceased, take and henceforth use the surname of Cann in addition to and after that of Skoulding, and bear the arms of Cann quarterly with those of Skoulding; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms and recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise Her Majesty's Royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of Postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of Foreign or Colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid; and it is provided that the power thereby given should extend to any increase, or reduction, or remission of postage.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office."

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas it is expedient to reduce the rates of postage now payable upon certain letters and newspapers transmitted by the post between Foreign ports in the West Indies, and from and to such Foreign ports, and certain ports in North and South America, to the extent and in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, and every of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. On every letter transmitted by British packet-boat, or partly by British and partly by Foreign packet-boat, from the United States of North America to any Foreign port in the West Indies, or from any one Foreign port in the West Indies to any other Foreign port in the West Indies, or via Panama from any Foreign port in the West Indies to California, the western coast of Mexico, or any port in Central America, without in any of such cases passing through the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and taken the several rates of British postage following; that is to say:—

On every such letter, if not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, a rate of postage of fourpence;

And on every such letter, if exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken the several further, and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

2. On every letter transmitted by British packet-boat via Panama from any Foreign port in the West Indies to any port in Chili, Peru, Bolivia, or Ecuador, or from any port in Chili, Bolivia, or Ecuador, to any Foreign port in the West Indies, there shall be charged and taken the several rates of British postage following; that is to say:—

On every such letter, if not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, a rate of postage of one shilling and fourpence;

And on every such letter, if exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken the several further, and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

3. On every letter transmitted by British packet-boat, or partly by British and partly by Foreign packet-boat, via Panama, from any Foreign port in the West Indies to British Columbia, Vancouver's Island, or the Sandwich Islands, there shall be charged and taken the several rates of postage (British and Foreign combined), following; that is to say:—

On every such letter, if not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, a rate of postage of one shilling and twopence;

And on every such letter, if exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken the several further, and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

4. All such respective letters so transmitted hereinbefore in the first, second, and third clauses of this Warrant respectively mentioned, if exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, shall be subject to the several further, and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

On every such letter, if exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage;

And on every such letter, if exceeding one ounce and not exceeding one ounce and one half of another ounce in weight, three rates of postage;

And on every such letter, if exceeding one ounce and one half of another ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

And for every additional half of an ounce in weight of any letter so transmitted respectively as aforesaid, above the weight of two ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage; and every fractional part of such additional half of an ounce in weight shall be charged as an additional half of an ounce in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight.

5. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by or under the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, or by or under any other Act of Parliament relating to the Post-Office, or any of the privileges which officers, seamen, and soldiers, employed in Her Majesty's service, are by law entitled to, of sending and receiving letters by the post, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

6. On every packet consisting of a printed newspaper, transmitted by British packet-boat, or partly by British and partly by Foreign packet-boat, from the United States of North America to any Foreign port in the West Indies, or from any one Foreign port in the West Indies to any other Foreign port in the West Indies, without in any case passing through the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and taken the several rates of British postage following; that is to say:—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, a rate of postage of one penny;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken the several further, and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

7. On every packet consisting of a printed newspaper, transmitted by British packet-boat, or partly by British and partly by Foreign packet-boat, viâ Panama, from any Foreign port in the West Indies, to California, the Western Coast of Mexico, or any port in Central America, Chili, Peru, Bolivia, or Ecuador, or viâ Panama from any port in Chili, Peru, Bolivia, or Ecuador to any Foreign port in the West Indies, there shall be charged and taken the several rates of postage (British and Foreign combined) following; that is to say:—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, a rate of postage of three-pence;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken the several further, and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

8. On every packet consisting of a printed newspaper, transmitted by British packet-boat, or partly by British and partly by Foreign packet-boat, via Panama, from any Foreign port in the West Indies to British Colombia, Vancouver's Island, or the Sandwich Islands, there shall be charged and taken the several rates of postage (British and Foreign combined) following; that is to say:—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, a rate of postage of four-pence;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken the several further, and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

9. All such respective packets as hereinbefore in the 6th, 7th, and 8th clauses of this Warrant respectively mentioned, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several further, and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, two rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces and not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, three rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding twelve ounces and not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

And for every additional four ounces in weight, of any such packet, above the weight of sixteen ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid one additional rate of postage, and every fractional part of such additional four ounces in weight shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

10. For the purposes of this Warrant every printed newspaper transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and distinct single rate of postage, or separate and distinct progressive and additional rates of postage according to the weight thereof, as hereinbefore mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers, and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

11. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the 6th, 7th, and 8th clauses of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with, and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained; that is to say:—

Every such packet shall be sent without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides;

No such packet shall contain any written letter, or any communication in the nature of a letter, closed or open, nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any communication of the nature of a letter written in or upon any such packet or the cover thereof;

No such packet, which in length shall exceed two feet (British), or in breadth or depth one foot (British), shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, unless under the special authority of the Postmaster-General;

There shall be no word or communication printed on any newspaper after the publication thereof, or upon any cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon any such newspaper, or upon any cover thereof, other than and except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent, but the name or title of such newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, newsvendor, or agent by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof;

There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any newspaper.

12. The postage of every letter and packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

13. If any letter or packet be posted, or be transmitted by the post, under this Warrant, which shall be otherwise than in conformity with the conditions and regulations hereinbefore published in relation thereto, the same shall and may be detained and opened, and shall be returned or given up to the sender thereof.

14. The several rates of postage chargeable on letters and printed newspapers transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of postage now chargeable by law thereon.

15. The term "weight," used in this Warrant, shall mean British weight; and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

16. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions, in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

17. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

Whitehall, Treasury - Chambers, the first day of December one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No 73.)—ENGLAND.—SOUTH COAST,

Knolls on the Outer Bar of Portsmouth Harbour, and Alteration of Leading Marks.

Notice is hereby given, that a knoll has been recently found on the outer bar of Portsmouth harbour, composed of loose shingle or ballast, with 18 feet on it at low water springs.

A can buoy has been placed on the western edge of this knoll; chequered black and white, and lies 19 feet water, with Southsea Castle lighthouse bearing N. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. rather more than half a mile, and the Split beacon buoy N.W. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. one sixth of a mile.

A similar knoll, of 22 feet, has also been found S.W. $\frac{3}{4}$ S., $1\frac{1}{2}$ cable lengths from the above, in the line of the present leading mark into Portsmouth Harbour, viz. —the outer Swashway beacon in a line with Fitzclarence Monument: To avoid this knoll keep the Fitzclarence Monument just open to the eastward of the Coastguard flagstaff on Southsea beach.

An additional black buoy (No. 2) has been placed on the eastern side of the Elbow spit, N. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., $1\frac{1}{2}$ cable lengths from No. 1 black buoy, and with the Swashway beacons in a line; the other black buoys in the Channel have been consecutively numbered 3, 4, and 5.

Since the late dredging operations the deepest water over the bar has been found 50 feet to the westward of the former fairway course, and the bar marks have been altered accordingly, viz. —a red beacon has been erected in the western angle of Blockhouse Fort, and the red beacon in Gosport Fort has been moved 50 feet to the westward, and painted black.

Sailing Directions.—A vessel entering Portsmouth Harbour from the southward,—keep the Fitzclarence Monument just open to the eastward of the Coastguard flagstaff until the red beacon is Blockhouse Fort (appearing over a black patch with a white border on the wall below,) comes in one with the black beacon in Gosport Fort; with this mark on, proceed over the bar between the black and white buoys until the high-water mark of Blockhouse point is on with the bakery chimney of the Royal Clarence Victualling Yard; steer on this mark, and when the Spur redoubt comes in line with the King's bastion flagstaff the course will be up the centre of the harbour.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—England, South Coast, Owers to Christchurch, &c., No. 2045.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 74.)—BALTIC ENTRANCE—WEST COAST OF SWEDEN.

Light Vessel on the Svinbadarne Shoal, &c.

The Royal Administration of Maritime Affairs at Stockholm has given notice that a light vessel has been placed to mark the shoals of Svinbadarne, Jungnasbaden, &c., in the northern part of the Sound, on the west coast of Sweden.

The vessel will exhibit two fixed red lights, at an elevation of 26 feet above the level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 6 miles.

The vessel is painted red, with the word Svinbadan in white letters on her sides; has two masts, with a red ball at each masthead; and lies with Kullen lighthouse bearing north, and Nackle Head west light W. by S. $\frac{1}{4}$ S., in lat. $56^{\circ} 10\frac{1}{2}'$ N., long. $12^{\circ} 30\frac{1}{2}'$ East of Greenwich. A bell is sounded in foggy weather at short intervals, three strokes in quick succession each time.
