WHITEHALL, December 8, 1866.

THE Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that upon the decease of John Francis Miller, late Earl of Mar and Earl of Kellie, of that part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, without issue, on the 19th day of June last, the title and dignity of Earl of Kellie devolved upon his cousin and heir-male Walter Coningsby, now Earl of Kellie, as eldest surviving son and heir of Henry David Erskine, Esq., commonly called the Honourable Henry David Erskine, the third, but eventually second, surviving son of John Francis, Earl of Mar, and next brother to John Thomas, Earl of Mar, the father of the said John Francis Miller, late Earl of Mar and Earl of Kellie, and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brother and sister of the said Walter Coningsby, now Earl of Kellie, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their said father had survived his nephew, the said John Francis Miller, late Earl of Mar and Earl of Kellie, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Kellie, Her Majesty hath been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that James Augustus Erskine, Esq., and Anne Caroline, the wife of Joseph Haskoll, Clerk, Master of Arts, Rector of East Barkwith, in the city of Lincoln, the only surviving brother and of the said Walter Coningsby, now Earl of Kellie, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their said father had survived his nephew, the said John Francis Miller, late Earl of Mar and Earl of Kellie, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Kellie :

Her Majesty hath been further pleased to command that the said Royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.
