TUESDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1866.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th day of December 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Viscount Cranborne.
Mr Secretary Walpole.
Mr Corry.
Mr Hammond.
Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, it was amongst other things enacted "That it should and might be lawful for His Majesty, His heirs and successors, by His or their Order in Council, or for the Lords or others of His or their Privy Council, or any two or more of them, by their Order from time to time, as often as they might see reason to apprehend that the yellow fever or other highly infectious distemper prevailed on the Continent of America or in the West Indies, to require that every vessel coming from or having touched at any port or place on the Continent of America or in the West Indies, should come to an anchor at certain places to be appointed from time to time, by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs (who were thereby authorized to make such appointment), for the purpose of having the state of health of the crew of such vessel ascertained before such vessel should be permitted to enter the port whereto she should be bound, or any other port of the United Kingdom; but that such vessel should not be deemed liable to quarantine unless it should be afterwards specially ordered under that restraint;"

And whereas there is reason to apprehend that the yellow fever prevails at St Thomas's, in the West Indies, and it is expedient to put into operation the above-recited provision of the said Act:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council do hereby order and direct that every vessel coming from, or having touched at, the Port of St Thomas aforesaid, shall come to an anchor at such place or places as may from time to time be appointed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, for the purpose of having the state of the health of the crew of such vessel ascertained before such vessel shall be permitted to enter the port whereto she shall be bound, or any other port of the United Kingdom, and shall remain at such place or places until the state of health of such crew shall have been ascertained, pursuant to the said recited provision, and thereafter to be subject to such lawful direction as may be made in that behalf by or under the direction of the said Lords.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

EDMUND HARRISON.

FOREIGN OFFICE, December 18, 1866.

REGIMENTAL DEBTS ACT, 1863.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department holds in his hands for distribution amongst the next of kin of each of the deceased Soldiers named in the list hereunder written, the sum of money set opposite to each name.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to the "Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not quote the War Office number from the first column of the list, and which does not state the dates and places of the Soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, also the name of his Regiment, and his regimental number.

Should not these particulars, furnished by the applicant, agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased Soldier, no notice will be taken of the application; but should they agree therewith, then, after the expiration of three calendar months, the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of his relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the Churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace. The applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will, from time to time, be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the Notice in which the deceased Soldier's name appeared.

Dated this 20th day of November 1866.

By Order of the said Principal Secretary,

EDWARD LUGARD.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.
