

The Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1867.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 28th day of December 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Principal Secretaries of State that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County in Scotland, under certain provisions of the said Act, has been received by him, in pursuance thereof to order that no new Burial Ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State; or, as the case may require, that after a time mentioned in such Order, burials within certain limits, or in certain Burial Grounds or places of Burial shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications as mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act: Provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such Burial Ground is situate, and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within the Parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered:

And whereas the Right Honorable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the said Act, made a representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute of the County of Ayr, finding that the Old Burial Ground of the Parish of LARGS is dangerous to health, and offensive and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said representation it is recommended that Burials be forthwith discontinued, except in the Brisbane Vault, in the said Burial Ground:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of the Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed as required by the said Act.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to Order, and it is hereby ordered that from and after the 10th day of January 1867, Burials be Discontinued, except in the Brisbane Vault, in the said Old Burial Ground of the Parish of Largs.

EDMUND HARRISON.
