

And whereas the Right Honorable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the said Act, made a representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute of the County of Fife, finding that the Old Churchyard of the Parish of WEMYSS is dangerous to health, and offensive and contrary to decency :

And whereas in the said representation it is recommended that Burials be forthwith discontinued in the said Churchyard, except for the Burial of Husbands beside their deceased Wives, and of Wives beside their deceased Husbands, already interred in the said Old Burial Ground :

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of the Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed as required by the said Act.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that from and after the 10th day of January 1867, Burials be Discontinued in the said Old Churchyard of the Parish of Wemyss, except for the Burial of Husbands beside their deceased Wives, and of Wives beside their deceased Husbands, already interred in the said Old Burial Ground.

FOREIGN OFFICE, January 8, 1867.

(No. 3, General.)

The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Vienna, the Order, of which the following is a translation, issued by the Austrian Government :—

(TRANSLATION.)

ORDER of the Austrian Foreign Finance and Commercial Departments, dated 20th December 1866, respecting the Customs' treatment of British, Italian, and French productions, which is to come into operation on the 1st of January 1867, and to take effect in all the countries of the General Austrian Customs' Jurisdiction.

IN pursuance of the Treaty of Commerce between Austria and Great Britain, of 16th December 1865, ("Reichs-gesetz-Blatt" for 1866, No. 2,) of the Treaty of Peace between Austria and Italy of 3d October 1866, ("Reichs-gesetz-Blatt," No. 116,) and of the Treaty of Commerce between Austria and France of 11th December 1866, ("Reichs-gesetz-Blatt," No. 164,) which assume to British, Italian, and French productions the treatment of the most favoured nation, it is ordered—

1. That, from the 1st of January 1867, the Special Tariff A, contained in Annex A to the Commercial and Customs Treaty concluded between Austria and the German Zollverein on the 11th of April 1865, ("Reichs-gesetz-Blatt," No. 22,) is to be applied, in so far as a still more favourable treatment is not conceded by the General Austrian Tariff or by special Ordinances, not only to the productions of the Zollverein countries, but also to those of Great Britain, Italy, and France, let their importation into Austria take place at whatever boundary it may, either by land or water.

The following items of the aforesaid Special Tariff are excepted from this rule, viz., No. 1, letters a and b (grain and pulse, meal and mill-produce) ; No. 2, letters b and c (garden-produce and fruit, prepared) ; No. 4, letters a to g (cattle for draught and slaughter) ; No. 6, letter g (cheese) ; No. 9, letter a (bread, common) ; No. 14, letter a (turpentine and oil of turpentine) ; No. 30, letter b (floor covering and mats of bast, rushes, &c.) ; and No. 36, letter a (ordinary crockery ware) ; the stipulations in regard to these items are still restricted to the traffic from the Zollverein over the boundaries between Austria and the Zollverein countries.

2. That to establish the claim to the favourable treatment, it is requisite that the British, Italian, or French origin of the goods be stated in both copies of the Goods Declaration, which is to be produced at the Custom-house.

In the event of any doubt arising as to the correctness of this statement, the origin of the goods is to be proved by a certificate, which may be given by the local authority or the proper Custom-house in the country whence the goods come, or by an Austrian Consular functionary there, or by the production of the bill of lading.

The aforesaid certificate of origin is only to be demanded when the question is as to the Customs treatment of cloth and woven goods, beverages and spirituous liquors, or glass wares.
