LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, ST JAMES'S PALACE, April 5, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday the 1st of May next, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee at St James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at a Levee except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

FOREIGN OFFICE, April 5, 1867.

Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received the following Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris:—

Earl Cowley to Lord Stanley.

MY LORD, Paris, April 3, 1867.

On receipt of your Lordship's despatch of the 1st instant, I caused inquiries to be made at the Préfecture de Police with reference to the paragraph in the "Moniteur," on the substitution of Documents of Identity for Passports in the case of foreigners visiting the Paris Exhibition, and I am informed that these arrangements are not applicable to British subjects, who in this respect remain upon their former footing whilst in France.

FOREIGN OFFICE, March 28, 1867.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Joseph Hume Burnley, Esq., now Secretary to Her Majesty's Legation at Washington, to be Secretary to Her Majesty's Legation at The Hague.

The Queen has also been graciously pleased to appoint Francis Clare Ford, Esq., now Secretary to Her Majesty's Legation at Copenhagen, to be Secretary to Her Majesty's Legation at Washington.

FOREIGN OFFICE, April 3, 1867.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr James Jerrom Pratt as Consul in England, to reside in London, for the Republic of South Africa.

The Queen has also been pleased to approve of Mr J. H. Bandow as Consul at Bassem, Mr F. Gerlach as Consul at Rangoon, and Mr E. P. as Consul at Akyab for His Majesty the Emperor of Austria.
