

- Lewis Harris, of 63, Brill Row, Somers' Town, Middlesex, green grocer.
- William Cousins, of High Wycombe, Bucks, previously of Aldershot, Hants, and previously thereto of Walton-on-Thames, Surrey, fruiterer.
- John Thomas Richards, formerly of 51, Fenchurch Street, London, stationer, and of Devonshire Road, Holloway, then of Church Road, Islington, then of Chesterford Terrace, Stanley Road, Hackney, and now of Goldsmith's Place, Hackney Road, all in Middlesex, out of business.
- John Julian Jackson, of 30, Burlington Road, Bayswater, Middlesex, commission agent, carrying on business under the name of Schopfer, Jackson, & Co., at 9, Cooper's Row, Trinity Square, London, as wine merchants.
- Nathan Charles Hammond, of 83, Gracechurch Street, London, and 16, Mildmay Road, Stoke Newington, Middlesex, shipping, insurance, and general commission agent, trading and known as Charles Hammond.
- Ziba Cox, of Bletchington, Oxford, grocer, baker, and carpenter.
- John Lloyd Jones, late of Brackley, Northampton, clerk in Holy Orders, a prisoner for debt in the County Gaol at Northampton.
- Frederick George Smith, of 36, Howland Street, Fitzroy Square, of no occupation, previously of 136, Southgate Road, Islington, both in Middlesex, and of 146, Fenchurch Street, London, in partnership with Joseph Samuel Cater, as public accountants, previously of 3, Finsbury Pavement, London, director of the Clerks' Mutual Clothing Company (Limited), formerly a commercial clerk, and formerly of Brisbane, Australia, farmer, a prisoner for debt in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, (in form pauperis).
- James Black, of 6, New North Road, Hoxton, Middlesex, and 12, Warwick Lane, London, meat salesman.
- Stephen Gates, of Crawley, Sussex, builder.
- George Langley, of Bag Lane, Hayes, Middlesex, beer-house keeper.
- Charles Faulkner, of 22A, Woods Mews, Grosvenor Square, Middlesex, formerly cab proprietor, now coachman to a gentleman.
- Edward Palmer, the elder, and Edward Palmer, the younger, of 9, Bartholomew Square, and Great Mitchell Street, Saint Luke's, Middlesex, and of 1, Nettleton Court, Nicholl Square, London, carpenters.
- Samuel Hart, of 2, Irene Villas, Camden Road, and having a workshop at Goldring Street, Calverley Road, both in Tunbridge Wells, Kent, machinist and engineer.
- John Askham, of 238, Walworth Road, Surrey, and of Wheaton Aston, Stafford, of no occupation, late of 5, Middleton Street, Old Bethnal Green Road, Middlesex, officer of excise.
- Thomas Foster, the younger, of Ramsgate, Kent, smack owner and fisherman.
- Charles Sills, of 1, Alexander Mews, Westbourne Park, Bayswater, Middlesex, livery stablekeeper and general dealer, formerly a coach builder and cab proprietor.
- Robert Pearson, of 2, Station Place, West Ham Lane, Stratford, Essex, gasfitter.
- Alfred John Fickling, of 132, Leadenhall Street, London, ship and insurance broker and shipowner, residing at Kirkdale, Sydenham, Kent.
- William Henry Colcock and Charles Milton, of Broadstairs, Kent, millers.
- Edward Jolley, of East Harling, Norfolk, wine and spirit merchant.
- Charles Harrison Goodall, (trading and carrying on business under the name of Charles Goodall,) formerly residing at 76, Herbert Street, New North Road, and 64, Albion Road, and 81, Queen's Road, both in Dalston, and carrying on business at Mount Row Yard, East Road, City Road, all in Middlesex, as a wholesale manufacturer of fancy leather goods.
- George Stephen Tapsell, of Knockholt, Kent, carpenter, builder, and retailer of beer, formerly a brickmaker and general shopkeeper.
- William Southgate Fisher, of 27, Carlisle Street, Portman Market, cab driver, and having stables at 1, Weston Place, Richmond Street, Maida Hill, both in Middlesex, cab proprietor.
- Charles Palmer Webb, of Gravesend, Kent, auctioneer and estate agent.
- Charles Henry Clark, formerly of 10, Patmore Street, Battersea, then of 12, New Road, Garrett Lane, Wandsworth, both in Surrey, plasterer, now out of business.
- James Leach and Henry Hathaway, both of the Phoenix Works, Hatcham, Surrey, paraffin wax refiners.
- Phillip Miller, of Romford, formerly of the Victoria Inn, Victoria Road, Romford, both in Essex, licensed victualler.
- William Henry Samuel, of 16, and late of 30, Joseph Street, Bow Common, Middlesex, builder.
- Jabez Bennington, of Elmswell, Suffolk, grocer, draper, and general dealer.
- Henry Minter, of 7, Mitre Street, New Cut, out of business, previously of 3, Jackson's Gardens, Carlisle Lane, Marsh Gate, and of 189, Railway Arch, Carlisle Lane, all in Lambeth, Surrey, carman.
- Edward Lees, of Catshill, Bromsgrove, Worcester, innkeeper and farmer, and also of Storridge Farm, Hereford, farmer.
- John Martin, of Station Street, dealer in small wares, and of Waterloo Street, both in Burton-on-Trent, Stafford, grocer and provision dealer.
- David Jones, of Aberystwith, Cardigan, innkeeper.
- Thomas Cook, of Northam, Devon, builder.
- Joseph Whiteway Parsons, of Shaldon, Devon, attorney-at-law and solicitor, and late of Tewkesbury, Gloucester, now a prisoner for debt in the Devon County Prison.
- Charles William Blake, of Crewkerne, Somerset, veterinary surgeon and shoeing smith.
- Isaac Solomon, late of Great Grimsby, Lincoln, clothier.
- John Watson, late of Kingston-upon-Hull, cab proprietor.
- Godfrey Barnsley Shaw, late Borough Buildings North, and 5, and 7, Butniford Street, known as Borough Buildings North, Liverpool, Lancaster, cotton broker, trading there under the style or firm of Richard Shaw & Co.
- Ambrose Hartley, of Chesnut Grove, Marsh Lane, Seaforth, near Liverpool, Lancaster, previously of 113, Cathcart Street, Birkenhead, Chester, builder and contractor, and previously of Cootehill, Cavan, Ireland, builder and draper.
- William Ashworth, late of Mere View, Rochdale, Lancaster, agent and share broker, and late a prisoner for debt in Her Majesty's Prison at Lancaster.
- Benjamin Robertshaw, of Burnley, Lancaster, iron and tinplate worker.
- Frederick Bailey Egan, of 11, Mytton Street, Hulme, and of the Queen's Theatre, York Street, both in Manchester, Lancaster, theatrical performer, and manager and theatre proprietor, and of the Alexandra Theatre, Manningham Lane, Bradford, York, in copartnership with Henry Read, otherwise Charles Henry Gros-smith, and William John Wilde, as theatre proprietors.
- Henry James Ledger, of Hulme, Lancaster, builder.
- Gustav Adolph Brandt, of the Sandhill, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, hide and bark merchant, and commission agent, carrying on business under the firm of Brandt & Company, at 33, Saint Cuthbert's Place, Gateshead, Durham.
- Joseph Kesterton, at Short Heath Lane, Erdington, Warwick, carpenter, (in form pauperis).
- William Johnson, late of Stamford Place, Mary Street, Balsall Heath, near Birmingham, Worcester, dealer in iron bedsteads.
- Thomas Owen, at 130, Dymoke Street, journeyman brassfounder, formerly of the Old Rodney Inn, 225, Sherlock Street, both in Birmingham, Worcester, retailer of beer.
- William Brown, at Blaney Street, Moseley Road, King's Norton, Worcester, out of business, and previously of 415, Bristol Road, plumber, glazier, and painter, having a workshop at the back of 88, Hurst Street, Birmingham, Worcester.
- William Ball, at New John Street, journeyman pearl worker, and previously of 210, Aston Road, both in Birmingham, Warwick, green grocer and journeyman pearl worker.
- Susannah Parker Wedgwood, of 12, Byford Street, Wavertree Road, previously of 22, High Street, Netherfield Road North, Everton, both in Liverpool, Lancaster, and formerly of Bengoe, near Hertford, Herts, out of business.
- John Brown, of the Felling Shore, Durham, grocer, provision dealer, and licensed dealer in ale and porter.
- Charles Cole, of Castle Street, Cirencester, Gloucester, baker.
- William Langan, of Sheepwash Lane, Great Bridge, Westbromwich, Stafford, beerhouse keeper and boiler maker.
- Henry Solomon, formerly of Unicorn Street, then of 14, King Street, both at Portsea, and now of 14, Great Charlotte Street, Landport, all in Hants, dealer in rabbit skins, clothing, and general dealer.
- James Veale, of Belle Vue Road, Southampton, hair dresser, perfumer, working watchmaker, and jeweller.
- Benjamin Price, of Upper Gilwern, Dysert, Radnor, farmer and wool buyer.
- John Hewerdine, of Sealford, Leicester, shoeing and jobbing smith.