At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 7th day | of August 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President. Lord Robert Montagu. Mr Wilson Patten.

WHEREAS by an Order bearing date the thirty-first day of August one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, duly issued under the authority of the Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act of the last session of Parliament, the Lords of Her Majesty's Council did, among other things, order that from and after the third day of September one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, it hould not be lawful for any person to remove cattle or other animals from any port or place in England and Wales to any port or place in Scotland :

And whereas provisions have been subsequently made by the Lords of the said Council authorizing the admission, under certain restrictions, of sheep into Scotland, by divers Orders dated respectively the tenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, which related to the movement of rams from the county of Northumberland into Scotland, the second day of October one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, which extended the provisions of such last-named Order to sheep and lambs, the thirtieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, which related to the movement of cattle and other animals from the counties of Northumberland and Cumberland into Scotland, and the fourth day of February one thousand eight hundred and sixtyseven, which related to the movement of cattle and other animals from the county of Westmorland into Scotland :

And whereas it is expedient that the restrictions on the movement of sheep into Scotland from England and Wales should be rescinded :

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council do hereby order as follows :-
