

- Charles Biggs, of New Burlington Mews, Regent Street, Middlesex, job master and livery stable keeper.
- John Lee, late of Three Tun Alley, Goulston Street, Whitechapel, Middlesex, now of Hutchinson's Avenue, Gravel Lane, Houndsditch, London, general dealer.
- Clement Cirille Olivry, (known and sued as C. Olivry,) of 34, Poland Street, Oxford Street, Middlesex, drawing mount cutter and passe partout manufacturer.
- John Allam, of Selbourne, near Alton, Hants, farmer and dealer in cattle.
- George Clarke Brighton, of 4, Auckland Street, Vauxhall Gardens, Vauxhall, out of business, previously of Frogmore House, Frogmore, and Hill's Yard, The Plain, and formerly of 1, Elm Place, Love Lane, all in Wandsworth, and Hill's Yard aforesaid, all in Surrey, builder and contractor.
- John Bingham, late of 36, Parliament Street, Westminster, and 64, Lancaster Gate, Middlesex, and now of 9, Great College Street, Westminster, parliamentary agent.
- Richard Pritchard, (commonly called and known as Richard Jones,) of 17, Mile End Road, Middlesex, medical herbalist, trading in copartnership with William Witchellow, under the style or firm of Jones & Witchellow.
- Thomas Sheen, of 90½, Holborn Hill, London, and of Aylesbury, Bucks, ironfounder and contractor.
- Alphonse Gilet, of 64, Beaumont Square, Stepney, and previously of 57, Saint Peter's Road, Mile End, general commission agent, and formerly of 10, Lucas Street, Commercial Road East, all in Middlesex, grocer and retailer of beer and wines.
- Richard Eales, of Bury Street, Ruialip, Middlesex, hay salesman and retailer of beer.
- Solomon Cohen, of 92, Houndsditch, London, hat and cap manufacturer.
- Alfred Joseph Gannaway, of Osborne Cottage, New Road, Southampton, house, estate, and general agent, rent and debt collector, and coal merchant.
- Joseph Kevitt Jenkins, of High Street, Leyton, Essex, and 47, Monkwell Street, and now in Shaftesbury Hall, Aldersgate Street, also at 26, Castle Street, Falcon Square, all in London, commission agent.
- Rachel Shakespear, of 246, Pentonville Road, Pentonville, Middlesex, milliner, and dealer in fancy goods.
- William Henry Betts, formerly of 68, Leadenhall Street, London, late of 206, City Road, and now of 5, Pentonville Road, all in Middlesex, auctioneer.
- George Hutt, of 25, Walbrook, London, and of 2, Boston Park Road, Brentford, Middlesex, iron merchant and agent.
- Edward Joseph Jones, of Turk's Head Court, Golden Lane, and 4, Wenlock Street, both in Saint Luke's, prior thereto of White's Yard, Whitecross Street, all in Middlesex, packingcase maker.
- Charlotte Podmore, of 3, Silchester Terrace, Notting Hill, out of business, formerly of 169, Queen's Road, Bayswater, both in Middlesex, fruiterer and green grocer.
- Stephen Allard, formerly of Trunch, Norfolk, blacksmith, then of 33, Forston Street, New North Road, and now of Rose Cottage, Provost Street, New North Road, both in Middlesex, a brewer's night watchman.
- Samuel Lowe, formerly of 1, Mark's Cottages, Parker Road, South End, Croydon, butler, but now of 17, South End aforesaid, eatinghouse keeper and butler.
- Sidney Raudnitz, (trading as Raudnitz & Co.,) at 29, Adde Street, Wood Street, London, general merchant.
- Charles Craker, of 24, Forest Road, (late 1, Somerset Place, Forest Row,) Dalston, Middlesex, bootmaker.
- Edwin Joseph Bate, of Wolverhampton Street, Bilston, Stafford, grocer and provision dealer.
- Abraham Rosenthal, of 98, Dale End, and late of 35, Snowhill, both in Birmingham, Warwick, hat manufacturer.
- William Baker, at the Old Navigation Inn, Smethwick, Stafford, out of business, sometime licensed victualler, his brother at sometime carrying on business in his name as a licensed victualler at the Queen's Arms, Queen Street, Wolverhampton, Stafford.
- Thomas Cox Stretton, late of Old Basford, Nottingham, builder, formerly of the same place, lace dresser, and now a prisoner for debt in the Gaol at Nottingham.
- Thomas Day Smith, of Dawlish, Devon, butcher.
- Aaron Robinson and Charles Tomkinson, both of New Wortley, near Leeds, York, bricklayers and builders.
- George Ellis, of Norton Lees, Norton, Derby, farmer.
- John Johnstone, of Haxey, Lincoln, clerk in Holy Orders.
- Frederick Autey, of Crowle, Lincoln, auctioneer and licensed victualler.
- Robert Blayds, of Sandbach, Chester, hosier, and dealer in shoes and fancy goods.
- Christopher Coney, of York Road, Bournemouth, Hants, formerly of Cranborne, Dorset, builder and contractor.
- Ferdinand Duprè, of 54, Rodney Street, Liverpool, and 90, Rusholme Road, Manchester, both in Lancaster, and also of 19A, Brook Street, Grosvenor Square, London.
- Robert Williams, of Rhyll, Flint, builder and bricklayer.
- William Pilling, at Carnarvon Castle Hotel, Oxton, Chester, and previously at the Feather's Hotel, and at the Hen and Chickens Inn, Preston, both in Lancaster, licensed victualler.
- Isaac Stone, formerly of 108, Great Ancoats Street, Manchester, outfitter, afterwards of New York, United States of America, tailor, and now of 57, Travis Street, Manchester, out of business.
- Robert Mellor, of Alma Mills, Broadway Lane, Oldham, Lancaster, cottonspinner.
- Thomas Groves, of Appleby, Westmorland, builder, cabinetmaker, and timber merchant.
- Fedder Johannes Julius Rieber, of Trinity Chare, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and of 4, Bute Crescent, Cardiff, Glamorgan, carrying on business as a merchant, exporter, and ship and insurance agent and broker, and commission agent, under the style or firm of John Rieber.
- Victor Edwin Field, formerly of 9, Queen's Road, Stoke Road, Alverstoke, afterwards of Weymouth Cottage, Bury Road, Alverstoke, and then and now at Seymour Place, Stoke Road, dispensary assistant at the Royal Naval Hospital, Haslar, near Gosport, all in Hants.
- William Saunders, late of Park Street, Windmill Fields, Tonbridge Wells, Kent, and now of 7, Grove Hill Road, Tonbridge Wells aforesaid, boot manufacturer.
- John Wrensted, late of the Kentish Yeoman Inn, Grove Hill Road, Tonbridge Wells, Kent, innkeeper and tobacconist, and now of 1, Magenta Villas, Saint John's Estate, Tonbridge Wells aforesaid, out of business.
- Thomas Cope, of Hartshill, Mancetter, Warwick, publican.
- John Russell, of 17, Coldhurst Street, Oldham, Lancaster, journeyman joiner.
- George Cooke, of Whitchurch, Shropshire, cooper.
- Thomas Griffiths, of Black Mill, Landefodwg, Glamorgan.
- Thomas Packer, of 3, Gratton Terrace, Cheltenham, Gloucester, out of business, and late of Shirenewton, Monmouth, haulier.
- Ben Lawton, now at Delph, within Saddleworth, York, out of business, previously thereto at Delph aforesaid, provision dealer and green grocer.
- Joseph Bacon, at Wrexham Street, Mold, Flint, formerly grease manufacturer, but now out of business, and previously thereto in Wrexham Road, Mold aforesaid.
- Hugh Prichard, of Leeds, York, engraver.
- David Jack, of Neville Street, carrying on business at 11, Silver Street, both in Durham, basket maker, cooper, and general dealer.
- George Sermon, residing at 115, and carrying on business at 99, Liverpool Road, Manchester, veterinary surgeon.
- William Downs, of 23, Butler Street, Oldham Road, Manchester, cotton and cotton waste dealer, late of 27, Rodney Street, Oldham Road, Manchester, cotton waste dealer, and also lately at 11, Copperas Street, Shudehill, Manchester, all in Lancaster, cotton and cotton waste dealer.
- Thomas Shaw, of 72, Oxford Street, Manchester, Lancaster, cutler.
- Walter Spencer, of the Lavenders, West Malling, Kent, fruit grower, commission agent, and clerk to a paper manufacturer.
- John Webb, Junior, of Chew Magna, Somerset, beerhouse keeper, grocer, &c.
- William Lanyon, of Pydar Street, Truro, Cornwall, greener.
- Thomas Smith, of Shotley Bridge, Durham, formerly a grocer and provision merchant, now out of business.
- John Fishburn, of Haswell Moor, pitman and shopkeeper, formerly of Cassop Moor, pitman and grocer, and then of Newfield, pitman, grocer, and innkeeper, and also of New Durham, all in Durham, pitman and innkeeper.
- Abraham Tunmore, at the Town Wall, Hartlepool, Durham, publican.
- Charles Morgan, late of the Wellington Inn, Horfield, Gloucester, licensed victualler and commercial traveller, since then in Passage Street, Bristol, out of business, and now a prisoner for debt in the Gaol at Bristol, (in formâ pauperis).