TO THE CREDITORS OF

GEORGE PROVAND, jun. merchant in Glasgow, as an individual and partner of the concern of GEO. PROVAND, jun. and Co. merchants there:

A RCHIBALD WALLACE, the Trustee, hereby intimates, that he will be in readiness to pay the Creditors a final dividend upon their debts, on the 13th day of February next. If there be any creditors who have not hitherto lodged claims and affidavits, they are requested to do so on or before the 1st day of that month; with certification, that no claims will hereafter be received, nor will any creditors who shall not then have ranked their debts in terms of the statute, be admitted to any share of the dividend. States of the affairs, and of the schemes of ranking and division, lie at the trustee's Counting-house, for the inspection of the creditors.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN McDONALD, Drover and Cattle Dealer in Dalnavellan, in the County of Caithness.

A LEXANDER PATERSON, Merchant in Thurso, the trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said John McDonald, requests a General Meeting of the creditors, within the house of Robert Rylie, vintner in Thurso, upon Saturday the 17th of January next, (being the first lawful day after the expiration of one complete year from the date of the expiration) at 12 o'clock noon, to receive their first dividend; meanwhile states of the bankrupt's affairs lie in the hands of the trustee, for the inspection of the creditors.
Thurso, Dec. 15, 1800.

[Price Sixpence.]

TO CREDITORS.

THAT upon the application of JAMES ALEXANDER, dealer in horses, and farmer at Belfield in the county of Fife, with consent of a creditor to the extent required by law, Lord Dunsinnan, ordinary on the bills, on the 30th ult. sequestrated the whole estate, real and personal of the said James Alexander, and appointed his creditors to meet within the Town House of Kirkcaldy, on Wednesday the 7th of January next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of choosing an interim factor or manager on the estate; and to meet again at the same place at 4 o'clock, on Wednesday the 4th day of February next, for the purpose of choosing a trustee on the same; of all which the present notice is given.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
WALTER M'FARLANE and CO. late Spirit Dealers and Grocers, Nether Bow, Edinburgh.

GEORGE DUNLOP, merchant in Edinburgh, trustee upon their sequestrated estate, hereby intimates, that in terms of the bankrupt act he has made up a second state of their affairs to the 20th inst. which has been approved of by the Commissioners. The funds being so small, they appointed him to postpone making a dividend, and desired him to call a General Meeting of the creditors on Monday the 9th February 1801, being the first lawful day after the expiration of 18 kalendar months from date of sequestration, for giving directions about the state of the outstanding debts, that the trust may be brought to a conclusion. He accordingly requests the whole creditors to attend a General Meeting, in John McKay's, vintner, Grass Market, upon the said 9th February, at 12 o'clock noon; and till then the state of their affairs will lie at the Counting-house of George Dunlop and Co. merchants in Edinburgh, for the inspection of the creditors. Edinburgh, Dec. 31, 1800.

NOTICE.

THE Business carried on by the Subscribers, under the firm of DUNLOP & M'CAUL, Insurance Brokers, is, in consequence of the expiration of their contract, to be discontinued from this date.

JAMES DUNLOP, jun.
JOHN M'CAUL.

Glasgow, Dec. 31, 1800.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
ALEXANDER CHRISTIE, Hosiery and merchant in Perth.

WILLIAM BLAIR, manufacturer in Perth, having been elected trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Alexander Christie, and his nomination confirmed by the Court of Session, has made application to the Sheriff, who has fixed Saturday the 17th day of January, and Monday the 2d day of February next, at 12 o'clock noon of each day, for the public examination of the bankrupt, his family and others concerned with his business, within the Sheriff Court-room of Perth, of which the trustee gives this intimation; and he further intimates, that upon Tuesday the 3d of February next, at 12 o'clock noon, a meeting of the creditors will be held in the house of Robert Christie, vintner, George Inn, Perth, for instructing the trustee as to the management and recovery of the estate; and the trustee requires the creditors to produce in his hands, their claims and vouchers, or grounds of debt, with their oaths on the verity thereof, at or previous to the said meeting, if not already produced; and intimates that unless the said productions are made between and the 20th day of September next, the party neglecting, shall have no share in the first distribution of the debtors estate. Perth, December 30, 1800.

LANDS IN STIRLINGSHIRE,
With Two Small Pieces of GROUND in the Vicinity of the Town of Dunblane; and Several HOUSES in said Town.

To be Sold by judicial sale, under the authority of the Court of Session, within the Parliament or New Session House of Edinburgh, before the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, on Tuesday the 3d March 1801, betwixt the hours of five and seven o'clock afternoon, in the following Lots:

LOT I. THOSE Parts of the Lands of CORN-TOWN, consisting of about 25 Scots acres, lying in the parish of Logie, and shire of Stirling, which belonged to the deceased James Pearson, merchant in Dunblane; one mailling of which is presently possessed by Andrew Kinross, in virtue of a memorandum of agreement betwixt the late James Pearson, the proprietor, and him, for 15 years, from Martinmas 1790, and which accordingly expires at Martinmas 1805, at the yearly rent of L. 28 0 0

Besides the carriage of six carts of coals, estimated at 0 18 0

And the other mailling of said lands, is presently, and has for these many years past been possessed by James Robertson, without any lease, at the yearly rent of 28 0 0

Besides the carriage of six carts of coals, estimated at 0 18 0

Present rent of the above lands, L. 57 16 0

The land tax being paid by the tenants.

But they have lately been proven to be worth of yearly rent L. 68 15 0

There being no right however to the tenants of the lands, a deduction on that account of one-fifth of the above rent is allowed; 13 15 0

Remains gross stock L. 55 0 0

The lands hold of the Crown, for payment of four bolls, two firlots, three pecks wheat; four bolls, two firlots, three pecks bear; and two bolls, two firlots, two pecks oats, and eight shillings and fourpence Scots money, with arriages and carriages used and wont.

The victual feu-duty averaged for seven years past, is yearly L. 13 5 6 1-12

To which add the money feu-duty, and arriages and carriages 0 1 0 6-12

Amount of victual and money feu-duty L. 13 6 6 7-12

There is payable of school-master's salary yearly 0 0 10

13 7 4 7-12

Remains free rent L. 41 12 7 5-12

The value of which, at twenty years purchase, is L. 1124 0 8 3-12

To which there falls to be added the value of purchasing the tenants 62 4 0 8-12

L. 1186 5 4 11-12

And which sum, as fixed by the Court, is to be the upset price of the Lands.

LOT III. These two Boigs or Pieces of Ground, the property of the said deceased James Pearson, lying a little to the north-east of the town of Dunblane, the proven rent of which is 31 10s. Sterling, and the upset price is fixed at 100l. Sterling.

LOT II. These Houses in the said town of Dunblane, and seat in the church thereof, which belonged to the said James Pearson, as the said houses are presently or were lately possessed by William Henderson, Jacobina MacGregor, Robert Keltie, John Dunkieson, John Paterson, William Leechman, Robert Taylor, Catharine Henderson, Alexander Gilfillan, John Adie, John Duncan, Mr Michael Gilfillan, and Mrs Pearson, the proven yearly rent of which is 22l. 10s. and the upset price of the said houses and seat is fixed at 316l. 5s.

The title-deeds and articles of roup, with the memorial and abstract in the process of sale, may be seen in the hands of Mr Alexander Stevenson, Depute Clerk of Session, to whom, or to Robert Hill, W. S. agent in the sale, application may be made for further information.

JUDICIAL SALE OF FEU-DUTIES IN Ayrshire.

To be Sold, by authority of the Court of Session, within the Parliament House, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 4th day of March 1801, between the hours of five and seven afternoon, THE intermediate SUPERIORITY and FEU-DUTIES of the twenty merk land of KERSLAND, and Lands of CAMPBILL and LITTLE BROADLIE, lying in the parish of Dalry; and of the Lands of FULLWOOD-HEAD, BOGSIDE, and HOODS-YARDS, in the parish of Beith, and shire of Ayr; also an AILE or AREA in the Church of Dalry.

RENTAL.

Parcel I.—The free proven Feu-duty payable by the sub-vassals of the twenty merk land of Kersland, after deducting a feu-duty of 2s. 8d. Sterling, payable to the bankrupt's superior, amounts, in Sterling money, to L. 66 5 6 6-12

Parcel II.—The free proven rent of the Aile or Area in the church of Dalry amounts to 4 6 0

Parcel III.—The free proven feu-duty payable by the sub-vassals for the lands of Campbill and Little Broadlie, after deducting the feu-duty of 11. 8d. 10-12ths Sterling, payable to the bankrupt's superiors, amounts to 1 10 11 2-12

Parcel IV.—The free proven feu-duty payable by the sub-vassals for the lands of Fullwood-head, Bogside, and Hoods-yards, after deducting a feu-duty of 12s. 5d. 4-12ths Sterling, payable to the bankrupt's subject superior, amounts to 0 2 2 8-12

VALUE.

PARCEL I.—Is valued at 18 years purchase, being 1192 19 9

But, on account of the entry of singular successors being taxed more than one half of the subvassals charters, while the entry of singular successors with the bankrupt's superior is not taxed, The sum of 620l. as being nearly the difference between the casualties of non-entry presently exigible from the subvassals, and the yearly rent of the property lands, as proved in the process, has been deducted from the above value.—Inde 620 0 0

Leaving for upset price L. 572 19 9

PARCEL II.—Is valued at five years purchase 21 0 0

PARCEL III.—Is only valued at 5l. Sterling, including the bygone feu-duties thereof for crop 1790 and since, in respect it appears that a casualty of entry will be due to the bankrupt's superior, considerably exceeding what is due by the subvassals 5 0 0

PARCEL IV.—For the reasons assigned in Parcel III. no value can be put on this Parcel.

So the total proven value and upset price is L. 699 19 9

It is to be noticed, that the purchaser of Parcel I. will be taken bound to enter with his superior within one year after his purchase.

For further particulars application may be made at the office of Mr Murray, Depute Clerk of Session, or to William Patrick, W. S. Duke Street, Edinburgh.
