

under the 93d section of the said recited Act, shall be taken up by the Clerk of the Lord Ordinary officiating for the time on the Bills on the third lawful day following each Box-day, between the hours of Eleven forenoon and Twelve noon, and shall be printed and published on that day; and the said Rolls shall be disposed of by the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, on the Fifth lawful day after each Box-day, in terms of the said recited Act.

XIV. That in the Daily Rolls the Calling List and Roll of undefended Causes shall precede the other Enrolments.

XV. That the Teind Roll and Calling List of Teind Causes shall be printed and published in the Daily Rolls, instead of being printed separately as at present; and that the preparation and publication of the same shall be under the direction of the Teind Clerk; and that the Interlocutors of the Court of Teinds which are at present signed on Friday after being pronounced on Wednesday, shall hereafter be signed on the Thursday following the day on which they are pronounced.

XVI. That the Keeper of the Inner House Rolls of the First Division, the Senior Assistant-Clerk in the Outer-House, the Clerk of the Senior Lord Ordinary for the time, and the Teind Clerk, shall from time to time fix the price which the Printer shall be authorised to charge for Copies of the Daily Rolls, and separate Calling Lists, and Rolls of undefended Causes above mentioned.

XVII. That the Inner and Outer House Assistant-Clerks shall attend at the Register House, and keep their Offices open for the performance of their official duties during the following hours, viz.:—In time of Session every Sederunt day, except Saturday, from Two till Five afternoon; and on Monday from Eleven forenoon till Three afternoon. In time of Vacation and Recess on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, from Eleven forenoon till One afternoon, except during the week in which a Box-day occurs, and the week immediately following, when attendance shall be given every lawful day, except Saturday, in the last mentioned week, from Eleven forenoon till One afternoon.

XVIII. That all Petitions and Applications, which may, under the Statute 20 & 21 Victoria, c. 56, or under any other Act of Parliament, be brought before a Lord Ordinary, shall be enrolled for an order for Intimation and Service to be pronounced by the Lord Ordinary. But after the period of Intimation and Service in any such Petition or Application has expired, it shall not be necessary to enrol such Petition or Application, when unopposed, before the Lord Ordinary, but the same shall, on the requisition of the agent, be transmitted to the Lord Ordinary, to be disposed of, or for such farther or other procedure as to him shall seem proper. And after a remit shall have been made by the Lord Ordinary to a man of business or man of skill to report, all Motions in such Petition or Application shall be made before the Lord Ordinary, and be enrolled in the Lord Ordinary's Daily Roll, and not in the Roll of continued Motions provided for by Section Thirty-one of the said recited Act.

XIX. All Motions for the Amendment of Summons or other Pleadings in undefended Causes, for Revisal and Adjustment or Amendment of Pleadings, for leave to Reclaim for Transference for Wakening and Transference, and for Decrees by default, shall be made before the Lord Ordinary, and not before the Clerk, and shall be enrolled in the Lord Ordinary's Daily Roll, and not in the Roll of continued Motions provided for by the Thirty-first Section of the said recited Act.

XX. That in order to secure a more equal distribution between the two Principal Clerks of each Division of the Court, of the business that may be brought into the Inner House, all Appeals under the 'Debts Recovery (Scotland) Act, 1867,' and under the said recited Act; and all Causes or other proceedings in the Bill-Chamber which shall be removed by Reclaiming Note or otherwise to the Inner House, shall belong in the First Division to the office now held by Archibald McNeill, Principal Clerk, and in the Second Division to the office now held by Cosmo Innes, Principal Clerk.

And the Lords APPOINT this Act to be inserted in the Books of Sederunt, and to be printed and published in common form.

JOHN INGLIS, I.P.D.

ACT OF SEDERUNT

APPOINTING JUDGES FOR HEARING APPEALS UNDER THE TWENTY-SECOND SECTION OF THE REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1868.

EDINBURGH, 14th October 1868.

WHEREAS, by Section the Twenty-third of the Representation of the People (Scotland) Act, 1868, it is provided that the Court for hearing Appeals under the Twenty-second section of the said Act shall consist of three Judges of the Court of Session to be named from time to time by Act of Sederunt of the said Court, one Judge to be named from each Division of the Inner House, and one from the Lords Ordinary in the Outer House.

Therefore the Lords hereby NOMINATE and APPOINT the following three Judges, viz., Lord BENHOLME, Lord ARDMILLAN, and the Junior LORD ORDINARY, to be the Court for hearing Appeals under the Twenty-second Section of the said Act, with power to the said Court to adjourn their Sittings, from day to day, so long as the business before them renders it necessary.

And the Lords APPOINT this Act to be inserted in the Books of Sederunt, and to be Printed and Published in Common Form.
