ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, JAN. 20.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Dickson, Commander of his Majesty's ships and vessels in the North Sea, to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated at Yarmouth, the 19th instant.

SIR,

I enclose to you, for the information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a letter which I have received from Capt. Weitbeach, of his Majesty's sloop Favourite, giving an account of his having captured, off Flamborough-head, on the 15th instant, a French cutter privateer called Le Voyageur, mounting fourteen guns, and had on board forty-seven men. The privateer arrived this day.

I am, Sir, &c.

A. DICKSON.

SIR, Favourite, at Sea, Jan. 16.

I beg leave to acquaint you, that on the 15th inst. being off Flamborough-head, I discovered at nine A. M. a cutter close in shore, to which I immediately gave chase; and am happy to acquaint you, that I had the satisfaction to capture her after a run of seven hours. She proves to be Le Voyageur cutter privateer of Dunkirk, mounting fourteen carriage guns, manned with forty-seven men, commanded by Egide Colbert, had been out four days from Ostend, and had only captured the Camilla in ballast, belonging to Sunderland, the day before.

I am, Sir, &c.

JOS. WESTBEACH.

Admiral Dickson, Esq. Admiral of the Blue, &c.
