

James Henry Bedford, (sued as J. H. Bedford,) late of 100, Euston Road, eating-house keeper, and of 104, 116, and 124, Euston Road, and 31, Edward's Street, Portman Square, all in Middlesex, coachbuilder.

James William Young, late of 7, Hyde Street, Bloomsbury, perfumer, now out of business, residing at 12, Portland Terrace, Saint John's Wood, both in Middlesex.

Charles John Ablitt, of the Victoria Gardens and Hotel, Great Yarmouth, Norfolk, licensed victualler.

William Hall, of 72, Willes Road, Kentish Town, Middlesex, builder.

Simon Ferdinand Feldman, of 99, Hackney Road, Middlesex, wholesale boot and shoe manufacturer.

Nathaniel Henry Day, of Longmore Street, Balsall Heath, Kingsnorton, Worcester, watch, jewellery, and general dealer.

John Knight, of Nunneaton, Warwick, cabinetmaker and upholsterer, also a licensed victualler at the Market-House Inn, Nunneaton aforesaid.

Richard Ford, of Wolverhampton, Stafford, auctioneer, and retailer of beer and porter.

Gilbert Reeson, the younger, of Kirton, near Boston, Lincoln, potatoe merchant.

Herbert Topham, of Osmaston Road, Derby, coal merchant.

William Bignell, of Belper, Derby, innkeeper and coach-builder.

Robert Marston and Benjamin Garthwaite, of Leicester, dyers.

James Holmes, late of Trevarno Paper Mills, Bathford, near Bath, Somerset, paper manufacturer, a prisoner for debt in the Gaol at Taunton.

Alfred Martin, of Baneswell Road, Newport, Monmouth, baker and confectioner.

William Horner, of 6, Mount Pleasant, and John Horner, of 11, Park Terrace, both in Pontypool, Monmouth, travelling drapers, under the style or firm of W. and J. Horner.

Thomas Hawkes, and George Spencer, the younger, trading as agricultural engineers, under the name or firm of Hawkes, Spencer, & Company, at Taunton, Somerset.

John Gray Walliss, of Dewsbury, carpet manufacturer, and of Leeds, both in York, upholsterer.

John Cliffe, of Knottingley, York, ship builder.

Thomas Spence, of Godwin Street, Bradford, York, flour and corn dealer, trading under the style or firm of Thomas Spence & Co.

William Snodgrass, of Bold Street, Liverpool, Lancaster, cabinetmaker and upholsterer.

Nathaniel Rogerson, at Underwood Lane, Church Coppenthal, baker's assistant, previously of Chetwode Street, Monks Coppenthal, both in Chester, beerseller, baker, and flour dealer.

James Watkinson, formerly of Scarisbrick, farmer, but now of Virginia Street, Southport, both in Lancaster, out of business.

John Sylvester Williston, of Liverpool, Lancaster, ship chandler, trading with John Henry Brathwaite.

Alfred Livsey, of Rochdale, Lancaster, grocer and tea dealer.

Edward Ferdinand Boehm, of 1, Ashley Lane, Long Millgate, previously thereto of 17, Watling Street, and 61, Dale Street, all in Manchester, and residing at Levenshulme and Didsbury, both near Manchester, Lancaster, importer of mouldings and prints, and picture-frame manufacturer and dealer.

William Hall, at 17, Lewis Street, previously thereto at 70, Albion Street, both in Newton Heath, brass moulder, and lately carrying on business with Frederick Tracksel, under the style of Tracksel & Hall, at Hollin's Steel Works, Hollinwood, all near Manchester, Lancaster, as patent steel moulders.

Edmund Buckley, of Gorton, Lancaster, brewer.

James Cheetham, of 9, Cross Street, Manchester, and of Mills Hill, Tonge, near Manchester, merchant and commission agent, and Septimus Cheetham, of Tonge aforesaid, cottonspinner, both formerly carrying on business at Chadderton, near Manchester, all in Lancaster, as millowners, with James Taylor Cheetham, under the style of Cheetham Brothers, and more recently carrying on the same business with each other, at the same place, and under the same style.

John William Wilson, of Stockton-upon-Tees, Durham, painter and paperhanger.

Frederick John Horton, at 6 House, Richmond Place, Warstone Lane, out of business, previously carrying on business as a retail brewer at the Crown Inn, Unett Street, Saint George's, both in Birmingham, Warwick, occasionally a journeyman silversmith, and sometimes a musician.

Richard Jones, of Gerthmaslen Bach, Dolgelly, Merioneth, surveyor.

George Holmes, of 111, Kingston Road, Kingston, Portsea, Hants, labourer in Her Majesty's Dockyard at Portsea aforesaid, part of the time carrying on business with George Holmes, the younger, as wheelwrights, and dealers in coals and wood, under the style or firm of Holmes & Son.

Henry Ireland, of the White Bear Tavern, 187, Queen Street, Portsea, Hants, licensed victualler.

William Dalton, of Faugh, Hayton, Cumberland, joiner.

John Davies, of Hall Street Terrace, Princes End, Tipton, Stafford, sheet iron shearer.

William Morris, residing at Dudley, Worcester, out of business, previously of Tipton, Stafford, chartermaster.

Thomas Venner, of Crediton, Devon, baker and grocer.

Benjamin Cropper, formerly of 5, Castle Street, beerseller, but now of Vavasour Street, both in Rochdale, Lancaster, out of business.

Thomas Webster, of Rawmarsh, York, publican.

Thomas Bradbury, late of Naulo Mills, Abbots Lane, silk throwster, now at 47, Bailey Lane, both in Coventry, Warwick, out of business.

Israel Entwistle, of Over Darwen, Lancaster, grocer.

George Hall, of Billingham, previously of Ancaster, both in Lincoln, grocer, general dealer, and common carrier.

Frederick Callan, late of 6, William Street, and 21 and 23, Clement Street, Liverpool, Lancaster, cotton dealer and cotton dyer.

James Clay, of the Broad Marsh and York Street, both in Nottingham, dyer.

Robert Allburn, of Lincoln, licensed victualler.

John Cockerill, at New Bilton, Old Bilton, Warwick, journeyman sawyer.

Francis Edward Shipley, late of 62, Nichol's Street, beerseller and soda water manufacturer, but now at 31, Buckingham Street, King Richard's Road, both in Leicester, soda water manufacturer.

David Coullie, now of 18, and late of 41, Queen Street, Whitehaven, schoolmaster, previously of the Crown Inn, Warwick Road, Carlisle, and formerly of the Ship Inn, Cocker mouth, all in Cumberland, innkeeper.

Henry Eldridge, of High Street, Westbromwich, Stafford, schoolmaster.

Joseph George Jenner, late of Melbourne, Australia, butcher, and also of 11, 12, and 13, Somer's Town, publican and greengrocer, and now of 4, Jesse Place, Great Knollys Street, all in Reading, Berks, out of business.

Edward Garraway, of Broadwell, Gloucester, out of business.

George Mitchinson, at present at 42, Coburg Street, Gateshead, formerly at Gateshead Low Fell, and carrying on business as a chemist and druggist at Bottle Bank, Gateshead, under the name of R. Mitchinson, and formerly of 8, Chester Road, Bishopwearmouth, commission agent, and formerly of Dock Street, Monkwearmouth, and High Street, Sunderland, chemist and druggist.

Joseph Aldridge, of 15, Keeling Street, Church Lane, Tipton, gentlemans' gardener, and previously thereto of Aldridge, both in Stafford, carrying on the trade or business of a baker and provision dealer.

William Iremonger, of Albion Street, Southwick, Sussex, shipwright and boat builder.

Leopold Kuner, of 60, High Street, Mile Town, Sheerness, watch and clock maker, and jeweller.

Edward Pattison, of 7, Atkinson Street, Stockton, Durham, provision dealer.

Obadiah Walker, of Talbot Place, Sheffield, York, book-keeper.