ARTICLE I.

Le délai accordé au Gouvernement Français par la Déclaration du 4 Novembre 1868, pour établir une corrélation exacte entre les droits à percevoir sur les sucres bruts et les rendements fixés par la Déclaration du 20 Novembre 1866, est prolongé jusqu'au 30 Juin 1871.

ARTICLE IV.

Chacun des Gouvernements Contractants aura la faculté de subdiviser les classes de sucre brut mentionnées à l'Article I de la Convention du 8 Novembre 1864, et de créer des sous-types correspondant à ces subdivisions, sans pouvoir, toutefois, modifier la limite de l'une des classes actuelles, ni abaisser le rendement moyen des diverses qualités de sucre que ces classes comprennent.

Declaration.

The Governments of Great Britain, Belgium, France, and the Netherlands, being desirous to regulate, by common agreement, certain questions connected with the execution of the Convention of the 8th of November 1864, relating to the sugar system, the undersigned, duly authorized to that effect, and after having taken cognizance of the final Protocol signed on the 5th of October of the present year by the Commissioners of the four Governments assembled in Conference at the Hague, have agreed upon the following arrangements :—

ARTICLE I.

The period granted to the French Government by the Declaration of the 4th of November 1868, for establishing an exact correlation between the duties to be levied on raw sugars and the yields fixed by the Declaration of the 20th of November 1866, is extended to the 30th of June 1871.

ARTICLE II.

Provisionally, the duty on the importation into France of refined sugars coming from the other Contracting States remains fixed at forty-eight francs eighty-five centimes (48f. 85c.)

ARTICLE III.

The limit of exportation of pieces produced from sugars admitted under the system of temporary importation, which was fixed by the second paragraph of Article X of the Convention of the 8th November 1864, is lowered from Standard No. 10 to Standard No. 7.

ARTICLE IV.

Each of the Contracting Governments shall be at liberty to subdivide the classes of raw sugar mentioned in Article I of the Convention of the 8th of November 1864, and to create sub-standards corresponding to such sub-divisions, without, however, having the power to modify the limit of any one of the actual classes, nor to lower the average yield of the different qualities of sugar comprised in those classes.

ARTICLE V.

The present arrangement shall come into execution from and after the 1st of January 1870.

In witness whereof the undersigned have drawn up the present Declaration, and have affixed to it the seal of their arms.
