INTIMATION is Hereby Given that JOHN ANDREW MACDONALD, Esquire, Heir of Entail in possession of the Entailed Lands and Estate of GLENALADALE and Others, in the County of Inverness, has presented a Petition to the Lords of Council and Session (First Division, Junior Lord Ordinary,—Mr Shield, Clerk), in terms of the Acts 11th and 12th Victoria, chapter 36, and 16th and 17th Victoria, chapter 94, and 31st and 32d Victoria, chapter 84, and

BURGH OF DUMBARTON.

DIVISION of BURGH into WARDS, for the purpose of Parliamentary and Municipal Elections.

NOTICE is Hereby Given that, in pursuance of the 27th Section of the Dumbarton Waterworks and Municipality Act, 1869, the parties appointed to determine and adjust the DIVISION of the said BURGH into FIVE WARDS, have determined and adjusted the division of the said Burgh accordingly, and have given to each Ward a distinctive number, and have fixed and determined the WARDS to which the existing TOWN-COUNCILLORS shall be apportioned, and the order in which they shall retire by rotation, and have reported the same to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, who has approved of their Report.

The division of the said Burgh into Wards, and the boundaries of the Wards, and the distinctive numbers given to the Wards, are as follows:—

FIRST WARD.

The First Ward is bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point in the centre of the River Leven, where the Parliamentary and Municipal boundary of the said Burgh on the north-western side thereof crosses the Royalty boundary of the said Burgh, and running along the course of the said Parliamentary and Municipal boundary in a westerly and southerly direction to the River Clyde, and thence along the said Parliamentary and Municipal boundary in an easterly direction till it reaches the centre of the River Leven, where that boundary again crosses the Royalty boundary of the said Burgh; thence in a northerly direction along the said Royalty boundary till that boundary reaches the point first above-mentioned.

SECOND WARD.

The Second Ward is bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point in the centre of the public bridge across the River Leven in the said Burgh, and running in a south-easterly direction along the Royalty boundary of the said Burgh for a distance of 860 yards; thence in a northerly direction to the point where the Knoll Burn falls into the River Leven, and along the centre of the Knoll Burn to the centre of Castle Street; thence in a westerly and northerly direction along the centre of Castle Street, Church Place, and High Street, to the point of junction of the last-named street with Bridge Street; thence in a westerly direction along the centre of Bridge Street, and along the public bridge across the Leven before-mentioned to the point in the centre of that bridge first above-mentioned.

THIRD WARD.

The Third Ward is bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the last-mentioned point in the centre of the said public bridge, and running in an easterly direction along the centre of the said bridge, and along the centre of Bridge Street to the point of junction of that Street with High Street; thence in a south-easterly direction along the centre of High Street to the junction of that Street with College Street; thence in a north-easterly direction along the centre of College Street to the line of the Caledonian and Dumbartonshire Junction Railway, and across that Railway to the Bankend Road; thence in an easterly direction along the centre of Bankend Road to a point opposite the centre of the archway beneath the said Railway connecting Bankend Road with Church Street; thence in a northerly direction for a distance of 60 yards from the centre of Bankend Road into the back water called College Burn; thence in a westerly direction to the Royalty boundary of the said Burgh, in the centre of the River Leven opposite the south-eastern corner of Leven Bank Foundry; and thence along the said Royalty boundary in a southerly direction to the point in the centre of the public bridge first above-mentioned.

FOURTH WARD.

The Fourth Ward is bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point in the centre of High Street at the junction of that Street with College Street; thence running in an easterly direction along the centre of High Street, Church Place, and Castle Street, to the centre of Knoll Burn; thence in a northerly direction along the centre of Knoll Burn and the Town's Mill-lade to the centre of the Caledonian and Dumbartonshire Junction Railway; thence in a westerly direction along the centre of that Railway to the centre of the Stirling and Dumbarton Road; thence in a north-easterly direction along the centre of that Road to the junction with that road of the Bankend Road; thence in a westerly direction along the centre of the Bankend Road to a point opposite the centre of the archway beneath the said Railway, connecting Bankend Road with College Street; thence in a south-westerly direction across the said Railway and along the centre of College Street to the point in the centre of High Street aforesaid.

FIFTH WARD.

The Fifth Ward is bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point aforesaid in the centre of the River Leven, where the Parliamentary and Municipal boundary of the said Burgh, on the north-western side thereof, crosses the Royalty boundary of the said Burgh, thence running along the course of the said Royalty boundary in a southerly direction to the said point on that boundary in the centre of the River Leven, opposite the south-eastern corner of Leven Bank Foundry; thence in an easterly direction along the back water called College Burn to a point opposite the centre of the archway under the said Caledonian and Dumbartonshire Junction Railway, connecting the Bankend Road with Church Street, and distant 60 yards in a northerly direction from the centre of Bankend Road; thence in a southerly direction to the centre of the Bankend Road; thence in an easterly direction along the centre of the Bankend Road to the centre of the Stirling and Dumbarton Road; thence in a south-westerly direction along the centre of that Road to the centre of the said Railway; thence in an easterly direction along the centre of the said Railway to the centre of the Town's Mill-lade; thence in a southerly direction along the centre of the Town's Mill-lade and of the Knoll Burn to the River Leven, and thence due south to the Royalty boundary of the said Burgh in that River; thence in a southerly direction along that boundary to the point in the said River where that boundary crosses the Parliamentary and Municipal boundary of the said Burgh; thence in an easterly direction along the said Parliamentary and Municipal boundary to the point where Gruggies Burn joins the River Clyde; and thence along the course of the said last-mentioned boundary in a northerly, then in a north westerly, and thereafter in a south-westerly direction till it reaches the point in the centre of the said River Leven on the north-western side of the said Burgh first above-mentioned.

The WARDS to which the existing TOWN-COUNCILLORS are appointed, are as follows:—

To the First Ward—Councillors Robert Buchanan, James Ure, and Matthew Paul.

To the Second Ward—Councillors Patrick Smith, Thomas Muir, and John Bell, Senior.

To the Third Ward—Councillors William Whyte, David M'Murray, and William M'Leod.

To the Fourth Ward—Councillors John Babbie, Donald M'Leod, and Robert Binnie; and

To the Fifth Ward—Councillors James Callen, George Bell, and John Colquhoun.

The order in which the said Town-Councillors shall retire by rotation is as follows:—

At the Annual Election of Councillors in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the following Councillors shall retire, viz:—

Robert Buchanan, Patrick Smith, William Whyte, John Babbie, and James Callen.

At the Annual Election of Councillors in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, the following Councillors shall retire, namely,—

James Ure, Thomas Muir, David M'Murray, Donald M'Leod, and George Bell; and

At the Annual Election of Councillors in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, the following Councillors shall retire, namely,—

Matthew Paul, John Bell, Senior, William M'Leod, Robert Binnie, and John Colquhoun.

All which is hereby published in terms of 'The Dumbarton Waterworks and Municipality Act, 1869.'

By Order of the parties appointed aforesaid, Commissioners.

JOHN DENNY,
Town-Clerk of Dumbarton.

COUNCIL-CHAMBERS,
Dumbarton, 31st January 1870.

INTIMATION is Hereby Given, in terms of an Interlocutor by the Lords of Council and Session, Commissioners for the Plantation of Kirks and Valuation of Teinds, dated the 31st day of January 1870, and pursuant to the Statute 7th and 8th Victoria, cap. 44, that a Petition has been presented to their Lordships for and in name of The Reverend WILLIAM SMITH, D.D., Minister of the Parish of North Leith, Convener, and on behalf of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland's Committee on the Endowment of Chapels of Ease, and Others, all Contributors to the Endowment of the Church and proposed new Parish of Friockheim quoad sacra, in the Presbytery of Arbroath, praying their Lordships, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the Acts of Parliament therein recited, to DECERN and ERECT the said Church of Friockheim into a PARISH CHURCH, in connection with the Church of Scotland, and to MARK OUT and DESIGNATE the District above specially set forth, or such other District as to their Lordships should seem more fit, as the District to be attached to the said Church of Friockheim quoad sacra; and to DISJOIN the said Church and District quoad sacra from the Parishes of Kirkcaldy and of Inverkeillor, to which the same now belongs; and to ERECT the said Church and District into a Church and Parish quoad sacra, in connection with the Church of Scotland, to be called THE CHURCH AND PARISH OF FRIOCKHEIM; and to FIND and DECLARE that the Minister and Elders of the said Church and Parish so to be erected, shall have and enjoy the status, and all the powers, rights, and privileges of a Parish Minister and Elders in connection with the Church of Scotland; and to FIND and DECLARE that, upon the said Church of Friockheim, and District to be attached thereto, being ERECTED into a Church and Parish quoad sacra, in terms of the foregoing cravings, the Patronage thereof shall be thereafter vested in the parties pointed out by the Seventh Article of the Constitution mentioned in the said Petition; but always under reservation of the right of the Presbytery of the bounds to present to the said Church, jure devoluto, according to law, and as provided in the said Act of the 7th and 8th Victoria, cap. 44; and to FIND, DECERN, and DECLARE in the premises, in terms of the foregoing cravings, or in such other terms as to their Lordships should seem meet, as the said Petition in itself more fully bears: And Intimation is Hereby Further Given that, agreeably to the appointment in said Interlocutor, the Petitioners have lodged printed copies of the said Petition with the Session-Clerks of the said Parishes of Kirkcaldy and Inverkeillor, and with the Minister of the said Church of Friockheim, for the use of such parties interested as may apply for the same.
