LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
ST JAMES'S PALACE, February 7, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday the 22d of March next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to the Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Rooms, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who, under these circumstances, should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY, Lord Chamberlain.

ACT OF SEDERUNT

ANENT

PROBATION AND APPEALS FROM INFERIOR COURTS,

EDINBURGH, March 10, 1870.

The LORDS of COUNCIL and SESSION, considering that, by the Act of Parliament 31 and 32 Vict., cap. 100, sec. 106, they are authorised from time to time to make such Regulations by Act of Sederunt as shall be necessary for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Act, and, so far as may be found expedient, for altering the course of proceeding therein prescribed, in respect to the matters to which the said Act relates, or any of them; and considering further, that it is expedient to alter in some respects the course of proceeding prescribed in said Act, do hereby ENACT and DECLARE —

I. That the 27th section of the said Act shall be altered to the effect of substituting for the enactments thereof the following provisions:—

At closing the Record the Lord Ordinary shall require the parties to state whether they renounce Probation; and,

(1.) If the parties shall then renounce Probation, the Lord Ordinary shall, in respect thereof, appoint the Cause to be debated in the Debate Roll, and it shall forthwith be enrolled in the said Roll by the Lord Ordinary's Clerk,—without prejudice to the Lord Ordinary or the Inner House ordering proof, ex proprio motu, at any after stage of the Cause, if they shall deem proof to be necessary for the purpose of enabling the Court to do complete justice between the parties, subject to such conditions as to expenses as shall seem just.

(2.) If the parties, or any of them, shall not renounce Probation, the Lord Ordinary shall require them to state what proof they propose ; and if parties are agreed that proof is necessary, and as to what proof ought to be allowed, the Lord Ordinary, if himself satisfied of the propriety of the proof proposed, shall appoint the same to be taken.

(3.) If the parties are at variance as to whether there shall be proof, or as to what proof ought to be allowed, or if they or any of them shall maintain that one or more of the pleas stated on the Record should be disposed of before determining on the matter of proof, the Lord Ordinary shall appoint the Cause to be enrolled in a roll to be called the Procedure Roll ; and the Cause shall be forthwith enrolled in the said roll by the Lord Ordinary's Clerk ; and, after hearing the parties in the said roll, the Lord Ordinary shall pronounce such Interlocutor as shall be just ; and may either appoint proof to be taken, or dispose of such pleas on the Record as he thinks ought to be disposed of at that stage. Provided always, that it shall be competent to the Lord Ordinary, if he shall think right, to appoint the Cause to be heard in the Debate Roll, in place of the Procedure Roll.

(4.) It shall be always competent for parties having a Cause standing in the Procedure Roll, in regard to which they have come to be agreed that it should be disposed of by a proof before the Lord Ordinary, or a trial by Jury, or otherwise, to enrol the Cause in the Motion Roll, in order that the matter may be brought under the consideration of the Lord Ordinary, and such Interlocutor be pronounced as he shall think right in the circumstances.

(5.) In every case in which proof is to be taken before a Jury, Issues shall be adjusted either at the time of proof being appointed in the Cause, or on a day to be fixed not later than eight days thereafter ; and the parties shall lodge the Issues respectively proposed by them two days before the day so fixed.

Provided always that it shall be competent to try any cause by Jury on the Record without Issues, if it shall appear to the Lord Ordinary expedient that such Cause should be so tried.

(6.) The provisions of the Act of Sederunt of 15th July 1865, in the first seven sections thereof, shall be enforced in causes in the Procedure Roll, as well as in causes in the Debate Roll.

II. That the provisions of the 28th section of the said Statute shall apply to all the Interlocutors of the Lord Ordinary herein before referred to, so far as these import an appointment of proof, or a refusal or postponement of the same.

III. That the course of proceeding prescribed by the 71st section of the said Statute shall be altered to the following extent and effect :—

(1.) The Appellant shall, during Session, within fourteen days after the process has been received by the Clerk of Court, print and box the Note of Appeal, Record, Interlocutors, and Proof, if any, unless, within eight days after the process has been received by the Clerk, he shall have obtained an Interlocutor of the Court dispensing with printing in whole or in part ; in which case the Appellant shall only print and box, as aforesaid, those papers, the printing whereof has not been dispensed with ; and, if printing has been in whole dispensed with, shall lodge with the Clerk of Court a manuscript copy of the Note of Appeal, furnishing another copy to the Clerk of the Lord President of the Division : And if the Appellant shall fail, within the period of fourteen days, to print and box, or lodge and furnish the papers required as aforesaid, he shall be held to have abandoned his Appeal, and shall not be entitled to insist therein, except upon being reponed, as hereinafter provided.

(2.) The Appellant shall, during vacation, within fourteen days after the process has been received by the Clerk of Court, deposit with the said Clerk a print of the Note of Appeal, Record, Interlocutors, and Proof, if any, unless, within eight days after the process has been received by the Clerk, he shall have obtained from the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills an Interlocutor dispensing with printing in whole or in part, for which purpose the Assistant-Clerk shall, if required, lay the process before the Lord Ordinary on the Bills ; and in such case the Appellant shall deposit with the Clerk, as aforesaid, a print of those papers, the printing whereof has not been dispensed with ; and, if printing has been in whole dispensed with, shall lodge with the said Clerk a manuscript copy of the Note of Appeal ; and the Appellant shall, upon the Box-day or Sederunt-day next following the deposit of such print with the Clerk, box copies of the same to the Court ; or, if printing has been in whole dispensed with, shall furnish to the Clerk of the Lord President of the Division a manuscript copy of the Note of Appeal : And if the Appellant shall fail, within the said period of fourteen days, to deposit with the Clerk of Court, as aforesaid, a print of the papers required, or to lodge with him a manuscript copy of the Note of Appeal, as the case may be, or to box or furnish the same as aforesaid, on the Box-day or Sederunt-day next thereafter, he shall be held to have abandoned his Appeal, and shall not be entitled to insist therein, except upon being reponed, as hereinafter provided.

(3.) It shall be lawful for the Appellant, within eight days after the Appeal has been held to be abandoned as aforesaid, to move the Court during Session, or the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills during Vacation, to Repone him, to the effect of entitling him to insist in the Appeal ; which motion shall not be granted by the Court or the Lord Ordinary except upon cause shown, and upon such conditions as to printing, and payment of expenses to the Respondent, or otherwise, as to the Court or the Lord Ordinary shall seem just.

(4.) It shall be lawful for the Respondent, within eight days after the Appeal has been held to be abandoned as aforesaid, if during Session, to print and box the Note of Appeal, Record, Interlocutor, and Proof, if any ; and if during Vacation, to deposit a print thereof with the Clerk of Court, and thereafter to insist in the Appeal, as if it had been taken by himself ; in which case the Appellant shall also be entitled to insist in the Appeal.

(5.) On the expiry of the said period of eight days after the Appeal has been held to be abandoned as aforesaid, if the Appellant shall not have been reponed, and if the Respondent does not insist in the Appeal, the judgment or judgments complained of shall become final, and shall be treated in all respects as if no Appeal had been taken against the same; and the Clerk of Court shall forthwith retransmit the process to the Clerk of the Inferior Court: Provided always, that before retransmitting the process, the Clerk of Court or his Assistant shall engross upon the Interlocutor-sheet, and sign a certificate in these or similar terms:— '[Date]—Retransmitted in respect of the Abandonment of the Appeal;' and, in respect of said certificate, the Sheriff, or other Judge of the Inferior Court, shall, upon a motion being made before him to that effect, grant decree for payment to the Respondent in the Appeal of the sum of three pounds three shillings of expenses.

IV. The above Regulations shall receive effect and be enforced on and after 21st March 1870.

And the Lords APPOINT this Act to be inserted in the Books of Sederunt, and to be published in the usual manner.

The Secretary of State for War has appointed John William Howard, Esq., M.R.C.S., to be Assistant Visiting Surgeon for Dover and Canterbury, under the Contagious Diseases Acts, 1866 to 1869.

December 14, 1869.

The Right Honourable Sir FitzRoy Kelly, Knt., Lord Chief Baron of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer, at Westminster, has appointed Edwin Bedford, of Haberdasher's Hall, Gresham Street West, Gentleman, to be a London Commissioner for administering oaths in Common Law in the said Court.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 27, for amending the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and for providing for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications.

And whereas by the laws now in force British newspapers, and packets consisting of British newspapers, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to various British colonies and foreign countries, may be transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to such colonies and foreign countries, subject to the payment of a certain rate of postage for each such newspaper, and for every such packet according to the weight thereof respectively, and it is expedient to fix a uniform scale of weight by which every such newspaper so transmitted may be charged with a separate and distinct rate of postage according to the weight thereof respectively, and it is also expedient to limit the weight of packets of British newspapers, and certain other packets transmissible by the post, in the manner and to the extent hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, and each of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said

Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare as follows, that is to say:—

1. On every packet, consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any British colony or foreign country, and transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to any such British colony or foreign country, there shall be charged, taken, and paid the rate of postage now chargeable and payable for every such newspaper, or packet consisting of such newspapers, so posted or transmitted by the post, and for every additional four ounces in weight of any such packet, consisting of a printed British newspaper, above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage under this clause every fractional part of every additional four ounces shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight, and each additional rate of postage chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

2. For the purposes of this Warrant every printed British newspaper so posted and transmitted by the post as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and distinct single rate, or separate and distinct additional rates of postage, according to the weight thereof, as hereinbefore mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle of newspapers, and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any such newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

3. And we do further order, direct, and declare, that no packet of printed British newspapers, or of books, publications, or works of literature or art, or of printed papers (other than newspapers), or of patterns or samples of merchandize, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any British colony or foreign country, shall, if exceeding five pounds in weight, be transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to any such British colony or foreign country; and if any such packet be posted, or be tendered or delivered in order to be so sent by the post, it shall and may be detained and opened, and be either returned or given up to the sender thereof; but this clause shall not extend to or affect any packet of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament.

4. All such packets as are mentioned in this Warrant shall remain, subject in every respect (save as is in this Warrant mentioned) to the several orders, regulations, conditions and restrictions now in force and applicable thereto.

5. The term "printed British newspaper," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean a newspaper printed in the United Kingdom, whether it bear a newspaper stamp or not; and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the firstly hereinbefore recited Act.

6. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, revoke, or modify the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other regulations in lieu thereof.

7. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy.
