TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1870.

ST JAMES'S PALACE, October 16, 1870.

THE Queen has been pleased to appoint the Honourable Mary Emma Pitt to be one of Her Majesty's Maids of Honour in Ordinary, in the room of Lady Florence Catherine Seymour, resigned.

By virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes;" and of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further limit and define the time for proceeding to Election during the Recess:"

I do hereby give notice that the death of John Gurdon Rebow, Esq., late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the borough of Colchester, hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said borough, at the end of six days after the insertion of this Notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this twentieth day of October 1870.

J. E. DENISON, Speaker.

WHITEHALL, October 13, 1870.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Thomas France, Clerk, Bachelor in Divinity, Rector of Davenham, in the county palatine of Chester, second but eldest surviving son and heir of Thomas France (formerly Thomas Hayhurst), late of Bostock Hall, in the said county palatine, Esquire, deceased, Her Royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with a declaration contained in the last will and testament of his brother James France France, late of Bostock Hall aforesaid, Esquire, deceased, and with a proviso contained in a certain indenture of settlement bearing date the 15th day of September last, assume and use the surname of Hayhurst in addition to and after that of France, and bear the arms of Hayhurst quarterly with those of France, and that such surname and arms may in like manner be taken, used, and borne by his issue; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms and recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise the said Royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
October 20, 1870.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of the following Quarantine Regulations recently issued at the port of Savannah:—

Special Notice to Pilots and Masters of Vessels.

Office of Health Officer,
Savannah, October 1, 1870.

From and after the 1st of October until the 1st of November the following quarantine regulations will be enforced:—

1. All vessels arriving at this port from or having touched at Key West, Florida, the West India or Bahama Islands, South America or Mexico.

2. All vessels from foreign ports without clean bills of health, or from ports where contagious or epidemic disease is known or supposed to exist; also all vessels arriving from ports in North America, south of Savannah, with sickness on board, will anchor in Tybee Roads, opposite the Lighthouse, until visited and inspected by the health officer.

No sick seaman or passenger shall be brought to the city from any vessel in the harbours without the consent of the health officer. Pilots and masters of vessels will be held rigidly responsible for any violation of the above regulations.

(Signed) J. C. HABERSHAM, M.D.,
Health Officer, Port of Savannah.

Approved—

(Signed) JOHN SCREVEN,
Mayor.
