CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION, October 27, 1870.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give Notice that the following Regulations for two Open Competitive Examinations, to be held in pursuance of Her Majesty's Order in Council of

4th June 1870, have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:—

I.

REGULATIONS (framed in pursuance of Her Majesty's Order in Council of the 4th day of June 1870,) for an Open Competitive Examination for Clerkships, &c., in the Departments mentioned in the Schedule hereto annexed.

N.B.—These Regulations apply only to the Competitive Examination to be held on the [*] For any subsequent Examination fresh Regulations will be issued, which may be different from these.

1. On the day of and following days,* an Examination will be held in London of candidates for permanent clerkships and similar situations, in some or all of the Departments named in the schedule hereto annexed. [*] such clerkships, &c., will be filled up by means of this competition, if so many candidates shall be found qualified according to the rules hereinafter prescribed.

2. This competition will, subject to the payment of the fees hereinafter mentioned, be open to all persons, being natural born subjects of Her Majesty, who, on or before the day of , shall have produced evidence prima facie satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners, showing—

- (a.) That their age, on the first day of the Examination, will not be less than 18 nor more than 24;
- (b.) That their health and character are such as to qualify them for admission to the Civil Service in the departments referred to;
- (c.) That they have passed the preliminary Examination prescribed in Regulation 3.

3. Preliminary Examinations, for the purpose of deciding who shall be admitted to the subsequent competition, will be held by the Civil Service Commissioners in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin,† on the following days,* viz., [] in the following subjects:—

1. Handwriting;
2. Orthography;
3. Arithmetic (to vulgar and decimal fractions);
4. English composition; and no candidate who fails to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners of his competence in each of these subjects will be admitted to the next Competitive Examination, or to any similar preliminary test examination which may be held within a period of three months.

Application for permission to attend one of these preliminary Examinations must be made to the Civil Service Commissioners by letter, in the writing of the candidate, a fortnight at least before the day on which he wishes to attend.

A fee of one pound will be required from each candidate attending this Examination.

* The dates of these Examinations, and the number and nature of the Appointments to be competed for, will be announced as soon as the necessary arrangements have been made.

† On future occasions arrangements may be made, if it prove desirable, for holding the preliminary Examinations in other places also.

4. The Competitive Examination will take place in the following branches of knowledge, and in such others as the Civil Service Commissioners may determine :—

Council of 4th June 1870, for the particular situation to which he may be appropriated, as arranged in the following Regulation (9).

9. Subject to the last-mentioned condition, the particular departments and situations to which the selected candidates may be respectively appointed will be determined by their own choice, exercised, while an alternative remains, by each in the order of his position on the List. Vacancies, as they occur, will be announced by the chiefs of the various Departments to the Civil Service Commissioners, who will communicate with the qualified candidates next in order of choice, and report the result to the Departments concerned. In case of a vacancy occurring in a Department for which no one on the list of selected candidates is in all respects qualified, the Civil Service Commissioners may either hold a special open competition for the appointment, or may offer it to the candidate highest at the time on the list of selected candidates, subject to his passing a qualifying examination within such period as they may determine.

10. Every selected candidate, after being assigned to a Department, will enter on a period of probation, and he will not remain in the Public Service after six months from the date of his appointment unless satisfactory proofs of his fitness shall have been furnished to the chief of such Department, and a certificate of his qualification shall have been issued by the Civil Service Commissioners.

SCHEDULE of DEPARTMENTS and SITUATIONS referred to in the preceding Regulations (1).

* * The number and nature of the appointments to be competed for will be announced when the necessary arrangements have been made.

II.

REGULATIONS (framed in pursuance of Her Majesty's Order in Council of the 4th day of June 1870,) for an Open Competitive Examination for Clerkships, Supplementary Clerkships, and other situations in various Departments, as specified in the Schedule hereto annexed.

N.B.—The Regulations apply only to the Competitive Examination to be held on the [*]. For any subsequent Examination fresh Regulations will be issued, which may be different from these.

1. On the day of and following days,* an Examination will be held, in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin,† of candidates for employment as Clerks, and Supplementary Clerks, and in other capacities, in various Departments, as specified in the schedule hereto annexed. [*] such situations will be filled up by means of this competition, if so many candidates shall be found qualified according to the rules hereinafter prescribed.

* The dates of these Examinations, and the numbers and nature of the appointments to be competed for, will be announced as soon as the necessary arrangements have been made.

† On future occasions arrangements may be made, if it prove desirable, for holding these Examinations in other places also.

2. This competition will, subject to the payment of the fees hereinafter mentioned, be open to all persons, being natural-born subjects of Her Majesty, who, on or before the day of the Examination, shall have produced evidence prima facie satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners, showing—
